Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas by Hunter S. Thompson Eric Boudreaux, 2011-12-20 Quicklets Learn more Read less Born in Louisville Kentucky in 1937 Hunter S Thompson was a consummate journeyman wandering the globe in search of God knows what He spent the early part of his career writing about sports In fact his personality can be closely linked to another Louisville product of the same era Muhammad Ali Both men fueled by a certain sense of self love spat in the face of authority decorum and everything else that mid century America held dear True to the ethos of Gonzo Journalism Fear and

Loathing is loosely based on two trips pun intended Thompson took with an attorney Oscar Zeta Acosta to Las Vegas in 1971 Thompson a professional writer closely associated with some of the country s biggest magazines was sent by Sports Illustrated to write an elongated picture caption for the Mint 400 one of the world s most lucrative off road races A few months later Thompson was sent to Las Vegas again to cover a drug conference held by the National District Attorneys What was supposed to be a couple hundred words about an off road race turned into a manuscript nearly ten times the size The work was rejected outright by Sports Illustrated but accepted by Rolling Stone Thompson notoriously reluctant to review and revise his own works completed five drafts of the book before its publishing Fear and Loathing was met by much critical acclaim It was thought by Thompson s contemporaries to be one of the best books ever written about the 1960s drug culture

The Hippie Narrative Scott MacFarlane, 2015-01-24 The Hippie movement of the 1960s helped change modern societal attitudes toward ethnic and cultural diversity environmental accountability spiritual expressiveness and the justification of war With roots in the Beat literary movement of the late 1950s the hippie perspective also advocated a bohemian lifestyle which expressed distaste for hypocrisy and materialism yet did so without the dark somewhat forced undertones of their predecessors This cultural revaluation which developed as a direct response to the dark days of World War II created a counterculture which came to be at the epicenter of an American societal debate and ultimately saw the beginnings of postmodernism Focusing on 1962 through 1976 this book takes a constructivist look at the hippie era s key works of prose which in turn may be viewed as the literary canon of the counterculture It examines the ways in which these works with their tendency toward whimsy and spontaneity are genuinely reflective of the period Arranged chronologically the discussed works function as a lens for viewing the period as a whole providing a more rounded sense of the hippie Zeitgeist that shaped and inspired the period Among the 15 works represented are One Flew Over the Cuckoo s Nest The Crying of Lot 49 Trout Fishing in America Siddhartha Stranger in a Strange Land Slaughterhouse Five and The Fan Man Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas Hunter S. Thompson, 2017-12-25 We were somewhere around Barstow on the edge of the desert when the drugs began to take hold I remember saying something like I feel a bit lightheaded maybe you should drive And suddenly there was a terrible roar all around us and the sky was full of what looked like huge bats all swooping and screeching and diving around the car which was going about a hundred miles an hour with the top down to Las Vegas And a voice was screaming Holy Jesus What are these goddamn animals Then it was quiet again My attorney had taken his shirt off and was pouring beer on his chest to facilitate the tanning process What the hell are you yelling about he muttered staring up at the sun with his eyes closed and covered with wraparound Spanish sunglasses Never mind I said It s your turn to drive I hit the brakes and aimed the Great Red Shark toward the shoulder of the highway No point mentioning those bats I thought The poor bastard will see them soon enough It was almost noon and we still had more than a hundred miles to go They would be tough miles Very soon I knew we would both be completely twisted But there was no going back and no time to rest We would have to ride it out Press registration for the fabulous Mint 400 was already underway and we had to get there by four to claim our sound proof suite A fashionable sporting magazine in New York had taken care of the reservations along with this huge red Chevy convertible we d just rented off a lot on the Sunset Strip and I was after all a professional journalist so I had an obligation to cover the story for good or ill The sporting editors had also given me 300 in cash most of which was already spent on extremely dangerous drugs The trunk of the car looked like a mobile police narcotics lab We had two bags of grass seventy five pellets of mescaline five sheets of high powered blotter acid a salt shaker half full of cocaine and a whole galaxy of multi colored uppers downers screamers laughers and also a quart of tequila a quart of rum a case of Budweiser a pint of raw ether and two dozen amyls All this had been rounded up the night before in a frenzy of high speed driving all over Los Angeles County from Topanga to Watts we picked up everything we could get our hands on Not that we needed all that for the trip but once you get locked into a serious drug collection the tendency is to push it as far as you can The only thing that really worried me was the ether There is nothing in the world more helpless and irresponsible and depraved than a man in the depths of an ether binge And I knew we d get into that rotten stuff pretty soon Probably at the next gas station We had sampled almost everything else and now yes it was time for a long snort of ether And then do the next hundred miles in a horrible slobbering sort of spastic stupor The only way to keep alert on ether is to do up a lot of amyls not all at once but steadily just enough to maintain the focus at ninety miles an hour through Barstow Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas
