Feminism and the Abyss of Freedom Linda M. G. Zerilli, 2020-11-13 In contemporary feminist theory the problem of feminine subjectivity persistently appears and reappears as the site that grounds all discussion of feminism In Feminism and the Abyss of Freedom Linda M. G. Zerilli argues that the persistence of this subject centered frame severely limits feminists capacity to think imaginatively about the central problem of feminist theory and practice a politics concerned with freedom Offering both a discussion of feminism in its postmodern context and a critique of contemporary theory Zerilli here challenges feminists to move away from a theory based approach which focuses on securing or contesting women as an analytic category of feminism to one rooted in political action and judgment She revisits the democratic problem of exclusion from participation in common affairs and elaborates a freedom centered feminism as the political practice of beginning anew world building and judging In a series of case studies Zerilli draws on the political thought of Hannah Arendt to articulate a nonsovereign conception of political freedom and to explore a variety of feminist understandings of freedom in the twentieth century including ones proposed by Judith Butler Monique Wittig and the Milan Women's Bookstore Collective In so doing Zerilli hopes to retrieve what Arendt called feminism's lost treasure the original and radical claim to political freedom

Freedom and Existence Matthew Aaron Tennant, 2023-08-07 Is theology a dead corpse or living organism For Uruguayan Jesuit Juan Luis Segundo 1925-1996 theology is dynamic Freedom and existence for central themes Segundo believed that theology should be transformative in human lives For a theology to be transformative there must be a connection to existence That is it must be existential Yet most scholars have overlooked this assumption in critical analyses of liberation theology This prima facie connection to existence is distinguishable from existentialism as a school of philosophy By showing the significant existential dimension to Segundo's theology assessing his work and contribution to twentieth century theology relates to freedom ecumenism the role of faith in society and the relationship between faith and ideologies

Freedom and Responsibility Hilary Bok, 2022-03-08 Can we reconcile the idea that we are free and responsible agents with the idea that what we do is determined according to natural laws For centuries philosophers have tried in different ways to show that we can Hilary Bok takes a fresh approach here as she seeks to show that the two ideas are compatible by drawing on the distinction between practical and theoretical reasoning Bok argues that when we engage in practical reasoning the kind that involves asking what should I do and sifting through alternatives to find the most justifiable course of action we have reason to hold ourselves responsible for what we do But when we engage in theoretical reasoning searching for causal explanations of events we have no reason to apply concepts like freedom and responsibility Bok contends that libertarians arguments against compatibilist justifications of moral responsibility fail because they describe human actions only from the standpoint of theoretical reasoning To establish this claim she examines which conceptions of freedom of the will and moral responsibility are relevant to practical reasoning and shows that these conceptions are not vulnerable to many objections that libertarians have directed against compatibilists Bok concludes that the truth or falsity of the claim that we are free and responsible agents in the sense those conceptions spell out is ultimately independent of deterministic accounts of the causes of human actions Clearly written and powerfully argued Freedom and Responsibility is a major addition to current debate about some of philosophy s oldest and deepest questions

Self-Identity and Personal Autonomy Stefaan E. Cuypers, 2017-07-05 This title was first published in 2001 We are all persons or selves But what exactly does it mean that we possess an identity and autonomy as persons or selves This book explores the related problems of self identity and personal autonomy within the framework of contemporary analytical anthropology a blend of analytical philosophy of mind and action with moral psychology Cuypers critically examines the empiricist bundle theory and metaphysical ego theory of self identity as well as the hierarchical Frankfurt Dworkin model of personal autonomy Arguing that all these standard views are found wanting Cuypers then offers an alternative personalist theory of personal identity plus an innovative moderately heteronomous theory of autonomy without ever going beyond the analytical frame of reference In critical discussion with analytical philosophers such as Derek Parfit

John Perry and Harry Frankfurt this book develops an original perspective on the nature of persons or selves that is orthogonal to the received views in analytical anthropology Stefaan E Cuypers is Professor at the Institute of Philosophy Catholic University of Leuven Belgium The Critic ,1889 Central Works of Philosophy v5 John Shand,2014-12-18
