Hereafter Vona Groarke, 2024-10 A lyrical portrait of a young Irish woman reinventing herself at the turn of the twentieth century in America Ellen O Hara was a young immigrant from Ireland at the end of the nineteenth century who with courage and resilience made a life for herself in New York while financially supporting those at home Hereafter is her story told by Vona Groarke her descendant in a beautiful blend of poetry prose and history In July 1882 Ellen O Hara stepped off a ship from the West of Ireland to begin a new life in New York What she encountered was a world of casual racial prejudice that characterized her as ignorant dirty and feckless the butt of many jokes From the slim range of jobs available to her she like many of her kind found a position as a domestic servant working long hours and living in to save on rent and keep After an unfortunate marriage Ellen determined to win financial security on her own and eventually opened a boarding house where her two children were able to rejoin her Vona Groarke builds this story from historical fact drawing from various archives for evidence of Ellen However she also considers why lives such as Ellen s seem to leave such a light trace in such records and fills in the gaps with memory and empathetic projection Ellen scrappy skeptical and straight talking is the heroine of Hereafter whose resilience animates the story and whose voice shines through with vivid clarity Hereafter is both a compelling account of an incredible figure and a reflection on how one woman s story can speak for more than one life

The Princeton History of Modern Ireland Richard Bourke, Ian McBride, 2016-01-12 An accessible and innovative look at Irish history by some of today s most exciting historians of Ireland This book brings together some of today s most exciting scholars of Irish history to chart the pivotal events in the history of modern Ireland while providing fresh perspectives on topics ranging from colonialism and nationalism to political violence famine emigration and feminism The Princeton History of Modern Ireland takes readers from the Tudor conquest in the sixteenth century to the contemporary boom and bust of the Celtic Tiger exploring key political developments as well as major social and cultural movements Contributors describe how the experiences of empire and diaspora have determined Ireland s position in the wider world and analyze them alongside domestic changes ranging from the Irish language to the economy They trace the literary and intellectual history of Ireland from Jonathan Swift to Seamus Heaney and look at important shifts in ideology and belief delving into subjects such as religion gender and Fenianism Presenting the latest cutting edge scholarship by a new generation of historians of Ireland The Princeton History of Modern Ireland features narrative chapters on Irish history followed by thematic chapters on key topics The book highlights the global reach of the Irish experience as well as commonalities shared across Europe and brings vividly to life an Irish past shaped by conquest plantation assimilation revolution and partition      Ireland's Great Hunger David A. Valone, 2009-12-21 The papers collected in this volume are a product of the second conference on Ireland s Great Hunger held at Quinnipiac University in 2005 That conference focused on the themes of representation and preservation brought together forty five scholars from around the world to discuss various aspects of the Famine and its aftermath Following the conference the complete An Gorta M r collection of Quininnipiac s famine commemorative art was placed on display for the first time in the University s Alumni Hall The An Gorta M r collection is on permanent display in the University s Arnold Bernhard Library and in other buildings across the University s Mount Carmel campus This volume focused on the theses of relief representation and remembrance contains essays from a broad range of disciplines including works of history literary criticism anthropology and art history The Kerry Girls Kay Moloney Caball,2014-05-05 As part of the controversial Earl Grey Scheme this is the true story of the Kerry girls who were shipped to Australia from the four Kerry workhouses of Dingle Kenmare Killarney and Listowel in 1849 and 1850 Leaving behind scenes of destitution and misery the girls some of whom spoke only Irish set off to the other side of the world without any idea of what lay ahead This book tells of their selection and their transportation to New South Wales and Adelaide their subsequent apprenticeship and finally of their marriages and attempts to rebuild a life far from home Confronting Genocide René Provost,Payam Akhavan,2010-11-11 Never again stands as one the central pledges of the international community following the end of the Second World War upon full realization of the massive scale of the Nazi extermination programme Genocide stands as an intolerable assault on a sense of common humanity embodied in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and other fundamental international instruments including the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide and the United Nations Charter And yet since the Second World War the international community has proven incapable of effectively preventing the occurrence of more genocides in places like Cambodia Yugoslavia Rwanda and Sudan Is genocide actually preventable or is ever again a more accurate catchphrase to capture the reality of this phenomenon The essays in this volume explore the complex nature of genocide and the relative promise of various avenues identified by the international community to attempt to put a definitive end to its occurrence Essays focus on a conceptualization of genocide as a social and political phenomenon on the identification of key actors Governments international institutions the media civil society individuals and on an exploration of the relative promise of different means to prevent genocide criminal accountability civil disobedience shaming intervention Frederick Douglass David W. Blight,2020-01-07 Selected as One of the Best Books of the 21st Century by The New York Times Winner of the Pulitzer Prize in History Extraordinary a great American biography The New Yorker of the most important African American of the 19th century Frederick Douglass the escaped slave who became the greatest orator of his day and one of the leading abolitionists and writers of the era As a young man Frederick Douglass 1818 1895 escaped from slavery in Baltimore Maryland He was fortunate to have been taught to read by his slave owner mistress and he would go on to become one of the major literary figures of his time His very existence gave the lie to slave owners with dignity and great intelligence he bore witness to the brutality of slavery Initially mentored by William Lloyd Garrison Douglass spoke widely using his own story to condemn slavery By the Civil War Douglass had become the most famed and widely travelled orator in the nation In his unique and eloquent voice written and spoken Douglass was a fierce critic of the United States as well as a radical patriot After the war he sometimes argued politically with younger African Americans but he never forsook either the Republican party or the cause of black civil and political rights In this cinematic and deeply engaging The New York Times Book Review biography David Blight has drawn on new information held in a private collection that few other historians have consulted as well as recently discovered issues of Douglass's newspapers Absorbing and even moving a brilliant book that speaks to our own time as well as Douglass's The Wall Street Journal Blight's biography tells the fascinating story of Douglass's two marriages and his complex extended family David Blight has written the definitive biography of Frederick Douglass a powerful portrait of one of the most important American voices of the nineteenth century The Boston Globe In addition to the Pulitzer Prize Frederick Douglass won the Bancroft Parkman Los Angeles Times biography Lincoln Plutarch and Christopher awards and was named one of the Best Books of 2018 by The New York Times Book Review The Wall Street Journal The Boston Globe The Chicago Tribune The San Francisco Chronicle and Time

Borders of Belief Gregory J. Goalwin, 2022-07-15 Why have modern nationalists built religious identity as the foundational signifier of nationality in an increasingly secular world The cases of 20th century Ireland and Turkey reveal the answer religious nationalism is not a knee jerk reaction to secular modernization but a tool that forges new and independent national identities

Affective Landscapes in Literature, Art and Everyday Life Christine Berberich, Neil Campbell, 2016-03-09 Bringing together a diverse group of scholars representing the fields of cultural and literary studies cultural politics and history creative writing and photography this collection examines the different ways in which human beings respond to debate and interact with landscape How do we feel sense know cherish memorise imagine dream desire or even fear landscape What are the specific qualities of experience that we can locate in the spaces in and through which we live While the essays most often begin with the broadly literary the memoir the travelogue the novel poetry the contributors approach the topic in diverse and innovative ways The collection is divided into five sections Peripheral Cultures dealing with dislocation and imagined landscapes Memory and Mobility concerning the road as the scene of trauma and movement Suburbs and Estates contrasting American and English spaces Literature and Place foregrounding the fluidity of the fictional and the real and the human and nonhuman and finally Sensescape tracing the sensory response to landscape Taken together the essays interrogate important issues about how we live now and might live in the future

Say Nothing Patrick Radden Keefe, 2020-02-25 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER NOW AN FX LIMITED SERIES STREAMING ON HULU NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD WINNER From the author of Empire of Pain a stunning intricate narrative about a notorious killing in Northern Ireland and its devastating repercussions One of The New York Times's 20 Best Books of the

21st Century A Kirkus Reviews Best Nonfiction Book of the Century A Los Angeles Times Best Nonfiction Book of the Last 30 Years Masked intruders dragged Jean McConville a 38 year old widow and mother of 10 from her Belfast home in 1972 In this meticulously reported book as finely paced as a novel Keefe uses McConville s murder as a prism to tell the history of the Troubles in Northern Ireland Interviewing people on both sides of the conflict he transforms the tragic damage and waste of the era into a searing utterly gripping saga New York Times Book Review Reads like a novel Keefe is a master of narrative nonfiction An incredible story Rolling Stone A Best Book of the Year The New York Times The Washington Post The Wall Street Journal TIME NPR and more Jean McConville s abduction was one of the most notorious episodes of the vicious conflict known as The Troubles Everyone in the neighborhood knew the I R A was responsible But in a climate of fear and paranoia no one would speak of it In 2003 five years after an accord brought an uneasy peace to Northern Ireland a set of human bones was discovered on a beach McConville s children knew it was their mother when they were told a blue safety pin was attached to the dress with so many kids she had always kept it handy for diapers or ripped clothes Patrick Radden Keefe s mesmerizing book on the bitter conflict in Northern Ireland and its aftermath uses the McConville case as a starting point for the tale of a society wracked by a violent guerrilla war a war whose consequences have never been reckoned with The brutal violence seared not only people like the McConville children but also I R A members embittered by a peace that fell far short of the goal of a united Ireland and left them wondering whether the killings they committed were not justified acts of war but simple murders From radical and impetuous I R A terrorists such as Dolours Price who when she was barely out of her teens was already planting bombs in London and targeting informers for execution to the ferocious I R A mastermind known as The Dark to the spy games and dirty schemes of the British Army to Gerry Adams who negotiated the peace but betrayed his hardcore comrades by denying his I R A past Say Nothing conjures a world of passion betrayal vengeance and anguish Ireland Paul Bew,2007-08-16 The modern Irish question is defined by many as a case of a great and supposedly liberal nation supposedly mistreating a smaller one This text embodies a new approach to this issue analysing key issues from religious discrimination and famine to the passions of both nationalism and unionism Hear Us Out Richard Canning,2004-01-13 The author of the acclaimed Gay Fiction Speaks brings us new interviews with twelve prominent gay writers who have emerged in the last decade Hear Us Out demonstrates how in recent decades the canon of gay fiction has developed diversified and expanded its audience into the mainstream Readers will recognize names like Michael Cunningham whose Pulitzer Prize winning novel The Hours inspired the hit movie and others like Christopher Bram Bernard Cooper Stephen McCauley and Matthew Stadler These accounts explore the vicissitudes of writing on gay male themes in fiction over the last thirty years prejudices of the literary marketplace social and political questions the impact of AIDS commonalities between gay male and lesbian fiction and even some delectable bits of gossip Horror International Steven Jay Schneider,Tony Williams,2005 A close look at horror films from around the world drawing attention to neglected

social cultural and ideological aspects of the horror genre in international cinema Irish America, 2002 Writing, Directing, and Producing Documentary Films and Videos, Fourth Edition Alan Rosenthal, 2007-06-26 As Alan Rosenthal states in the preface to this new edition of his acclaimed resource for filmmakers Writing Directing and Producing Documentary Films and Videos is a book about storytelling how to tell great and moving stories about fascinating people whether they be villains or heroes In response to technological advances and the growth of the documentary hybrid in the past five years Rosenthal reconsiders how one approaches documentary filmmaking in the twenty first century Simply and clearly he explains how to tackle day to day problems from initial concept through distribution He demonstrates his ideas throughout the book with examples from key filmmakers work New aspects of this fourth edition include a vital new chapter titled Making Your First Film and a considerable enlargement of the section for producers Staying Alive which includes an extensive discussion of financing marketing festivals and distribution This new edition offers a revised chapter on nonlinear editing more examples of precise and exacting proposals and the addition of a complex budget example with explanation of the budgeting process Discussion of documentary hybrids with suggestions for mastering changes and challenges has also been expanded while the Family Films chapter includes updated information that addresses rapid expansion in this genre

Disaster and Human History Benjamin Reilly, 2022-05-13 Human history is periodically punctuated by natural disasters from Vesuvius eruption to the modern day Covid 19 pandemic Volcanoes have buried entire cities earthquakes have reduced structures to smoldering ruins Floods and cyclones have wreaked havoc on river valleys and coastlines and desertification and climate change have weakened society's underpinnings Death tolls are often escalated by starvation and illness which frequently occur in tandem This second edition assesses natural disasters on human society and the effect of strategies developed to reduce their impact This book addresses the interconnectivity of disaster and human responsibility through 23 updated case studies including a new chapter on the 2011 T hoku tsunami and the ensuing Fukushima nuclear disaster

Historical Dictionary of Ireland Frank A. Biletz, 2013-11-14 All places undergo change but in few has this change been quite as sweeping as Ireland both the independent Republic of Ireland and dependent Northern Ireland so it is good to see where it is heading at present Obviously that has to be judged on the background of where it is coming from not only over the past decade or so but over centuries and indeed millennia This new edition of Historical Dictionary of Ireland is an excellent resource for discovering the history of Ireland This is done through a chronology an introductory essay and an extensive bibliography The cross referenced dictionary section has over 600 entries on significant persons places and events political parties and institutions including the Catholic church with period forays into literature music and the arts This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Ireland
