Fatal Attractions:

Fatal Attractions Lynn Pearce, Gina Wisker, 1998-05-20 Romance is one of the most enduring of the grand narratives this collection examines the ways in which it is being renegotiated in popular culture in our postmodern post colonial times

Perspectives On Loss John H. Harvey, 2014-01-14 Losses are integral to the human experience but they sometimes unfold in subtle ways Loss is not just about death but can encompass a number of situations such as those gradual losses experienced by the elderly loss of vision mental capacity or hope Intended to stimulate ideas and research in the new area of psychological aspects of loss this sourcebook collects the writing of a set of distinguished scholars representing psychology and related fields The author presents a case for a broadly construed field of loss both personal and interpersonal that would complement other fields such as death and dying traumatology and stress and coping No other volume is as comprehensive in its treatment of this intriguing subject The book begins with an introduction to the concept of loss and discusses the definition of the term and the salience of the topic in the general public in the 1990s Contributors were chosen to represent some of the most interesting current work on different types of loss and adaptation in the whole of the social and behavioral sciences Contents cover such diverse subjects as loss in intimate relationships disability chronic illness genocide sports unemployment and homelessness The book concludes with a commentary section on loss theory and research Fatal Attractions Henry H. Bauer, 2001

The Dark Side of Close Relationships Brian H. Spitzberg, William R. Cupach, 2013-06-17 This collection of essays represents a follow up to the editors 1994 publication The Dark Side of Interpersonal Communication In the preface to that collection of essays they argued that To fully understand how people function effectively requires us to consider how individuals cope with social interaction that is difficult problematic challenging distressing and disruptive In this companion volume the focus expands from social interaction to close relationships Aside from the inherent need to investigate the bad as well as the good of interpersonal relationships the editors and their colleagues simply find the dark side metaphor to be intellectually arousing It stimulates investigation of important yet often neglected phenomena and it especially encourages consideration of the hidden and forbidden and the paradoxical and ironic elements of human relating This volume assembles the cutting edge work of first rate scholars from the ranks of communication psychology sociology and cognate disciplines As in the previous text the subject matter and stylistic approaches are diverse reflecting the broad and interdisciplinary domain that is the dark side of human affairs The selection of topics is somewhat selective reflecting only a sample of emerging scholarship in the interdisciplinary study of relationships These internationally recognized scholars examine various topics related to the dark side including fatal attractions jealousy and envy misunderstanding gossip conflict codependence sexual coercion stalking relationship termination unrequited love and mental health problems in relationships Some chapters present original data and models whereas others reconfigure the way in which the understandings of relationships can be better understood In addition the bookend chapters examine the ideology nature and problems of dark side scholarship Collectively the scholarly journeys made in this volume are intended to illustrate the complexities both moral and functional involved in close relationship processes The intent is neither to valorize nor demonize the darker aspects of close relationships but rather to emphasize their importance to the day to day doing of relationships Only by accepting such processes as integral to relationships can their role be fully understood Fatal Attractions Jeff Gelb, Michael Garrett, 2011-11-09 Fatal Attractions edited by Jeff Gelb and Michael Garrett is the eleventh Hot Blood erotic horror collection and according to Cemetery Dance one of the best volumes in this long running series a top rating Like a moth to a flame Fatal Attraction draws a diverse array of award winning authors from the horror mystery and thriller genres and Hollywood into its orbit including Max Alan Collins P D Cacek Graham Masterton Edo van Belkom Nancy Holder Brian Hodge David Schow Mick Garris and Yvonne Navarro In fact Fatal Attractions is the most lauded roster of contributors in the rich three decade history of the Hot Blood series Be Manhandled Have an Epiphany Work the Graveyard Shift Go on Separate Vacations Awaken to Moist Dreams Fatal Attractions is One to Die For the pinnacle of erotic horror and a must read for fans The Detox Series Larry A. Competence in Interpersonal Conflict William R. Cupach, Daniel J. Canary, Brian H. Spitzberg, 2009-11-06 Extensively updated with expanded and newly added chapters the second edition of Competence in Interpersonal Conflict continues to present a conceptual framework for why communication competence is central to conflict management Although no checklist of communication behaviors can guarantee success the authors offer constructive guidelines that provide a basis for grappling with future conflicts in five unique settings intercultural organizational familial mediation and violence in intimate relationships Within any conflict interaction adept communicators embrace the notion that adopting an ethical stance is both desirable and practical Conflict between people is a natural feature of the human condition when people interact and form relationships conflicts inevitably emerge How individuals manage conflict and how they perceive both the opportunities and challenges it provides will define their interpersonal relationships in more ways than any other kind of interaction behavior Collaboration and adaptation are the hallmarks of a competent communicator therefore how partners communicate during conflict can be more important than the frequency of their disagreements

The Debate on the English Reformation Rosemary O'Day, 2015-11-01 Extensively revised and updated this new edition of The debate on the English Reformation combines a discussion of successive historical approaches to the English Reformation with a critical review of recent debates in the area offering a major contribution to modern historiography as well as to Reformation studies It explores the way in which successive generations have found the Reformation relevant to their own times and have in the process rediscovered redefined and rewritten its story It shows that not only people who called themselves historians but also politicians ecclesiastics journalists and campaigners argued about interpretations of the Reformation and the motivations of its principal agents The author also shows how in the twentieth century the debate was influenced by the development of history as a subject and in the twenty first century by state control of the academy Undergraduates researchers and lecturers alike will find this an invaluable and essential companion to their studies
