Women Film Editors David Meuel, 2016-05-30 When the movie business adopted some of the ways of other big industries in 1920s America women who had been essential to the industry's early development were systematically squeezed out of key behind the camera roles Yet as female producers and directors virtually disappeared for decades a number of female film editors remained and rose to the top of their profession sometimes wielding great power and influence Their example inspired a later generation of women to enter the profession at mid century several of whom were critical to revolutionizing filmmaking in the 1960s and 1970s with contributions to such classics as Bonnie and Clyde, Jaws and Raging Bull Focusing on nine of these women and presenting shorter glimpses of nine others this book tells their captivating personal stories and examines their professional achievements

Marketing Communications Chris Fill, Sarah Turnbull, 2019 The new edition of Marketing Communications delivers a rich blend of theory with examples of contemporary marketing practice Providing a critical insight into how brands engage audiences Fill and Turnbull continues to be the definitive marketing communications text for undergraduate and postgraduate students in marketing and related fields The eighth edition which contains two new chapters reflects the changing and disruptive world of marketing communications Throughout the text the impact of digital media and its ability to influence audience client and agency experiences is considered Each chapter has been extensively revised with new examples the latest theoretical insights and suggested reading materials Each of the 22 chapters also has a new case study drawn from brands and agencies from around the world Marketing Communications is recognised as the authoritative text for professional courses such as The Chartered Institute of Marketing and is supported by the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising

All Your Friends Like This Hal Crawford, Andrew Hunter, Domagoj Filipovic, 2015-09-01 ALL YOUR FRIENDS LIKE THIS is a topical punchy and provocative look at how social networks are taking over the news How do you get your news Chances are not from a newspaper or the TV that's so old school If you're anything like the rest of us you get it from Facebook or Twitter The great power shift from traditional media to social networks is happening right now This boom means that for millions of us our first exposure to information about the world comes from our friends not news media But social networks don't do news the old fashioned way Because we share stories that make us look good inspire us and fire us up the tone and flavour of the news making process is irrevocably altered What does this mean for media For journalists The audience Are we better off or worse off because of it Highly topical provocative and totally absorbing ALL YOUR FRIENDS LIKE THIS does for the media what Freakonomics did for economics If you're interested in the news in what we read and why we read it then this game changing book is essential
