The book continues with the highly controversial issue of the attribution of rights to subnational groups and the identification of subnational groups which would be entitled to such rights The second part deals with the identification and protection of peoples and minorities at different levels of organization viz subnational national and supranational This part is followed by an analysis of the modes and means by which international obligations vis vis subnational groups can be enforced Not only the judicial means are considered but also the justifiability of recourse to military means to the cause of subnational groups This book not only provides an in depth analysis of contemporary international law with respect to the protection of peoples and minorities but also of the law as it is developing in the post Cold War era      Report United States.
