Irish Times Wine:

The Routledge Handbook of Wine and Culture Steve Charters, Marion Demossier, Jacqueline Dutton, Graham Harding, Jennifer Smith Maguire, Denton Marks, Tim Unwin, 2022-04-26 This title was a prize winner at the OIV International Organisation of Vine and Wine Awards 2023 The link between culture and wine reaches back into the earliest history of humanity The Routledge Handbook of Wine and Culture brings together a newly comprehensive interdisciplinary overview of contemporary research and thinking on how wine fits into the cultural frameworks of production intermediation and consumption Bringing together many leading researchers engaged in studying these phenomena it explores the different ways in which wine is constructed as a social artefact and how its representation and use acquire symbolic meaning Wine can be analysed in different ways by varying disciplines involved in exploring wine and culture anthropology economics and business geography history and sociology and as text The Handbook uses these as lenses to consider how producers intermediaries and consumers use and create cultural significance Specifically the work addresses the following how wine relates to place belief systems and accompanying rituals how it may be used as a marker of the identity and mechanisms of civilising processes often in conjunction with food and the arts how its framing intersects with science and nature the ideologies and power relations which arise around all these activities and the relation of this to wine markets and public institutions This is essential reading for researchers and students in education for the wine industry and in the humanities and social sciences engaged in understanding patterns of human ingenuity and interaction such as sociology anthropology economics health geography business tourism cultural studies food studies and history Foreign Agriculture ,1981

Imperial Wine Jennifer Regan-Lefebvre, 2024-04-23 A fascinating and approachable deep dive into the colonial roots of the global wine industry Imperial Wine is a bold rigorous history of Britain's surprising role in creating the wine industries of Australia South Africa and New Zealand Here historian Jennifer Regan Lefebvre bridges the genres of global commodity history and imperial history presenting provocative new research in an accessible narrative This is the first book to argue that today's global wine industry exists as a result of settler colonialism and that imperialism was central not incidental to viticulture in the British colonies Wineries were established almost immediately after the colonization of South Africa Australia and New Zealand as part of a civilizing mission tidy vines heavy with fruit were symbolic of Britain's subordination of foreign lands Economically and culturally nineteenth century settler winemakers saw the British market as paramount However British drinkers were apathetic towards what they pejoratively called colonial wine The tables only began to turn after the First World War when colonial wines were marketed as cheap and patriotic and started to find their niche among middle and working class British drinkers This trend combined with social and cultural shifts after the Second World War laid the foundation for the New World revolution in the 1980s making Britain into a confirmed country of wine drinkers and a massive market for New World wines These New World producers may have only received critical acclaim in the late twentieth century but Imperial Wine shows that they had spent centuries wooing and indeed manufacturing a British market for inexpensive colonial wines This book is sure to satisfy any curious reader who savors the complex stories behind this commodity chain Willing's Press Guide and Advertisers' Directory and Handbook ,1891 North American

Pinot Noir John Winthrop Haeger,2004-09-14 A comprehensive reference guide to Pinot Noir wine in North America including historical and viticultural background and profiles of six dozen prominent pinot producers in California Oregon British Columbia New York and elsewhere Willing's Press Guide and Advertisers' Directory and Handbook ,1913

Opus Vino DK,2010-10-18 The techniques and research that have led the world s winemaking revolution have been transported around the globe pushing boundaries in every region An expansive new reference is needed to embrace these changes Opus Vino provides greater coverage and a more up to date approach to the wine world than any other illustrated wine book Use it as an encyclopedia to look up wine producing regions appellations wineries and producers as an atlas to find places of interest and as a travel guide to plan winery tours Opus Vino takes a new look at the new world of wine from a new generation of wine writers It takes wine publishing to new heights and gives both professionals and amateur enthusiasts a wine reference fit for the 21st century Pandemic Perspectives on the Irish Diaspora in Germany Margaret

Haverty,2024-09-10 This book reflects on how the pandemic impacted upon qualitative social research but also how it affected the lives of the members of the Irish diaspora on the European continent The crisis acted as a pressure cooker for those living abroad transforming distance and migration situations to resemble times gone by when travel was far more prohibitive and emigration felt more permanent At the same time expat lives were being thrown headlong into a new future shaped more profoundly than ever by digital means This work is a close examination of how Irish migrants in Germany construct their Irishness and in doing so maintain their belonging to Ireland across a geographic distance transformed by the pandemic This work seeks to draw out the underlying patterns and meanings in the day to day practices of Irishness by members of Ireland s putative diaspora in Germany by interweaving a multitude of ethnographic vignettes and rich interview material with relevant and interestingtheoretical concepts Interlocutors see Ireland as a site of personal memory good bad and in between and of meaning making practices Ireland is deeply personal to them that understood their practices of belonging to Ireland are nonetheless embroiled in the political goal of making Ireland visible abroad Race in Irish

Literature and Culture Malcolm Sen,Julie McCormick Weng,2024-01-18 Race in Irish Literature and Culture provides an in depth understanding of intersections between Irish literature culture and questions of race racialization and racism Covering a vast historical terrain from the sixteenth century to the present it spotlights the work of canonical understudied and contemporary authors in Ireland Northern Ireland and among diasporic Irish communities By focusing on questions related to Black Irish identities Irish whiteness Irish racial sciences postcolonial solidarities and decolonial strategies to address racialization the volume moves beyond the familiar frameworks of British Irish and Catholic Protestant binarisms and demonstrates methods for Irish Studies scholars to engage with the question of race from a contemporary perspective

Just Garret Garret FitzGerald, 2014-06-27 In Just Garret Dr FitzGerald writes frankly about his upbringing his parents his involvement in the Independence movement their disagreements about the Treaty his early years in school and college and his gradual entry into politics He reflects honestly on his time as minister for Foreign Affairs and later on his tenure as Taoiseach The book includes new material and opinion on key figures such as Charles Haughey Margaret Thatcher and John Major as well as his role in the emerging peace in Northern Ireland Ireland's role in the EU and Garret's advocacy in the referendas on the European Union also feature His memoir gently lifts the layers of his public life back to reveal a much cherished family life and the huge influence his wife Joan had on his career rendering a portrait of an informal humane and witty person who was an ever compelling voice in Irish public affairs right up until his passing in May 2011 Newspaper

Reporting in Olden Time and To-day John Pendleton, 1890 Saving Our Skins Caro Feely, 2015-07-13 The touching story of one couple's decision to start a vineyard in France where they fear nothing more than the destruction of a sudden cold snap Frost can be fatal to a fledgling wine business it's a gorgeous glitter with a high price tag On a winter's day it is beautiful but on a spring day after bud burst it spells devastation For Sean and Caro Feely a couple whose love affair with wine and France has taken them through financial and physical struggle to create their organic vineyard it could spell the end Until they receive an unexpected call that could save their skins This book is about life love and taking risks while transforming a piece of land into a flourishing vineyard and making a new life in France Food and Crime Chris

Garcia, 2023-09-30 Anyone alive and wanting to stay that way must deal with food Crime is and always has been present Food and Crime examines the crossroads of these two universal forces how hunger can lead to theft fraud and murder and how the well fed will sometimes do anything to keep their bellies full From the one timers to the career caper planners food criminals are a wide ranging often audacious bunch and this is the record of their impact great and small From a war fought by the Mayor of New York over tasty thistles to the role McDonald's plays in the American culinary conscious to how foreign food aid abuse led to a mighty fall in the financial sector these sixteen stories of criminals who engage with the world of cuisine cookery or agriculture cover food and crime from the piddliest pilfering to the most diabolical murders Covering the period from the Ancient Greeks who invented insurance fraud to the effects of COVID 19 on seafood crime in the true crime capital of America Florida here's clear evidence that there's never been a time when food and crime were not intimately entangled Food and Crime sheds light on the unexpected and sometimes unbelievable connections between two things that we can never seem to get enough of The Routledge Handbook of Irish Criminology Deirdre Healy, Claire Hamilton, Yvonne

Daly, Michelle Butler, 2015-12-14 This book charts the contours of the criminological enterprise in Ireland and brings together internationally recognized experts to discuss theory research policy and practice on a range of topics and in an international context Books Ireland, 2006 Pilsner Tom Acitelli, 2020-08-04 Best Book at the North American Guild Beers Writers

Effervescent and informative This chronicle will intoxicate both beer nerds and history buffs Publishers Weekly A book for both the beer geek and the foodie seeking a better understanding of modern food and drink On the night of April 17 1945 Allied planes dropped more than a hundred bombs on the Burghers Brewery in Pilsen Czechoslovakia destroying much of the birthplace of pilsner the world's most popular beer style and the bestselling alcoholic beverage of all time Still workers at the brewery would rally so they could have beer to toast their American Canadian and British liberators the following month It was another twist in pilsner's remarkable story one that started in a supernova of technological political and demographic shifts in the mid 1800s and that continues to unfold today anywhere alcohol is sold Tom Acitelli's Pilsner How the Beer of Kings Changed the World tells that story shattering myths about pilsner's very birth and about its immediate parentage A character driven narrative that shows how pilsner influenced everything from modern day advertising and marketing to immigration to today's craft beer movement

The Modern Irish Sonnet Tara Guissin-Stubbs, 2020-10-10 The Modern Irish Sonnet Revision and Rebellion discusses how and why the sonnet appeals to Irish poets and has grown in popularity over the last century Using a thematic approach Tara Guissin Stubbs argues for the significance of the Irish sonnet as a discrete entity within modern and contemporary poetry and shows how the Irish sonnet has become a debating chamber for discussions concerning the relationship between Irish and British culture poetry and gender and revision and rebellion The text reshapes the poetic and critical field exploring canonical and non canonical poems by male and female poets so as to challenge outmoded views of the thematic and formal limitations of the sonnet

Transport Geopolitics Luc Ampleman, 2021-09-27 This book provides readers with fresh new theoretical tools to better understand how sociopolitical actors from governmental institutions to ecological NGOs from local residents to multinational companies clash about transport initiatives It questions both the dominant understanding of what is geopolitics and conventional conceptions in transport geography used by transport planners Drawing on a structuralist approach and addressing the capital notion of political control of mobility it demonstrates how transport geopolitics by being more inclusive of all modes of transport and all scales of analysis may help prepare transport diplomacy in a time of critical global and local turbulences It offers a valuable resource for research and teaching in the fields of transport studies land use planning conflict studies human geography and politics presenting insightful theoretical material and concrete transport conflict examples to support teaching about territorial conflicts political governance and transport political geography

Connoisseurship Christina M. Anderson, Peter Stewart, 2023 This collection of essays considers the concept of connoisseurship afresh by investigating its practice in familiar places such as Western art history while also incorporating a global perspective with Chinese numismatics and walnut collecting wine and coffee expertise the market for geological specimens and the resonances between Morellian connoisseurship and modern forensics These essays resonate with one another in surprising ways and create new dialogues about connoisseurship's meaning and application demonstrating that its practice can be both intuitive and scientific
