Elections in Australia, Ireland, and Malta under the Single Transferable Vote Shaun Bowler,Bernard Norman Grofman,2010-06-04 The Single Transferable Vote or STV is often seen in very positive terms by electoral reformers yet relatively little is known about its actual workings beyond one or two specific settings This book gathers leading experts on STV from around the world to discuss the examples they know best and represents the first systematic cross national study of STV Furthermore the contributors collectively build an understanding of electoral systems as institutions embedded within a wider social and political context and begins to explain the gap between analytical models and the actual practice of elections in Australia Ireland and Malta Rather than seeing electoral institutions in purely mechanical terms the collection of essays in this volume shows that the effects of electoral system may be contingent rather than automatic On the basis of solid empirical evidence the volume argues that the same political system can in fact have quite different effects under different conditions

Contributors to the volume are Shaun Bowler David Farrell Michael Gallagher Bernard Grofman Wolfgang Hirczy Colin Hughes J Paul Johnston Michael Laver Malcom Mackerras Michael Maley Michael Marsh Ian McAllister and Ben Reilly Shaun Bowler is Professor of Political Science University of California Riverside Bernard Grofman is Professor of Political Science University of California Irvine Hansard's Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Social Transformation Bryan Fanning,Ronaldo Munck,2016-04-22 In the space of around ten years Ireland went from being a traditional labour exporter to a leading European economy and thus an attractive destination for immigrants from Eastern Europe and further afield This produced a singular social laboratory which this book explores in all its complexity set against the backdrop of globalization Until recently seen as a showcase for the success of globalization Ireland also became a destination for those displaced by the effects of globalization elsewhere Globalization Migration and Social Transformation takes Ireland as a paradigmatic case of social transformation exploring the reasons why emigration was so rapidly replaced by immigration along with the social political cultural and economic effects of this shift Presenting the latest research around the themes of identity social transformations and EU and Irish politics and policy this book offers a rich array of detailed empirical case studies drawn from Ireland which shed light on the experiences of immigrant groups from around the world and the wider processes of social transformation In addition it examines the manner in which the Irish state and the broader political system relate to new migrants and vice versa thus advancing our comparative understanding of how the European Union is responding to the challenge of mass migration Globalization Migration and Social Transformation makes a strong contribution to the comparative literature on immigration and integration diaspora and social transformation in the era of globalization and as such it will appeal to social scientists with interests in migration race and ethnicity globalization and Irish studies

Authoritarianism and the Evolution of West European Electoral Politics Erik R. Tillman, 2021-07-22

Authoritarianism and the Evolution of West European Electoral Politics provides a novel explanation of rising Euroscepticism and right wing populism in Western Europe The changing political and cultural environment of recent decades is generating an ongoing realignment of voters structured by authoritarianism which is a psychological disposition towards the maintenance of social cohesion and order at the expense of individual autonomy and diversity High authoritarians find the values and demographic changes of the past several decades a threat to social cohesion which has created an opportunity for PRR parties to gain their support by campaigning against these perceived threats to national community posed by immigration values change and European integration The result is a worldview evolution in which party conflict is shaped by the rival preferences of high and low authoritarians Drawing on national and cross national survey data as well as an original survey experiment this book demonstrates how the relationship between authoritarianism and 1 attitudes towards the EU and 2 voting behaviour has evolved since the 1990s In doing so this book advances these literatures by providing an explanation for why certain voters are shifting towards PRR parties as electoral politics realigns
