

The background of the cover is a sepia-toned historical photograph. It depicts a wide river, likely the Mississippi, with several large steamships. In the foreground, a large steamship with multiple decks and a prominent smokestack is moving towards the right, leaving a wake. To its left, another steamship is partially visible. In the background, a suspension bridge, resembling the Golden Gate Bridge, spans the river. The sky is filled with dark, dramatic clouds. The title text is overlaid on the upper portion of the image.

Father of Waters I know thee well In the land of a thousand lakes on the summit of the Hauteur de terre I have leaped thy tiny stream Upon the bosom of the blue lakelet the fountain of thy life I have launched my birchen boat and yielding to thy current have floated softly southward I have passed the meadows where the wild rice ripens on thy banks where the white birch mirrors its silvery stem and tall coniferae fling their pyramid shapes on thy surface I have seen the red Chippewa cleave thy crystal waters in his bark canoe the giant moose lave his flanks in thy cooling flood and the stately wapiti bound gracefully along thy banks I have listened to the music of thy shores the call of the cacawee the laugh of the wa wa goose and the trumpet note of the great northern swan Yes mighty river Even in that far northern land thy wilderness home have I worshipped thee FROM THE BOOKS      Indexes.
