Being in Shadow and Light Dina Zoe Belluigi,2025-01-06 Academia and its citizens during periods of political violence and social conflict are often overlooked When attention is given the focus tends to be on student activism access to higher education or curriculum development The experiences of academics affected by conflict remain under researched despite the crucial role they play as educators and in generating documenting preserving and challenging knowledges This is particularly concerning given that academics have and continue to be at risk as targets of sanction persecution and oppression This edited volume seeks to address this gap by exploring and evoking the complexities of academic subjectivity place and practice in contexts where intellectual and state authority are contested or in transition It features contributions by academics artists and memory activists who have stepped bravely outside of the parameters of their disciplines with modes of enquiry and representation that include conversations vignettes and case studies critical ethnographies oral life histories interviews poetry and collage Within the ten chapters are consideration of conflicts within Argentina Brazil Colombia England Mexico Nigeria Northern Ireland Palestine South Africa Sri Lanka Syria and Venezuela Being in Shadow and Light encourages a deeper understanding of academics navigation of these difficult conditions The authors insider outsider positioning brings forth the richness of ways through dilemmas of omission trauma displacement inheritance injustice distortion desire Grounding the many social cultural economic and epistemic politics within academia troubles the enclosure of conflict in politics at the grand level as if only within the realm of interest for state and international actors Against sanitising the uncertainties and particularities of being an academic figure the authors reflect on the states and sites of conflict as spaces which shape living This work is a call to recognize document and study the often overlooked subjectivities and contributions of academics thinking and practicing within societies undergoing conflict s and in their aftermath As such it will be of interest to academics students and staff working within universities as well audiences interested in intellectuals and institutions in contexts undergoing change

Organizing Workers in the Shadow of Slavery Rudi Batzell, 2025-04-23 An original analysis of the relationship between slavery and the labor movement in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries During the rise of the labor movement in the late nineteenth century why were American workers unable to organize inclusive trade unions like those formed by their counterparts in the United Kingdom Comparing American and British capitalism in the port cities of Baltimore and Liverpool and the steel cities of Pittsburgh and Sheffield Rudi Batzell reveals that the answer lies in the legacies of slavery and entrenched structures of racial inequality Strikebreaking succeeded more often in the United States because landless Black Americans were out of economic desperation more likely to become scabs and fracture the class solidarity of any union movement Batzell shows in short how racism was and is deeply connected to class migration and capitalism in a global economy marked by slavery and empire In emphasizing the geography of economic inequality this book offers new clarity on the late nineteenth century successes and failures of working class formation More broadly Organizing Workers in the Shadow of Slavery makes it clear that the pursuit of justice today will require sustained economic reparations for slavery and colonialism *The Life of the Very Rev. Harris, 2024-05-31 A new edition of a classic work revealing the little known history of African Americans in New York City before Emancipation The popular understanding of the history of slavery in America almost entirely ignores the institution s extensive reach in the North But the cities of the North were built by and became the home of tens of
