Freedom Lucinda Mosher, 2021 Believed to be the longest running international dialogue of Christian and Muslim scholars the Building Bridges Seminar was initiated in 2002 by then Archbishop of Canterbury George Carey Annually the Building Bridges Seminar creates a conversation circle comprising some thirty scholar believers for the purpose of deep dialogical study of texts scriptural and otherwise As a comparative theological topic freedom is far from straightforward While it has long been identified with modernity and even post modernity it is indeed a theme taken up in both the Bible and the Qur'an But whereas the New Testament emerged in a region under occupation by the Roman Empire the Qur'an was first received in a stateless environment tribal Arabia that took political freedom for granted Hence the engagement of freedom by Christian and Islamic scriptures is not precisely equivalent Yet freedom has been an important topic for reflection by both Christians and Muslims especially in the modern period The book considers how historically Christian and Muslim faith communities have addressed such matters as God's freedom human freedom to obey God autonomy versus heteronomy autonomy versus self governance freedom from incapacitating addiction and desire hermeneutic or discursive freedom vis a vis scripture and tradition religious and political freedom and the relationship between personal conviction and public order

The Right Road to Radical Freedom Tibor R. Machan, 2017-03-27 This work focuses on the topic of freedom The author starts with the old issue of free will do we as individual human beings choose our conduct at least partly independently freely He comes down on the side of libertarians who answer Yes and scorns the compatibilism of philosophers like Daniel Dennett who try to rescue some kind of freedom from a physically determined universe From here he moves on to apply his belief in radical freedom to areas of life such as religion politics and morality tackling subjects as diverse as taxation private property justice and the welfare state
