Fatal Harvest:

The Fatal Harvest Reader Andrew Kimbrell, 2002-05 Fatal Harvest takes an unprecedented look at our current ecologically destructive agricultural system and offers a compelling vision for an organic and environmentally safer way of producing the food we eat. It gathers together more than forty essays by leading ecological thinkers including Wendell Berry, Wes Jackson, David Ehrenfeld, Helena Norberg Hodge, Vandana Shiva, and Gary Nabhan. Providing a unique and invaluable antidote to the efforts by agribusiness to obscure and disconnect us from the truth about industrialized foods, it demonstrates that industrial food production is indeed a fatal harvest: fatal to consumers, fatal to our landscapes, fatal to genetic diversity, and fatal to our farm communities. As it exposes the ecological and social impacts of industrial agriculture's fatal harvest, Fatal Harvest details a new ecological and humane vision for agriculture. It shows how millions of people are engaged in the new politics of food as they work to develop a better alternative to the current chemically fed and biotechnology-driven system. Designed to aid the movement to reform industrial agriculture, Fatal Harvest informs and influences the activists, farmers, policymakers, and consumers who are seeking a safer and more sustainable food future. Fatal Harvest Andrew Kimbrell, 2002. Designed to be an invaluable aid to the activists, farmers, policy makers, and consumers fighting for a more sustainable food system. Cover Fatal Harvest Catherine Palmer, 2003. A CBA Bestselling Author. When Cole Strong's son Matt disappears and is implicated in a violent murder, Cole seeks help from Jill Pruitt, the woman who may hold the key to Matt's intentions. Matt's secrets could destroy one of the world's largest food suppliers and expose the corruption that allows thousands to starve painfully every day. Now he is on the run, trying to deliver his secrets to the authorities before it's too late.

Fatal Harvest Catherine Palmer, 2009 Fatal Harvest Kathleen Moore Knight, 1957 Food, Inc Karl Weber, 2010-05-21 Food Inc is guaranteed to shake up our perceptions of what we eat. This powerful documentary deconstructing the corporate food industry in America was hailed by Entertainment Weekly as more than a terrific movie; it's an important movie. Aided by expert commentators such as Michael Pollan and Eric Schlosser, the film poses questions such as: Where has my food come from and who has processed it? What are the giant agribusinesses and what stake do they have in maintaining the status quo of food production and consumption? How can I feed my family healthy foods affordably? Expanding on the film's themes, the book Food Inc will answer those questions through a series of challenging essays by leading experts and thinkers. This book will encourage those inspired by the film to learn more about the issues and act to change the world.

Justice in a Global Economy Pamela Brubaker, Rebecca Todd Peters, Laura A. Stivers, 2006-01-01 Today's complex social and economic problems leave many people in the affluent world feeling either overwhelmed or ambivalent. Even the small percentage of us who have examined the ethics behind our financial decisions and overcome the often deterring factors of self-interest rarely know what to do to make any difference. By providing tools for examination and concrete actions for individuals, communities, and society at large, Justice in a Global Economy guides its readers through many of today's complex societal issues including land use immigration corporate accountability and environmental and economic justice Beginning with a basic introduction to the impact of economic globalization the book provides both critical assessments of the current political economic structures and examples of people and communities who are actively working to transform society Each chapter concludes with questions for discussion and reflection
