Fresno Stories:

Fresno Stories William Saroyan,2016-05-05 Eleven of William Saroyan s most delightful tales Fresno Stories springs straight from the source of the author s vision the archetypal Armenian families who inhabit Saroyan country in and around Fresno California Chicago Tribune Selected from New Directions collections of Saroyan s early stories The Man With the Heart In the Highlands and his later work Madness In the Family Fresno Stories spans his whole remarkable career

Stories Make the World Stephen Most,2025-06-01 Since the beginning of human history stories have helped people make sense of their lives and their world Today an understanding of storytelling is invaluable as we seek to orient ourselves within a flood of raw information and an unprecedented variety of supposedly true accounts In Stories Make the World award winning screenwriter Stephen Most offers a captivating refreshingly heartfelt exploration of how documentary filmmakers and other storytellers come to understand their subjects and cast light on the world through their art Drawing on the author s decades of experience behind the scenes of television and film documentaries this is an indispensable account of the principles and paradoxes that attend the quest to represent reality truthfully Fresno County Tales Art Cuelho,1979

The Advocate ,2000-02-01 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Associated Grower ,1921 Mysteries of the National Parks Mike Bezemek,2025-05-06 Discover the hidden mysteries of America s national parks America s national parks are best known for stunning beauty and outstanding adventure but these natural wonders also hold some of the world s greatest mysteries Why did an ancestral civilization abandon their stone cities in the mountains of Colorado Flying past Mt Rainier did a pilot really spot nine shiny objects that spawned the UFO craze Was a contorted crater in Utah s dramatic Canyonlands created by a meteorite strike Join outdoor expert and writer Mike Bezemek as he explores baffling disappearances unexplained phenomena and the secret history of our national parks Featuring 35 puzzling stories Mysteries of the National Parks takes readers to every corner of our diverse and beautiful country You ll explore some of the most beloved national park units including Yellowstone National Park Grand Canyon National Park Dinosaur National Monument Blue Ridge Parkway Ford s Theatre National Historic Site And many more Mysteries of the National Parks is the first book to delve into the most enigmatic happenings across the National Park Service Bezemek s vivid storytelling brings each mystery to life immersing readers in the intriguing settings and legendary characters while revealing previously untold details Meanwhile readers will learn how to visit these mystifying sites Whether you re an outdoor adventurer national park enthusiast or true crime fan this riveting collection is a must have addition to your library Perfect as a gift or unique travel companion Mysteries of the National Parks will leave you ready to set out on your own national park adventure The Heart of California Aaron Gilbreath,2020-11 2022 Oregon Book Award Finalist A vivid journey through California s vast rural interior The Heart of California weaves the story of historian Frank Latta s forgotten 1938 boat trip from Bakersfield to San Francisco with Aaron Gilbreath's trip retracing Latta's route by car during the 2014 drought Latta embarked on his journey to publicize the need for dams and levees to improve flood control Gilbreath made his own trip to profile Latta and the productive agricultural world that damming has created in the San Joaquin Valley to describe the region's nearly lost indigenous culture and ecosystems and to bring this complex yet largely ignored landscape to life The Valley is home to some of California's fastest growing cities and by some estimates produces 25 percent of America's food The Valley feeds too many people and is too unique to be ignored To understand California you have to understand the Valley Mixing travel writing historical recreations western history natural history and first person reportage The Heart of California is a road trip narrative about this fascinating region and its most important early documentarian The Story of an Inspiring Past Sarah Estelle Hammond Greathead, 1928 News Talk Colleen Cotter, 2010-02-11 Written by a former news reporter and editor News Talk gives us an insider's view of the media showing how journalists select and construct their news stories Colleen Cotter goes behind the scenes revealing how language is chosen and shaped by news staff into the stories we read and hear Tracing news stories from start to finish she shows how the actions of journalists and editors and the limitations of news writing formulas may distort a story that was prepared with the most determined effort to be fair and accurate Using insights from both linguistics and journalism News Talk is a remarkable picture of a hidden world and its working practices on both sides of the Atlantic It will interest those involved in language study media and communication studies and those who want to understand how media shape our language and our view of the world Gay & Lesbian Ghost Stories Antonio Garcez, 2014-03-05 Gay & Lesbian Ghost Stories presents an exceptional first ever collection of actual paranormal experiences and ghost sightings by gay lesbian and transgendered individuals This compilation of ghost encounter stories shared with the author includes a diverse range of personal interviews of loss redemption fear fate and haunted terror The stories are emotionally touching malevolent vengeful filled with surprising candor and proving that love ultimately remains stronger than death Each personal story has depth that will leave you wondering what will happen if one day you find yourself facing similar situations These personal and very relatable experiences make this an unconventional great read Ghost Stories of the Medical Profession Antonio Garcez, 2013-09-26 A collection of first hand interviews with various medical professionals who have seen or experienced paranormal activity spirits or ghosts associated with their places of employment and professions Pacific Service Magazine, 1922 The Cannibal John Hawkes, 1962 The Cannibal was John Hawkes's first novel published in 1949 Uncovering Race Amy Alexander, 2015-06-16 From an award winning black journalist a tough minded look at the treatment of ethnic minorities both in newsrooms and in the reporting that comes out of them within the changing media landscape From the Rodney King riots to the racial inequities of the new digital media Amy Alexander has chronicled the biggest race and class stories of the modern era in American journalism Beginning in the bare knuckled newsrooms of 1980s San Francisco her career spans a period of industry wide economic collapse and tremendous national demographic changes Despite reporting in some of the country's most diverse cities including San Francisco Boston and Miami Alexander consistently encountered a stubbornly white male press corps and a surprising lack of news concerning the ethnic communities in these multicultural metropolises Driven to shed light on the race and class struggles taking place in the United States Alexander embarked on a rollercoaster career marked by cultural conflicts within newsrooms Along the way her identity as a black woman journalist changed dramatically an evolution that coincided with sweeping changes in the media industry and the advent of the Internet Armed with census data and news industry demographic research Alexander explains how the so called New Media is reenacting Old Media's biases She argues that the idea of newsroom diversity at best an afterthought in good economic times has all but fallen off the table as the industry fights for its economic life a dynamic that will ultimately speed the demise of venerable news outlets Moreover for the shrinking number of journalists of color who currently work at big news organizations the lingering ethos of having to be twice as good as their white counterparts continues it is a reality that threatens to stifle another generation of practitioners from non traditional backgrounds In this hard hitting account Alexander evaluates her own career in the context of the continually evolving story of America's growing ethnic populations and the homogenous newsrooms producing our nation's too often monochromatic coverage This veteran journalist examines the major news stories that were entrenched in the great race debate of the past three decades stories like those of Eli n Gonz lez Janet Cooke Jayson Blair Tavis Smiley the tragedy of Hurricane Katrina and the election of Barack Obama Uncovering Race offers sharp analysis of how race gender and class come to bear on newsrooms and takes aim at mainstream media's failure to successfully cover a browner younger nation a failure that Alexander argues is speeding news organizations demise faster than the Internet The Lime Twig John

Hawkes,2013-05-15 An English horse race the Golden Bowl at Aldington provides the background for John Hawkes exciting novel The Lime Twig which tells of an ingenious plot to steal and race a horse under a false name But it would be unfair to the reader to reveal what happens when a gang of professional crooks gets wind of the scheme and moves to muscle in on this bettors dream of a long odds situation Worked out with all the meticulous detail terror and suspense of a nightmare the tale is on one level comparable to a Graham Greene thriller on another it explores a group of people their relationships fears and loves For as Leslie A Fiedler says in his introduction John Hawkes makes terror rather than love the center of his work knowing all the while of course that there can be no terror without the hope for love and love's defeat The Henry Miller

Reader Henry Miller,2016-01-26 A collection of works spanning the entire career of great 20th century American writer Henry Miller edited and introduced by Lawrence Durrell In 1958 when Henry Miller was elected to membership in the American Institute of Arts and Letters the citation described him as The veteran author of many books whose originality and richness of technique are matched by the variety and daring of his subject matter His boldness of approach and intense curiosity concerning man and nature are unequalled in the prose literature of our times It is most fitting that this anthology of the best of Henry Miller should have been assembled by one of the first among Miller's contemporaries to recognize his genius the eminent British writer Lawrence Durrell Drawing material from a dozen different books Durrell has traced the main line and principal themes of the single endless autobiography which is Henry Miller's life work I suspect writes Durrell in his Introduction that Miller's final place will be among those towering anomalies of authorship like Whitman or Blake who have left us not simply works of art but a corpus of ideas which motivate and influence a whole cultural pattern Earlier H L Mencken had said his is one of the most beautiful prose styles today and the late Sir Herbert Read had written that what makes Miller distinctive among modern writers is his ability to combine without confusion the aesthetic and prophetic functions Included are stories portraits of persons and places philosophical essays and aphorisms For each selection Miller himself prepared a brief commentary which fits the piece into its place in his life story This framework is supplemented by a chronology from Miller's birth in 1891 up to the spring of 1959 a bibliography and as an appendix an open letter to the Supreme Court of Norway written in protest of the ban on Sexus a part of which appears in this volume

The Blood Oranges John Hawkes, 2013-05-15 No synopsis or comparison can convey the novel's lyric comedy or indeed its sinister power sinister because of the strength of will Cyril exerts over his wife his mistress his wife's reluctant lover lyric since he is also a sex singer in the land where music is the food of love Need I insist that the only enemy of the mature marriage is monogamy That anything less than sexual multiplicity is naive That our sexual selves are merely idylers in a vast wood Thus the central theme of John Hawkes's widely acclaimed novel The Blood Oranges is boldly asserted by its narrator Cyril the archetypal multisexualist Likening himself to a white bull on Love's tapestry he pursues his romantic vision in a primitive Mediterranean landscape There two couples Cyril and Fiona Hugh and Catherine mingle their loves in an Illyria that brings to mind the equally timeless countryside of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night

Pope John Paul II The Poynter Institute, 2013-02-05 Pope John Paul II was one of the most significant world figures in the 20th century and one of the most famous popes in the history of the Catholic church His unprecedented willingness to travel the world and his media savvy allowed him to reach over 1 billion Catholic parishioners in over 100 countries during his long tenure as pope He drew huge crowds of devoted followers wherever he went and no doubt many of them will seek to remember him long after his reign has ended The Poynter Institute has put together a full color collection of front page newspaper stories from the day of Pope John Paul II's death in order to chronicle the historic event The book includes approximately 150 reproductions of front pages from newspapers in all 50 U S states as well as major newspapers from around the world The covers are presented without commentary in order to allow the reader to appreciate the event in his or her own way

The Story of Original Sin John Toews, 2013-01-15 This book traces the history of the interpretation of the disobedience of Adam and Eve in Genesis 3 through the biblical period and the church fathers until Augustine It explains the emergence of the doctrine of original sin with the theology of Augustine in the late fourth century on the basis of a mistranslation of the Greek text of Romans 5:12

The book suggests that it is time to move past Augustine's theology of sin and embrace a different theology of sin that is both more biblical and makes more sense in the postmodern West and in the developing world Global Journalism

Collaborations Katherine C. Blair, Marion Coomey, Faith Sidlow, 2024-02-23 Global Journalism Collaborations offers guidance on detailed ways to create collaborative international projects in the communications and journalism fields a hot topic in higher education The chapters are contributed by professors and journalists from around the world The authors explain step by step the process of collaborating with students and instructors at universities in dozens of countries in order to produce digital storytelling projects that are streamed worldwide The book will inspire academics and students in any discipline to develop and create their own collaborative projects by sharing lessons learned through case studies of successful global collaborations This truly interdisciplinary work will interest scholars and instructors of journalism media studies mass communication higher education and anyone working on collaborative projects across a variety of disciplines
