Feeling And Hurting:

Feeling Hurt in Close Relationships Anita L. Vangelisti, 2009-07-31 Feeling Hurt in Close Relationships presents a synthesis of cutting edge research and theory on hurt Being hurt is an inevitable part of close relationships What varies from relationship to relationship is not whether partners hurt each other but how their relationship is affected by hurtful episodes Given the potential influence of hurt feelings on people's interpersonal relationships it is not surprising that scholars have begun to study the antecedents processes and outcomes associated with hurt This collection integrates the various issues addressed by researchers theorists and practitioners who study the causes of hurt feelings the interpersonal events associated with hurt and the ways people respond to hurting and being hurt by others To capture the breadth and depth of the literature in this area the work of scholars from a variety of disciplines including social psychology communication sociology and family studies is highlighted Seeing Red Jennifer Simmonds, 2014-07-01 A unique proven approach to anger management for elementary and middle school aged children Anger is a natural human emotion but if it isn t managed properly its effects can be devastating Seeing Red is a curriculum designed to help elementary and middle school aged students better understand their anger so they can make healthy and successful choices and build strong relationships This completely revised and updated edition includes a comprehensive anti bullying component complete with cutting edge material specific to cyber bullying and social media Designed especially for use with small groups Seeing Red enables participants to learn from and empower one another Its unique group process helps children and teens build important developmental objectives such as leadership skills taking initiative presenting in front of the group social skills taking turns active listening and building self esteem problem solving interacting with peers Key concepts and activities include Spotting anger triggers and taking responsibility for mistakes Finding healthy ways to deal with provocation and avoiding losing control Identifying feelings learning steps to control anger and exploring consequences Facilitators will learn how to empower participants through role playing helping them to identify associated feelings and recognize negative behaviors Each session includes objectives a list of supplies background notes and preparation tasks for the leader a warm up activity an explanation of the various learning activities and a closing activity See for yourself why Seeing Red remains one of the most highly regarded resources among professionals in the field of children's anger management Cancer Pain Management Deborah B. McGuire, Connie Henke Yarbro, Betty Ferrell, 1995 Cancer Pain Management Second Edition will substantially advance pain education The unique combination of authors an educator a leading practitioner and administrator and a research scientist provides comprehensive authoritative coverage in addressing this important aspect of cancer care The contributors acknowledged experts in their areas address a wide scope of issues Educating health care providers to better assess and manage pain and improve patients rsquo and families rsquo coping strategies are primary goals of this book Developing research based clinical guidelines and increasing funding for research is also covered Ethical issues surrounding pain management and health policy implications are also explored Hurt Feelings Luciano L'Abate, 2011-09-26 Hurt feelings are universal and are present in human beings as well as in animals These feelings are usually avoided by human beings and overlooked by the scientific and professional mental health communities Yet if unresolved and not shared with loved ones and professionals they tend to fester in our bodies and effect our functioning If not expressed and shared with caring others anger sadness and fear are at the bottom of mental illness Developmentally each of these feelings respectively gives rise to antisocial acts depression and severe mental illness This book suggests that instead of traditional one on one face to face conversation based interventions distance writing will allow mental health professionals to assign interactive practice exercises specifically focused on hurt feelings The Hurting Parent Gregg Lewis, 2010-02-02 Christian parents are not exempt from the struggle and heartbreak caused by rebellious children This softcover version of the classic resource The Hurting Parent by Margie Lewis written with her son bestselling author Gregg Lewis for the first time offers the rest of the story that inspired the original edition of this book The Hurting Parent takes a realistic approach to the problems young people face today peer pressure easy access to drugs and alcohol and cultural influences that pull them from their family s faith The Lewises acknowledge there are no simple formulas or simple answers But the biblical insight emotional understanding and practical encouragement they offer will be life changing Written by a hurting parent for other hurting parents this book by ministering to hundreds of thousands of families over the past thirty years has earned a prominent spot not only on the personal bookshelves of countless parents and their family and friends but also on the professional shelves of pastors youth ministers and Christian counselors Feeling Pain and Being in Pain, second edition Nikola Grahek, 2011-12-16 An examination of the two most radical dissociation syndromes of the human pain experience pain without painfulness and painfulness without pain and what they reveal about the complex nature of pain and its sensory cognitive and behavioral components In Feeling Pain and Being in Pain Nikola Grahek examines two of the most radical dissociation syndromes to be found in human pain experience pain without painfulness and painfulness without pain Grahek shows that these two syndromes the complete dissociation of the sensory dimension of pain from its affective cognitive and behavioral components and its opposite the dissociation of pain's affective components from its sensory discriminative components inconceivable to most of us but documented by ample clinical evidence have much to teach us about the true nature and structure of human pain experience Grahek explains the crucial distinction between feeling pain and being in pain defending it on both conceptual and empirical grounds He argues that the two dissociative syndromes reveal the complexity of the human pain experience its major components the role they play in overall pain experience the way they work together and the basic neural structures and mechanisms that subserve them Feeling Pain and Being in Pain does not offer another philosophical theory of pain that conclusively supports or definitively refutes either subjectivist or objectivist assumptions in the philosophy of mind Instead Grahek calls for a less doctrinaire and more balanced approach to the study of mind brain

Matter and Sense Howard Robinson,1982-09-09 Robinson presents a very forceful critique of the modern forms that materialism has taken

Brilliancy A. H. Almaas, 2006-05-09 Intelligence is one of the defining characteristics of human beings an inherent ability to respond to the world with awareness knowledge learning and insight Most considerations of human intelligence are based on the notion that intelligence is a product of brain functioning A H Almaas introduces here a radically different viewpoint one that recognizes an actual quality of consciousness as the source of intelligence He calls this source the Brilliancy of our true nature The presentation of his understanding of intelligence is followed by in depth dialogues with his students on the various barriers to recognizing and embodying this essential quality In particular an unresolved relationship with one s father is found to shape the experience of Brilliancy Using a Socratic method that draws upon techniques of body centered Gestalt psychodynamic and cognitive psychologies Almaas helps participants work through their defenses and conflicts surrounding this issue and then diverging from pychotherapeutic practice guides them in discovering their own Brilliancy Discipline for Preschoolers Jane Nelsen, Cheryl Erwin, Roslyn Ann Duffy, Roslyn Duffy, 2007 Teaches parents and cargivers how to use kind and firm methods to raise children who are responsible respectful and resourceful Clinton Callahan, 2022-10-01 This book comprehensively details the path of feeling Once one has a long drink of the experience of feeling that Callahan writes about it will be difficult to quench one s thirst for it with less Timothy S Bennett writer artist and filmmaker An owner's manual for Sane Human Being Pretty soon you ll reclaim who you have always been who you came here to be deep and authentic feeling conscious life and a chance to play a part in the healing of our collective nightmare Malidoma Patrice Som PhD author healer African Shaman For modern seekers responding to the call for initiation into relationship here is an open invitation As with all true rites of passage there is no promise of safety along the way and the potential for transformation is boundless Sally Erickson artist psychotherapist community organizer and film producer This book is about feelings and the ways that we as individuals and as a culture have numbed ourselves against them It is about unleashing the possibility of using your conscious feelings to re shape your life around what really matters to you Conscious Feelings introduces readers to the concept of the personal numbness bar a measure set high by modern culture as a way of keeping everything cool under control and consequently out of touch This book provides the insight and the means for lowering that numbness bar You can feel more wisely and effectively the author asserts You can regain the intelligence and energy of your feelings so long denied and dressed up to appear acceptable Being cool Callahan states allows you to look the other way about schooling prescription drugs corporate wrongdoing corruption pollution injustice your life purpose your love life and your job and to accept the generic malaise that characterizes so many ordinary relationships The central framework of the book is built with the Ten Distinctions for Consciously Feeling including Learning the potent difference between thoughts and feelings Sorting out feelings based in the present from emotions based in the past on cultural or religious beliefs Experiencing how feelings are absolutely neutral energy and information neither good nor bad neither positive nor negative yet extremely useful in your adult life Each chapter is enriched with THOUGHTMAPS clear diagrams of ways you presently think and ways you could possibly think supported by an abundance of practical experiments t Not For Sale Osho, 2024-05-04 Remember God is not for sale so there is no way to purchase Him You cannot do anything on your own that will be of any help to attain to God All that you can do is not to stand in the way not to resist that s all that man can do to be absolutely relaxed deeply non resistant And this is what to me is prayer a state of let go Suffering David Bain, Michael Brady, Jennifer Corns, 2019-10-02 Suffering is a central component of our lives We suffer pain We fall ill We fail and are failed Our loved ones die It is a commonplace to think that suffering is always and everywhere bad But might suffering also be good If so in what ways might suffering have positive as well as negative value This important volume examines these questions and is the first comprehensive examination of suffering from a philosophical perspective An outstanding roster of international contributors explore the nature of suffering pain and valence as well as the value of suffering and the relationships between suffering morality and rationality Philosophy of Suffering Metaphysics Value and Normativity is essential reading for students and researchers in philosophy of mind philosophy of psychology cognitive and behavioral psychology as well as those in health and medicine researching conceptual issues regarding suffering and pain

Balls Ron Johnson, Deb Brock, 2025-01-14 Balls is a call to arms for men to be the best that they can be Being at their best starts with men being honest with themselves and then with the people in their lives Balls is about courage namely for men to courageously and honestly face the four challenges in their lives words women work and wine addictions. The authors describe how men can develop emotional maturity which then leads to maturity in all other aspects of life. The authors further suggest that the problems with anger avoidance and addiction that visibly trouble most men are based on a deep seated anxiety which itself is due to the fact that most men have not had direction and encouragement to face the multitude of challenges and responsibilities that they face in life. This book is a blend of psychological theory and research and the authors combined one hundred years of psychotherapy practice leading to practical suggestions for men to find courage in their lives balls.

The Road to Freedom John W. Morin, Jill S. Levenson, 2002 A workbook for sex offenders incorporating the latest developments in relapse prevention training It features the four path R P model and invites offenders in an easy to read style to examine their own approach to offending addressing the high risk factors that trigger and maintain that approach This book looks beyond the cognitive and behavioral linchpins of offending to the powerful emotional needs that energize deviant sex The authors believe that only by learning to meet these needs in healthy ways can offenders attain the positive reinforcements that lead to maintaining important lifestyle changes Newly added sections address the role of polygraphy in sex offender treatment and the role of the Internet in sexual compulsivity
