Is He Out There? Paul Laffan, 2022-12-01 Is He Out There is an interdisciplinary examination of the Christian reaction to Dawkinss The God Delusion That reaction has offered a wide range of counter arguments among them that Dawkinss demonstration of how God almost certainly doesnt exist addresses an out dated conception of God that science and religion are not conflictual as Dawkins contends and indeed may well be converging upon an understanding of how God acts in the universe that Dawkinss denigration of the Bible depends on an overly literal reading and that Dawkins assumes a narrative of progress in which human beings take the place of God in controlling the course of history Is He Out There responds to these arguments in the context of current scientific understanding biblical criticism and philosophy Paul Laffan demonstrates how the desire to meet the challenge posed by Dawkinss viewpoint has led to the perversion of scientific theories and accepted positions in other important fields of inquiry It suggests that Christianity is wedded to a God who is the cause of the universe a classical conception of cause that is anachronistic that denying the Bible was read for most of the Christian era as offering a literal account of divine creation is a significant misrepresentation of doctrinal history and that a complete dismissal of progress requires the dismissal of scientific achievement The author considers the extent to which attractive secular values like tolerance and freedom of opinion are Christian in source and whether moral systems require God to underwrite them The wide ranging nature of Is He Out There not only provides a review of the state of contemporary Christian apology but is a measured address of the arguments put forward in The God Delusion and indeed of the substantive commentary on Dawkinss thesis

of God William C. Chittick, 2015-03-26 The Self Disclosure of God offers the most detailed presentation to date in any Western language of the basic teachings of Islam's greatest mystical philosopher and theologian. It represents a major step forward in making available to the Western reading public the enormous riches of Islamic teachings in the fields of cosmology, mystical philosophy, theology, and spirituality. The Self Disclosure of God continues the author's investigations of the world view of Ibn al Arab, the greatest theoretician of Sufism and the seal of the Muhammadan saints. The book is divided into three parts dealing with the relation between God and the cosmos, the structure of the cosmos, and the nature of the human soul. A long introduction orients the reader and discusses a few of the difficulties faced by Ibn al Arab's interpreters. Like Chittick's earlier work The Sufi Path of Knowledge, this book is based primarily on Ibn al Arab's monumental work al Futuḥ al Makkīyah. The Meccan Openings. More than one hundred complete chapters and subsections are translated, not to mention shorter passages that help put the longer discussions in context. There are detailed indices of sources, Koranic verses, and hadiths. The book's index of technical terminology will be an indispensable reference for all those wishing to delve more deeply into the use of language in Islamic thought in general and Sufism in particular. Is That Your Neighbor in the Basement? Barbara Oliver Fletcher, 2014-10-28 Edna and Edith are back. From the author of Is That Your Mother In Law Under The Bed and Is That Your Cousin In The Closet comes the third book of the series featuring those two mischievous senior citizen sisters as licensed private investigators out to rid the world or at least Chicago of murderers, counterfeiters, and overall bad guys. They don't always do things by the book, but they get the job done in their own, sometimes dangerous but comical ways. Much to the surprise of Edith's son Eddie, a police detective, Eddie, the voice of reason, is always reminding the two of them regarding the boundaries within the legal system, not to mention that orange is not their color and how hideous they will look in those orange jumpsuits provided by the Department of Corrections. Join the sisters as they become targets and discover their names at the top of a killer's hit list. Cobbett's Parliamentary History of England Great Britain.
