Fear And Hope Three Generations Of The Holocaust:

Fear and Hope Dan Bar-On, 1995 Genia spent two years in Auschwitz Ze'ev fought with the Partisans Olga hid in the Aryan section of Warsaw Anya fled to Russia Laura lived in Libya under the Italian fascist regime All five survived the Holocaust emigrated to Israel and started families there How the traumatic experience of these survivors has been transmitted even transformed from one generation to the next is the focus of Fear and Hope From survivors to grandchildren members of these families narrate their own stories across three generations revealing their different ways of confronting the original trauma of the Holocaust Dan Bar-On's biographical analyses of these life stories identify several main themes that run throughout how family members reconstruct major life events in their narratives what stories remain untold and what is remembered and what forgotten Together these life stories and analyses eloquently explore the intergenerational reverberations of the Holocaust particularly the ongoing tension between achieving renewal in the present and preserving the past We learn firsthand that the third generation often exerts a healing influence in these families their spontaneous questions open blocked communications between their parents and their grandparents And we see that those in the second generation often viewed as passive recipients of familial fallout from the Holocaust actually play a complex and active role in navigating between their parents and their children This book has implications far beyond the horrific reality at its heart A unique account of the interplay between individual biography and wider social and cultural processes Fear and Hope offers a fresh perspective on the transgenerational effects of trauma and new hope for families facing the formidable task of working through Between Hope and Despair Roger I. Simon, Sharon Rosenberg, Claudia Eppert, 2000 At the end of a century of unfathomable suffering societies are facing anew the question of how events that shock resist assimilation and evoke contradictory and complex responses should be remembered Between Hope and Despair specifically examines the pedagogical problem of how remembrance is to proceed when what is to be remembered is underscored by a logic difficult to comprehend and subversive of the humane character of existence This pedagogical attention to practices of remembrance reflects the growing cognizance that hope for a just and compassionate future lies in the sustained if troubled working through of these issues Jewish Families in Europe, 1939-Present Joanna Beata Michlic, 2017-01-03 This book offers an extensive introduction and 13 diverse essays on how World War II the Holocaust and their aftermath affected Jewish families and Jewish communities with an especially close look at the roles played by women youth and children Focusing on Eastern and Central Europe themes explored include how Jewish parents handled the Nazi threat rescue and resistance within the Jewish family unit the transformation of gender roles under duress youth's wartime and early postwar experiences postwar reconstruction of the Jewish family rehabilitation of Jewish children and youth and the role of Zionism in shaping the present and future of young survivors Relying on newly available archival material and novel research in the areas of families youth rescue resistance gender and memory this volume will be an indispensable guide to current work on the familial and social history of the Holocaust      Breaking Crystal Efraim Sicher, 1998 The first multidisciplinary study of its kind Breaking Crystal examines how members of the generation after the Holocaust in Israel and the United States confront through their own imaginations a traumatic event they have not directly experienced Among the questions this groundbreaking work raises are Whose memory is it What will the collective memory of the Holocaust be in the twenty first century after the last survivors have given testimony How in the aftermath of the Holocaust do we read and write literature and history How is the memory inscribed in film and art Is the appropriation of the Holocaust to political agendas a desecration of the six million Jews What will the children of survivors pass on to the next generation      Family Memory Radmila Švaříčková Slabáková, 2021-12-30 In Family Memory Practices Transmissions and Uses in a Global Perspective researchers from five different continents explore the significance of family memory as an analytical tool and a research concept Family memory is the most important memory community This volume illustrates the range and power of family memories often neglected by memory studies dealing with larger mnemonic entities This book highlights the potential of family memory research for understanding societies past and present and the need for a more comprehensive and systematic use of family memories The contributors explain how family memories can be a valuable resource across a range of settings pertaining to individual and collective identities national memories intergenerational transmission processes and migration transnational and diasporic studies This volume presents the past present and future of family memory as a prospective field of memory studies and the role of family memory in intergenerational transmission of social and political values Family memory of violent events and genocide is also looked at with discussions of the Armenian Genocide Russian Revolution and Rwandan Genocide This book will be an important read for cultural and oral historians family historians public historians researchers in narrative studies psychology politics and international studies      The Palgrave Handbook of Psychosocial Studies Stephen Frosh, Marita Vyrigioti, Julie Walsh, 2024-05-02 Over the past decades psychosocial studies has demonstrated its strengths and influence across diverse sites of theory and practice it continues to grow as an area of transdisciplinary research that dialogues with psychoanalysis sociology critical psychology cultural studies gender and sexuality studies and postcolonial studies The Palgrave Handbook of Psychosocial Studies is the first Major Reference Work to explore the history and depth of the field and offer a critical evaluation of contemporary theories empirical methods and practices of psychosocial studies With 50 chapters this state of the art collection reflects back on texts that have influenced the development of psychosocial studies from a 2020s perspective explores current major topics with evaluative reviews identifies newly emerging areas of enquiry features a wide range of international psychosocial voices Published chapters can be read and downloaded individually online <https://link.springer.com/referencework/10.1007/978-3-030-61510-9> The Palgrave Handbook of Psychosocial Studies is unique in covering a wide range of psychosocial topics and in being written accessibly from many different perspectives It will appeal to students scholars and practitioner researchers alike      Cartographies of Violence Mona Oikawa, 2012-01-01 In 1942 the federal government expelled more than 22 000 Japanese Canadians from their homes in British Columbia From 1942 to 1949 they were dispossessed sent to incarceration sites and dispersed across Canada Over 4 000 were deported to Japan Cartographies of Violence analyses the effects of these processes for some Japanese Canadian women Using critical race feminist anti colonial and cultural geographic theory Mona Oikawa deconstructs prevalent images stereotypes and language used to describe the internment in ways that masks its inherent violence Through interviews with women survivors and their daughters Oikawa analyses recurring themes of racism and resistance as well as the struggle to communicate what happened Disturbing and provocative Cartographies of Violence explores women s memories in order to map the effects of forced displacements incarcerations and the separations of family friends and communities Publisher s website Wounds into Wisdom Tirzah Firestone,2022-11-29 Wounds into Wisdom is for anyone who has suffered trauma either directly or in a family whose generational trauma is buried It helps readers uncover suffering and use it to help others the final stage of healing We may not be able to control what happens to us but we can control what happens next Gloria Steinem 2020 Nautilus Book Award GOLD Psychology 2020 Book Award from the Jewish Women s Caucus of the Association for Women in Psychology 2019 Book of the Year Award Finalist in Religion and Self Help categories Our past does not simply disappear The painful history of our ancestors and their rich cultural wisdom intertwine within us to create the patterns of our future Even when past trauma remains unspoken or has long been forgotten it becomes part of us and our children a legacy of both strength and woundedness that shapes our lives In this book Tirzah Firestone brings to life the profound impact of protracted historical trauma through the compelling narratives of Israeli terror victims Holocaust survivors and those whose lives were marred by racial persecution and displacement The tragic story of Firestone s own family lays the groundwork for these revealing testimonies of recovery forgiveness and moral leadership Throughout Firestone interweaves their voices with neuroscientific and psychological findings as well as relevant and inspiring Jewish teachings Seven principles emerge from these wise narratives powerful prescriptive tools that speak to anyone dealing with the effects of past injury At the broadest level these principles are directives for staying morally awake in a world rife with terror Political Violence and Trauma in Argentina Antonius C. G. M. Robben,2010-11-24 For decades Argentina s population was subject to human rights violations ranging from the merely disruptive to the abominable Violence pervaded Argentine social and cultural life in the repression of protest crowds a ruthless counterinsurgency campaign massive numbers of abductions instances of torture and innumerable assassinations Despite continued repression thousands of parents searched for their disappeared children staging street protests that eventually marshaled international support Challenging the notion that violence simply breeds more violence Antonius C G M Robben s provocative study argues that in Argentina violence led to trauma and that trauma bred more violence In this work of superior scholarship Robben analyzes the historical dynamic through which Argentina became entangled in a web of violence spun out of repeated traumatization of political adversaries This violence trauma violence cycle culminated in a cultural war that disappeared more than ten thousand people and caused millions to live in fear Political Violence and Trauma in Argentina demonstrates through a groundbreaking multilevel analysis the process by which different historical strands of violence coalesced during the 1970s into an all out military assault on Argentine society and culture Combining history and anthropology this compelling book rests on thorough archival research participant observation of mass demonstrations exhumations and reburials gripping interviews with military officers guerrilla commanders human rights leaders and former disappeared captives Robben s penetrating analysis of the trauma of Argentine society is of great importance for our understanding of other societies undergoing similar crimes against humanity

Ethics and Process in the Narrative Study of Lives Ruthellen Josselson,1996-03-14 In taking up the topic of ethics and narrative inquiry The Narrative Study of Lives rightfully establishes itself as the site where the most critical theoretical methodological and interpretive work on narrative in the human disciplines is now occurring The editor and the contributors to this volume are to be thanked for their deeply probing forward looking analyses of the ethical problems that arise when researchers produce narratives about persons with whom close personal relationships have been formed Norman K Denzin University of Illinois Urbana Champaign All of us who work with life history narratives are grateful to Dr Josselson and her colleagues for moving us step by step toward a discipline with definable ethics and methodology and at the same time holding up for us the incredible diversity of the field and the range of insights it offers Mary Catherine Bateson author of Peripheral Visions The most significant truths about human beings are to be found in the stories of their lives But what happens to those stories and to the people whose lives are told when a researcher seeks to make those stories known Ruthellen Josselson has assembled an international cast of scholars to reflect on the process of life narrative study and the ethical dilemmas that face researchers whose very mode of narrative inquiry may inevitably involve a violation of another and unwittingly lead to a sense of betrayal shame or guilt In these disarmingly candid and engaging essays narrative researchers of many different stripes talk about the morally delicate and epistemologically precarious enterprise of telling another s story The authors raise fascinating questions about who ultimately controls the tellings what happens to stories once they are told and why stories influence not only the people whose lives are told but also the tellers themselves whose own professional and personal lives may even be captured by or appropriated into the stories they are aiming to tell This exceptional volume the latest in The Narrative Study of Lives series is essential for researchers professionals and students in research methods including qualitative methods developmental psychology education relationships and language and discourse analysis

Analysis of Social Interaction Systems A Paul Hare,A. Paul Hare,2005-02-24 Inspired by the research and theory of Robert Freed Bales Professor Emeritus of Sociology at Harvard University this collection of research and applications using SYMLOG a system for the multi level observation of groups provides the most recent examples of analyzing aspects of social interaction systems The collection shows the relationship of SYMLOG to other theoretical models gives examples of international research includes applications in health education religion and policy analysis and illustrates problems and solutions regarding the validity and reliability of the method The editors provide the widest selection of articles on SYMLOG covering theory research and applications in organizational development and other fields

The Long Defeat Akiko Hashimoto,2015 In The Long Defeat Akiko Hashimoto explores the stakes of war memory in Japan after its catastrophic defeat in World War II showing how and why defeat has become an indelible part of national collective life especially in recent decades Divisive war memories lie at the root of the contentious politics surrounding Japan's pacifist constitution and remilitarization and fuel the escalating frictions in East Asia known collectively as Japan's history problem Drawing on ethnography interviews and a wealth of popular memory data this book identifies three preoccupations national belonging healing and justice in Japan's discourses of defeat Hashimoto uncovers the key war memory narratives that are shaping Japan's choices nationalism pacifism or reconciliation for addressing the rising international tensions and finally overcoming its dark history

Beyond Doer and Done to Jessica Benjamin,2017-07-06 In Beyond Doer and Done To Jessica Benjamin author of the path breaking Bonds of Love expands her theory of mutual recognition and its breakdown into the complementarity of doer and done to Her innovative theory charts the growth of the Third in early development through the movement between recognition and breakdown and shows how it parallels the enactments in the psychoanalytic relationship Benjamin's recognition theory illuminates the radical potential of acknowledgment in healing both individual and social trauma in creating relational repair in the transformational space of thirdness Benjamin's unique formulations of intersubjectivity make essential reading for both psychoanalytic therapists and theorists in the humanities and social sciences

The Last Heroes of Leningrad Alexandra Wachter,2022-08-08 Alexandra Wachter investigates how survivors of the Siege of Leningrad 1941-44 were able to come to terms with their memories in Soviet and post Soviet society Subject to political fluctuations official remembrance ranged from enforced silence to extensive exploitation for propaganda purposes a framework which corresponded with psychological strategies to cope but not deal with trauma repression denial acting out and idealization Based on a combination of oral history interviews ethnographic and archival research this study examines narratives and activities of child and adolescent survivors Individual experiences are related to varying degrees of involvement in survivors organisations and thick description adds to the understanding of trauma in the context of a post totalitarian society

Peacebuilding, Memory and Reconciliation Bruno Charbonneau, Genevieve Parent,2013-06-17 This book aims to bridge the gap between what are generally referred to as top down and bottom up approaches to peacebuilding After the experience of a physical and psychological trauma the period of individual healing and recovery is intertwined with political and social reconciliation The prospects for social and political reconciliation are undermined when a top down approach is favoured over the bottom up strategy the prioritization of structural stability over societal well being Peacebuilding Memory and Reconciliation explores the inextricable link between psychological recovery and socio political reconciliation and the political issues that dominate this relationship Through an examination of the construction of social narratives about or for peace the text offers a new perspective on peacebuilding which challenges and questions the very nature of the dichotomy between top down and bottom up approaches This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding peace and conflict studies social psychology political science and IR in general

Nothing Good is Allowed to Stand Leon Wurmser, Léon Wurmser, Heidrun Jarass, 2012 First Published in 2013 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Captive Fathers, Captive Children Terry Smyth, 2022-10-06 Why are the daughters and sons of Far East prisoners of war still captivated by the stories of their fathers What is it that compels so many of the children after so many years to search for the details of their fathers captivity And how over the decades have they come to terms with their childhood memories In his book Terry Smyth treads new ground by examining the processes through which the children's memory practices came to be rooted in the POW experiences of their fathers By following a life course approach and a psychosocial methodology the book demonstrates how memory and trauma were worked into the social and cultural lives of individual children and explores how the relationship between their inner psychic worlds and subsequent memory practices unfolded against a challenging and morally ambivalent geopolitical background The book invites readers to engage with the author in a journey of exploration and self reflection with elements of auto ethnography adding richness to the text Enlivened by interview extracts case study material and ethnographic observations this work opens up fresh and ambitious perspectives on the personal legacies of war

Afterlives of war Michael Roper, 2023-07-05 Afterlives of war documents the lives and historical pursuits of the generations who grew up in Australia Britain and Germany after the First World War Although they were not direct witnesses to the conflict they experienced its effects from their earliest years Based on ninety oral history interviews and observation during the First World War Centenary this pioneering study reveals the contribution of descendants to the contemporary memory of the First World War and the intimate personal legacies of the conflict that animate their history making

Religion in Today's World Melissa M. Wilcox, 2013-12-19 Religion is a major force in contemporary society It is also one of the least understood social and political influences on individuals and communities In this innovative collection of original essays and classic readings experts explore the significance of contemporary religiosity as a source of meaning and motivation how it unites and divides us and how it is used politically and culturally Readers will be introduced to the broad debates in ways that will equip them to analyze discuss and make their own judgments about religion and society This book should be read by anyone interested in understanding religion as a central source of meaning and politics and is ideally suited for undergraduate teaching on religion and social issues and from a global perspective

Psychological Trauma and the Legacies of the First World War Jason Crouthamel, Peter Leese, 2016-11-17 This transnational interdisciplinary study of traumatic neurosis moves beyond the existing histories of medical theory welfare and symptomatology The essays explore the personal traumas of soldiers and civilians in the wake of the First World War they also discuss how memory and representations of trauma are transmitted between patients doctors and families across generations The book argues that so far the traumatic effects of the war have been substantially underestimated Trauma was shaped by gender politics and personality To uncover the varied forms of trauma ignored by medical and political authorities this volume draws on diverse sources such as family archives and narratives by children of traumatized men documents from film and photography memoirs by soldiers and civilians This innovative study challenges us to re examine our approach to the complex psychological effects of the First World War
