Making Peace in Northern Ireland Charles Stozier, 2025-02-24 This book examines the remarkable process that led to peace in Northern Ireland after decades of violence That story lies in its granular history but equally in an appreciation of its psychological dynamics especially the emergence in the social and political realm of what the author calls radical empathy The leaders who made peace happen were all larger than life figures out of some 19th Century opera strutting across the stage of history But there was another hero in the mix one often noted for his presence but not fully appreciated by scholarly observers for his contributions to the peace process John Alderdice The son of a moderate Presbyterian minister a medical doctor and a psychiatrist and psychoanalyst Alderdice brought to the peace process his grasp of others his generosity and clarity of vision The Northern Irish story is immensely complicated but in the end uplifting They deserve the peace they have made for themselves The story of the Troubles is horrifying but the story of peacemaking is not just dramatic it inspires hope If the Irish can make peace anyone can That may be the most important lesson of this book And that lesson is transferable Thinking About Everything Dennis Ford,2008-11-04 Humorist Dennis Ford has seen it all After all he lives in New Jersey As a teacher and bookseller Ford contemplates some of life s great questions all without leaving his car These include What s the funniest word in the English language How plastic surgery can turn devils into hotties The case of the perfectly fitting police uniform But Ford doesn t stop there He also devises a master plan to win the war in Iraq and ease the burden on the military explains how to apply for membership in the Society of Goths and backs up his belief that while Jesus may have been resurrected he most certainly wasn t crucified Politics religion psychology and popular culture it s all fair game Ford takes on everything shooting from the lip and saying out loud what everyone else keeps to themselves Stop taking life so seriously and consider the lighter side of things in Thinking About Everything Ireland and the Americas James Patrick Byrne,Philip Coleman,Jason Francis King,2008 Fifth Avenue Famous Salvatore Basile,2010-05-13 Fascinating not only a history of arguably the most visible Catholic church in the world but indeed all New York s colorful church music landscape Scott Turkington director Church Music Association of America Victorian era divas who were better paid than some corporate chairmen the boy soprano who grew up to give Bing Crosby a run for his money music directors who were literally killed by the job the plot of a Broadway show or a dime store novel No the unique and colorful history of St Patrick s Cathedral Since its inception more than 125 years ago the Cathedral Choir has been considered the gold standard of liturgical music an example of artistic excellence that has garnered worldwide renown Yet behind this stately facade lies an intriguing mix of New York history star secrets and high level office politics that has made the choir not only a source of prime musical entertainment but also fodder for tabloids and periodicals across the nation In this unique and engaging book readers are treated to a treasure trove of vibrant characters from opera stars from around the world to the thousands of volunteer singers who brought their own hopes and dreams and widely varying musical abilities to the fabled choir The Cathedral Choir provides an extraordinary and largely overlooked insight into the history of St Patrick s and in Salvatore Basile s pitch perfect exploration it becomes a microcosm for the larger trends upheavals and events that have made up the history of the city the nation and even the world Bulges with facts anecdotes and legend beautifully woven into a fine narrative covering the period from 1879 to 2010 McNeil Robinson former chair of the organ department Manhattan School of Music Patterns ,1999 WTIU ,2006 The New York Times Biographical Service ,2000-05 A compilation of current biographical information of general interest      TV Guide ,1999      The Columbian ,1925      Not For All The Gold In Ireland John James,2014-06-12 The hard years on the Amber Road had changed Photinus the Greek He had won a fortune and lost an eye and married various wives and become a God His cousin Philebus had played the game of the pea and the three cups now reluctantly Photinus Votan set off to retrieve the Deed of Monopoly to all the Gold of Ireland Sequel to the remarkable VOTAN NOT FOR ALL THE GOLD IN IRELAND continues the adventures of John James reluctant hero Photinus One of the forgotten classics of fantasy the duology is ripe for rediscovery Fans include Neil Gaiman who has provided a new introduction to the Fantasy Masterwork collection      The Americana Annual Alexander Hopkins McDannald,2001

Resting Places Scott Wilson,2016-08-19 In its third edition this massive reference work lists the final resting places of more than 14 000 people from a wide range of fields including politics the military the arts crime sports and popular culture Many entries are new to this edition Each listing provides birth and death dates a brief summary of the subject s claim to fame and their burial site location or as much as is known Grave location within a cemetery is provided in many cases as well as places of cremation and sites where ashes were scattered Source information is provided      The works of the poets of Great Britain and Ireland. With prefaces, biographical and critical, by S. Johnson Great Britain,1804      The Works of the Poets of Great Britain and Ireland Samuel Johnson,1797      Irish Pittsburgh Patricia McElligott,2013 Many modern Irish Pittsburghers can trace their roots to immigrants fleeing an Ireland devastated by the Great Potato Famine of the mid 1800s They migrated to Pittsburgh a booming industrial town and worked in the iron and steel mills the mines and the railroads Irish women became domestic servants in such large numbers that Bridget the Maid was a stock character on stage and later in films The immigrants settled in neighborhoods such as the Point the Hill District Homewood and the North Side Fighting anti Irish and anti Catholic sentiments they paved the way for their children who would dominate municipal politics and the Catholic Church and rise to surprising heights in sports entertainment and business Gov David L Lawrence dancer Gene Kelly and boxing champion Billy Conn were three of these Irish Pittsburgh groundbreakers Their success echoed the smaller but equally significant success of ordinary Pittsburghers who rose from poverty to middle class from shantytown to lace curtain respectability in the neighborhoods and later in the suburbs of the city      The Beat ,1999
