Freedom of Religion or Belief Paul T. Babie, Neville G. Rochow, Brett G. Scharffs, 2020-05-29 Using the metaphor of constitutional space this thought provoking book describes the confluence and convergence of powers in a constitutional system comprised of the principled exercise of the legislative executive and judicial powers of constitutional government Addressing the issues surrounding the freedom of religion or belief the book explores the dimensions of constitutional space and the content of this freedom as well as comparative approaches to defining and protecting this freedom The Olympic Games, Sports Law and Human Rights Alexandre Miguel Mestre, 2024-12-19 This book explores the relationship between sports law the Olympic Movement and human rights Examining the historical legal roots of contemporary Olympic law including the ancient history of the Olympic Games and the legacy of Pierre de Coubertin this book shines new light on one of the most important issues in world sport today Written by a practising lawyer with expertise in sports law this book explains the core concepts underpinning Olympic law and offers in depth analysis of the Olympic Charter arguing that the Charter is a key legal instrument in the context of which the interplay between ethics rights and the Olympics must be understood The book also examines key contemporary issues at the nexus of sports law and human rights including religious freedom and protests by athletes Offering a new interdisciplinary perspective on Olympic law drawing on legal theory history and contemporary social scientific studies in sport this book is fascinating reading for any advanced student researcher policymaker or practitioner with an interest in sports law the Olympic Games mega events or human rights Human Rights and U.S. Foreign Policy United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on International Organizations, 1979 Faith in Human Rights Robert Traer, 1991-01-01 In this first comprehensive study of the problem of a universal definition of human rights Robert Traer argues that contemporary theological discourse contains an affirmation of faith that unites members of world religious traditions with secular humanists in a common struggle to establish human rights as the basis for human dignity Scholars of religion law and comparative religious ethics as well as human rights advocates will find it an invaluable guide Freedom of Religion, Security and the Law Natascia Marchei, Daniela Milani, 2024-05-27 This collection addresses many of the issues arising from the management of religious and cultural diversity in a multicultural society and refers to the complex relationship between the right to religious freedom and security In recent decades and particularly since September 2001 the right to religious freedom which has hitherto been widely protected has come up against a significant challenge in terms of security or rather in the subjectively and publicly perceived feelings of security This book collects original theoretical legal and comparative contributions addressing several implications for the right to freedom of religion or belief through the lens of security It offers a new key to understanding how to manage the processes of integration of religious diversity in multifaith societies Written by leading experts in the area the work reveals the importance of avoiding simplistic conclusions and unfounded prejudices about religious freedom and of limiting restrictive or repressive interventions to situations of genuine danger The book will be an essential resource for researchers academics and policy makers working in the areas of Law and Religion Human Rights Law and Security Studies

The World Transparent Nina Butorac,2021-05-04 The World Transparent examines the spiritual themes that have populated our Western and Christian tradition for many centuries From a sacramental standpoint and using forty well loved films as illustrations The World Transparent endeavors to guide the reader through a process of formation and towards a mature understanding of the Christian faith not only as an intellectual exploration but as a spiritually lived experience Its focus is on the virtues as they help to form us to live purposeful lives and attain happiness on conscience as it directs our judgment and moral actions on grace as it lifts up our nature and works to perfect it on the sacraments as they confer the graces that enable us to meet life s struggles and on the theological virtues of faith hope and love as they immerse us in the order of grace and direct us to the source of our redemption in Christ Each of these sacred themes is augmented by beauty and by the sacramental qualities found in great art in powerful stories and shot through eminently by classic masterful film

A Question of Balance Brenda J. Norton, 2016-01-21 Western liberal democracy has a dual foundation of limited government implementing the will of the majority and protecting individual autonomy within a sphere of fundamental rights Under the rubric of universal human rights Western societies take for granted that they tolerate all religions and treat all persons equally However through globalization and immigration Western societies are increasingly finding non Christian people in their midst This pluralism is causing polities to rethink fundamental notions of the boundaries of religious freedom equality and state neutrality Three countries whose systems are based on the Western liberal democratic philosophy and which are religiously pluralist the United States France and the Netherlands are reacting in different ways The politics of the hijab and burqa lie at the intersection of the political and legal spheres Consequently the political and legal spheres have each attempted to enforce differing versions of the concepts of equality and neutrality A cross cultural and cross national survey of judicial decisions and legislative action in these countries demonstrates how each is balancing individual rights and communal bonds and adhering to or retreating from previously accepted human rights norms for women and religious practices
