Line Doggie:

Line Doggie Charles Gadd,1989-02 This dramatic autobiography should appeal to all Vietnam and military history buffs Here is an incredible story of guts and courage of those who died in the Vietnam War and those who made it out alive as only someone who lived it can tell it

Line Doggie: Foot Soldier in Vietnam Charles Gadd,2013-04-24 Charles Gadd served in Vietnam in late 1967 and 1968 and had experiences very similar to what most enlisted men endured He describes the mud blood leeches loss of friends and low morale due to constant harassment by guerrillas The author a squad leader with the 101st Airborne was wounded twice and saw nearly constant action in the Central Highlands This memoir is a vivid and accurate description of the Vietnam War I must explain that this story is written in the first person in order to depict more clearly the horror fear joy and sorrow that practically every line doggie experienced during his tour in one of history s most unpopular wars Millions of other stories are even more dramatic than those in this book and every trooper who carried a rifle and rucksack in Vietnam now carries around in his own mind a book full of stories similar to these Written some sixteen years after it took place this story tells how I envisioned the Vietnam War during the late 1960s I was young and inexperienced and had no doubts that my country was doing the right thing by its involvement in this faraway land I knew practically nothing about the political relationship between this small country and mine and merely accepted the fact that we were right and they were wrong and that was that Being a product of the post World War II baby boom I was brought up hating communism even though I knew very little about it Serving a year in Vietnam instilled in me the knowledge that communism was truly a reign of horror and though I still feel our cause was just I now have doubts and questions that I fear may forever go unanswered Charles Gadd from the Author s Note
