Every Day with Jesus Greg Laurie, 2018 FORTY YEARS OF FAVORITE DEVOTIONS The Rural Life of England; In Three Volumes William Howitt, 2023-09-21 Reproduction of the original The publishing house Megali specialises in reproducing historical works in large print to make reading easier for people with impaired vision The Windows of Heaven Ron Rozelle, 2022-11-10 Winner of the 2000 Texas Review Fiction Prize Set in Galveston during the 1900 storm the most devastating natural disaster in the history of the United States this sweeping novel follows the fates of several richly drawn characters It is the story of Sal the little girl who is wise beyond her years and who holds out as much hope for the world as she does for her father the ruined son of a respected father It is the story of Sister Zilphia the nun who helps run the St Mary's Orphanage The only thing separating the two long buildings of the orphanage is a fragile line of sand dunes the only thing separating Zilphia from the world is the brittle faith that she has been sent there to consider A faith that has never been truly tested Until now And it is the story of Galveston herself the grand old lady of the Gulf Coast with her harbor filled with ships from the world over her Victorian homes and her brothels and her grand pavilions set in their own parks and her stately mansions along Broadway the highest ground on the island at eight feet above sea level All must face their darkest night now as nature hurls the worst she can muster at the narrow strip of sand and saltgrass that is doomed to become for a time part of the ocean floor This is the story of heroes and villains of courage and sacrifice and most of all of people trying desperately to survive And it is the story of an era now gone of splendor and injustice filled with the simple joy of living Prologue It started raining after midnight At first a few heavy drops as large as pebbles splattered against windows and spotted the dry pavement of the streets They plinked into half full troughs of dirty water outside the saloons on Post Office Street horses tied there winced against the stings People inside the saloons sailors and dock workers and whores paid no attention to the steadily quickening tattoo being pelted out on the tin sheets or slates of the roofs but kept to the business at hand the drinking and gambling and the sweaty brief stabbing away at the very oldest of human exertions Some of Galveston's people in other parts of the city listened to the rain from their beds A few who had looked up that day at the Levy Building on Market Street and noticed the pair of warning flags that flew from the fourth floor offices of the Weather Bureau knew that this was the first slow calling card of a tropical storm Isaac Cline the chief of the bureau had hoisted the flags on Friday morning and they had danced and popped in the brisk north wind all day The red one with the black box in its middle meant that a particularly malevolent storm was a possibility The white one above it meant that if it came it would come from the northwest But not too many people had seen the flags And now the first big drops of rain plopped into the sand dunes and salt grass of the island and slid through the muted light of the gas street lights in town and nobody paid much attention to them Those in bed closed their eyes and let the tapping of the rain sing them to sleep It had come a long way this storm Almost two weeks before somewhere on the immense swaying surface of the eternal Atlantic a small portion of the sea had

The Rustler of Wind River (Western Novel) George W. Ogden, 2022-01-04 Saul Chadron's plan to hire Mark Thorn to kill the rustler Alan MacDonald goes awry with his own daughter falling for his enemy On the top of it he couldn't have anticipated the huge backlash the rustlers would put up against him and his mighty band of settlers Who will have the last word or say the last bullet Excerpt When a man came down out of the mountains looking dusty and gaunt as the stranger did there was no marvel in the matter of his eating five cans of oysters The one unaccountable thing about it was that Saul Chadron president of the Drovers Association should sit there at the table and urge the lank lean starveling to go his limit Usually Saul Chadron was a man who picked his companions and was a particular hand at the choosing He could afford to do that being of the earth's exalted in the Northwest where people came to him and put down their tribute at his feet

Dream City Douglas Unger, 2024-10-08 In this unconventional tale of Las Vegas during the two delirious boom decades before the bust of the Great Recession failed actor C D Reinhart who has launched a new career in hotel marketing is gradually losing his moral and existential compass Working on The Strip during an era when Sin City's population growth was outpacing any other place in America C D climbs the industry ladder while modeling himself after a Pyramid Resorts top executive Lance Sheperd C D's professional choices lead him down a tumultuous road as Sheperd a complex and at times visionary figure pilots his ventures through the tangled wheeling and dealing of finance and corporate politics straight into catastrophe As the story progresses C D comes to understand how his personal losses and the losses of his cohort of hard driving executives on the make especially the tragic life of his work partner Greta Olsson the only woman to break through into their male dominated world are a result of the make believe environment he has helped to create a world where representation replaces reality Hoping to piece together his faltering marriage and family relationships C D must find a new path as he struggles to hold onto his dreams In this fictionalized version of the city of glittering lights author Douglas Unger pits the ideologies of marketing and consumerism in the casino economy of America against the erosion of individual and humane values that success in that world demands Unger reveals the hard truth that Las Vegas a blue collar town considered by many to be the most honest city can be a temple for self deceptions emblematic of a service economy that knows the price of everything and too often the value of little else Dream City becomes both a love song and an elegy for Las Vegas that sets it apart from any other literary novel previously written about this global entertainment attraction that in so many ways represents postmodern America Sooner or later the challenge that faces everyone is to discover what matters most and to learn how to bet on the better angels of our natures Hope Matters John A. Calhoun, 2007 Mary Gonzales strolls the streets of Chicago's meatpacking district every evening keeping a watchful eye over her neighborhood kids Tony Ortiz encourages young men in California state prisons to break free of the brutal gang life he once knew all too well Joe Hynes Brooklyn's district attorney champions women and children not wanting them to suffer as he suffered They and the twenty one other amazing people interviewed by Jack Calhoun are reshaping lives and communities across America They include Christians of every denomination Muslims Jews and others some who pray five times a day and some who are frankly not that religious But each tells Calhoun there's much more to the story You may have heard of some of these Americans Several are in the news The good words of all shine brightly in their communities What you haven't heard about is the underlying force the hidden source of their seemingly endless energy and selflessness It is faith a deep and in some cases unsuspected spirituality They have the unshakable sense that they work not only for their organizations and each individual they encounter but especially for God Calhoun was once an eager divinity school student hungry to make a difference Through the years he rose to national prominence in the field of public policy spending twenty plus years as the founding president of the National Crime Prevention Council However something wasn't right Caught up in a parade of committee meetings speaking engagements and policy and program initiatives he had lost touch with the bedrock of his vocation It took an encounter with an unusually clear sighted volunteer to reconnect his daily work to his faith in God Reinvigorated Calhoun embarked on a two year cross country quest to find out how faith motivates some of America's hardest working public servants They pursue a range of innovative and ambitious plans to help their communities and their accomplishments are impressive But just try telling them so They have been chosen they'll explain to fulfill a larger purpose Their paths have been rocky their burdens heavy and the work hasn't always been fun Yet they feel blessed emboldened by their trust in a higher power to live lives of acceptance and unbounded love Some recent books have laid divisiveness and hostility at faith's door Hope Matters brings to light the togetherness and reconciliation that faith truly engenders when good people heed its call to action You won't hear Mary Tony Joe or the rest preaching from the pulpit or even in the streets They have no sermon or script to follow There is a ministry of open arms and second chances of waking up each morning with new challenges and going to bed each night with renewed faith Their stories just might inspire you to make your own place of worship a little bigger The Cosmic Lady Was Right Marshall Motz, 2009-09-28 No ordinary memoir this book aspires to be more than a mere exercise in narcissism A street person in a zany California beach town at the end of the author's days provides the theme planet Earth is the Galaxy Lunatic Training Asylum upon which each of us has been planted with one purpose namely to rise from the stupidity and the darkness around us into the light to regain in fact our sanity Mama Earth is
