Judge,2013-09-21 And Egypt Is the River is a collection of mystical prose poems which the author describes as an attempt based on the linguistic theories of R W Emerson Ernest Fenollosa and Hugh Kenner among others to trace the evolution of cosmology and myth as derived from a people s immediate sensory experience In one sense it is an exploration of the genesis of language the primal utterances that transcend from the physical world of sound denoting object to how images come to bring about self awareness and fuse shared mythologies or as the poet would say impact that compels words that collect in fossil tidepools of the skull      From World War to Cold War David Reynolds,2006-02-23 The 1940s was probably the most dramatic and decisive decade of the 20th century This volume explores the Second World War and the origins of the Cold War from the vantage point of two of the great powers of that era Britain and the USA and of their wartime leaders Churchill and Roosevelt It also looks at their chequered relations with Stalin and at how the Grand Alliance crumbled into an undesired Cold War But this is not simply a story of top level diplomacy David Reynolds explores the social and cultural implications of the wartime Anglo American alliance particularly the impact of nearly three million GIs on British life and reflects more generally on the importance of cultural issues in the study of international history This book persistently challenges popular stereotypes for instance on Churchill in 1940 or his Iron Curtain speech It probes clichés such as the special relationship and even the Second World War And it offers new views of the familiar such as the Fall of France in 1940 or Franklin Roosevelt as the wheelchair president Incisive and readable written by a leading international historian these essays encourage us to rethink our understanding of this momentous period in world history      The Electrical Journal ,1892      Excavations at Tall Jawa, Jordan, Volume 2 The Iron Age Artefacts Michèle Daviau,2001-12-17 This volume presents a functional and typological study of the Iron Age artefacts recovered during six years of excavation at the site of Tall Jawa in central Jordan The introduction presents information on the recording and classification system used to identify artefact types The main chapter presents each category of artefact with examples of the most representative items and their parallels from sites in Israel and Syria Examples include jewellery figurines weapons food processing tools and
