Irish Educational Policy Process And Substance:

Irish Educational Policy Donal G. Mulcahy, Denis O'Sullivan, 1989      Education Policy in Ireland Since 1922 Brendan Walsh, 2022-04-18 This book examines educational policy at primary secondary and university level in Ireland from the foundation of the State to the present day Primarily an attempt to set policy within a historical context the book draws together compelling research on the evolution of key changes in topics as diverse as the use of corporal punishment the evolution of skills policy in post primary settings and the development of the universities in the post 1922 period The book includes detailed analysis of more recent policy initiatives and changes in initial teacher education curriculum change and special and inclusive education and will be of interest to those working in the various fields students and the general public It presents detailed discussions of change in the Irish education system demonstrating how policy initiatives particularly since the early 1990s have brought about significant transformation at all levels In doing so the book also demonstrates that the origin of change often lay in earlier developments particularly those of the mid 1960s Policy development is closely linked to external factors and influences and chapters on academic selection and teachers recollections of policy for example set developments within the wider historical context employing the views and recollections of teachers so that the influence of change on day to day practice is revealed      Essays in the History of Irish Education Brendan Walsh, 2016-09-29 This book provides a complete overview of the development of education in Ireland including the complex issue of how religion can coexist with education and how a national identity can be aided through Irish language teaching It also offers a comprehensive exploration of the development issues challenges and future of education in Ireland within the context of historical studies      Cultural Politics and Irish Education Since the 1950s Denis O'Sullivan, 2005      The New Publicness of Education Carl Anders Säfström, Gert Biesta, 2023-06-01 This book explores democratic possibilities for education after the critique of the impact of neo liberalism on educational policy and practice Together the authors investigate the contours of a new publicness of education This edited volume refers to well established critiques that expose how neoliberal governance has normalised the privatisation of public life and undermined the public nature of education Through historical reconstruction theoretical exploration and analyses of educational policies and practices chapters take a novel approach by investigating democratic possibilities within and beyond the current neoliberal hegemony in education Covering a range of educational settings from early childhood education through to higher and professional education chapters spotlight the Irish educational and political context as well as exploring international implications Ultimately this book opens up new avenues for discussion around public education and its future and will therefore be of great interest to researchers and students in the fields of educational theory education politics educational policy and democratic education

Tuairim, intellectual debate and policy formulation: Rethinking Ireland, 1954-75 Tomas Finn, 2018-02-28 The 1950s and 1960s were a transformative phase in modern Irish history In these years a conservative society dominated by the Catholic Church and a state which was inward looking and distrustful of novelty gradually opened up to fresh ideas This book considers this change It explores how the intellectual movement Tuairim opinion in Irish was at the vanguard of the challenge to orthodoxy and conservatism Tuairim contributed to debates on issues as diverse as Northern Ireland the economy politics education childcare and censorship The society established branches throughout Ireland including Belfast and in London It produced frequent critical publications and boasted a membership that included the future Taoiseach Dr Garret FitzGerald Tuairim occupied a unique position within contemporary debates on Ireland's present and future This book is concerned with its role in the modernisation of Ireland In so doing it also addresses topics of continued relevance for the Ireland of today including the Northern Ireland Peace Process and the institutional care of children Irish Education Antonia McManus, 2014-07-07 In this important new work the author analyses the contributions that our Ministers for Education made to the Irish education system between the years 1919 and 1999 Covering the social economic and political realities of the time and taking in the involvement of the OECD what emerges is a picture of how Irish education was shaped and moulded over the course of the twentieth century Education, Policy, and Social Change Daniel A. Morales Gomez, Carlos Alberto Torres, 1992-09-17 The purpose of this contributed volume is to examine the links among research policy and change in education in Latin America in the context of the relationships between the economy politics and the state in the 1980s The case analyses will discuss the challenges these societies face in education in their progression towards the twenty first century In its various sections the book addresses the following questions How did education respond during the 1980s to the major sociopolitical and economic changes that affected these countries How did the changes in the 1980s affect the relationships between education society and the state and what lessons can be learned from the interaction between research and policy that may help in understanding the developmental role of education in the 1990s And is educational research and policy helping to improve the social condition of minorities in Latin America This volume will be of interest to scholars and policymakers in Latin American studies educational research education policy and educational planning The RoutledgeFalmer Reader in the Philosophy of Education Wilfred Carr, 2021-04-29 This Reader brings together a wide range of material to present an international perspective on topical issues in philosophy of education today Focusing on the enduring trends in this field this lively and informative Reader provides broad coverage of the field and includes crucial topics With an emphasis on contemporary pieces that deal with issues relevant to the immediate real world this book represents the research and views of some of the most respected authors in the field today Wilfred Carr also provides a specially written introduction which provides a much needed context to the role of philosophy in the current educational climate Students of philosophy and philosophy of education will find this Reader an important route map to further reading and understanding The Pedagogy of Protest Brendan Walsh, 2007 This book provides the first complete account of Patrick Pearse's educational work at St Enda's and St Ita's schools Dublin Extensive use of first hand accounts reveals Pearse as a humane energetic teacher and a forward looking and innovative educational thinker Between 1903 and 1916 Pearse developed a new concept of schooling as an agency of radical pedagogical and social reform later echoed by school founders such as Bertrand Russell This placed him firmly within the tradition of radical educational thought as articulated by Paulo Freire and Henry Giroux The book examines the tension between Pearse s work and his increasingly public profile as an advocate of physical force separatism and by employing previously unknown accounts questions the perception that he influenced his students to become active supporters of militant separatism The book describes the later history of St Enda s revealing the ambivalence of post independence administrations and shows how Pearse s work which has long been neglected by historians has had a direct influence on a later generation of school founders up to the present

Central and Eastern Europe in Transition Frank H. Columbus,1998 This is part of a two volume set presenting current analyses of political and economic developments and trends in central and Eastern Europe In this volume emphasis is on social and political developments Coverage includes parties and party systems in Eastern Europe Central European moralist diplomacy the emergence of the Hungarian party system educational reconstruction and xenophobic attitudes towards migrants and ethnic minorities in the region Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Irish Social Services John Curry,2003 Teacher Preparation in Ireland Thomas O'Donoghue,Judith Harford,Teresa O'Doherty,2017-06-29 This study of teacher preparation policy and practice in Ireland from Independence in 1921 to the present highlights within an international context the extent to which the focus of preparation moved from nation building until 1967 when free second level education was introduced to one concerned with improving the country s human capital

Teachers and Teacher Unions in a Globalised World John Carr,Lori Beckett,2018-06-13 Teachers and Teacher Unions in a Globalised World asks a series of pressing questions of teacher educators teachers and teacher unions worldwide in this era of global capitalism As governments around the world support austerity politics in the face of financial meltdowns social inequalities terrorist threats climate catastrophe wars and mass migrations the book questions whether practitioners in teaching and teacher education are succumbing to pressures to dismantle their nation state systems of education The authors present a clearly argued case in Ireland for teachers and teacher educators organising to realise their moral and social responsibilities of free and fair schooling for all when it is most needed as well as insisting on policy debates about a free publicly funded school system At a time when teachers are feeling overwhelmed with workload and frustrated by the visible turning of events away from the historical record the book emphasises the importance of practitioner research in informing decisions about a strategic and democratic way forward for education around the globe Teachers and Teacher Unions in a Globalised World will be of great interest to academics and researchers in the field of education as well as teacher educators practitioners and policymakers A Sociology of Ireland

Hilary Tovey, Perry Share, 2003 Reflects recent social developments with new chapters on Civil Society Popular Culture and Everyday Life Has a strong central argument related to the nature of Irish society Looks at Ireland's positioning in a globalising world Considers a wide range of aspects of the social structure and culture Written in an accessible and interesting style Includes a comprehensive bibliography of Irish and overseas references Suitable for Sociology courses in Irish universities and Institutes of Technology at both undergraduate and postgraduate level including general arts programmes applied social studies social studies social work A New History of Ireland Volume VII J. R.

Hill, 2003-12-04 A New History of Ireland is the largest scholarly project in modern Irish history In 9 volumes it provides a comprehensive new synthesis of modern scholarship on every aspect of Irish history and prehistory from the earliest geological and archaeological evidence through the Middle Ages down to the present day Volume VII covers a period of major significance in Ireland's history It outlines the division of Ireland and the eventual establishment of the Irish Republic It provides comprehensive coverage of political developments north and south as well as offering chapters on the economy literature in English and Irish the Irish language the visual arts emigration and immigration and the history of women The contributors to this volume all specialists in their field provide the most comprehensive treatment of these developments of any single volume survey of twentieth century Ireland Standing the Heat Joseph Hegarty, 2014-07-10 Standing the Heat

Assuring Curriculum Quality in Culinary Arts and Gastronomy chronicles the creation and development of an undergraduate degree program in culinary arts at the Dublin Institute of Technology Written by the head of the institute's School of Culinary Arts and Food Technology Standing the Heat is a handbook for developing a curriculum that maximizes career opportunities for students as an alternative to the limited path of instructional training offered in hotel management or hospitality degrees The book details the merger of a vocational education with a more cognitive education that prepares chefs to be more than mere cooking operatives introducing educational concepts that establish the culinary arts as a discipline deserving of serious scholarly attention
