Movement launched an era of turmoil and transformation in China as Western ideas and education encroached on the Confucian traditions at the root of Chinese society. The Republican period 1919-49 witnessed an outpouring of poetry in a form and style new to China written in the common people's language baihua plain speech. The New Poetry broke with the centuries-old tradition of classical poetry and its intricate forms, and the rise of China's modern poetry reflects the rise of modern China. The Flowering of Modern Chinese Poetry presents English translations of over 250 poems by fifty poets including a rich selection of poetry by women writers to provide a nuanced picture of the rapid development of vernacular verse in China from its emergence during the May Fourth Movement through the years of the Japanese invasion to the Communist victory in the Civil War in 1949. Michel Hockx introduces the historical and literary contexts of the various schools of vernacular poetry that developed throughout the period: the pioneers, formalists, symbolists, peasants and soldiers, poets and Shanghai poets of the late 1940s. Each selection of verse begins with a biographical sketch of the author's life and literary career, including their roles in the Civil War and Japanese occupation. Introducing English readers to master poets who are virtually unknown to Western audiences, this anthology presents a collection of verse written in an age of struggle that attests to the courage, sensitivity and imagination of the Chinese people. Reading Du Fu Xiaofei Tian, 2020-06-23 This is the first collection of essays in English contributed by well-known experts of Chinese literature as well as scholars of a younger generation dedicated to the poetry of Du Fu, commonly regarded as the greatest Chinese poet. These essays are engaged in historically nuanced close reading of Du Fu's poems, both canonical and less known, from new angles and in various contexts, and discuss a series of critical issues including the local and the imperial, the body politic and the individual body, poetry and geography, perspectives on the complicated relation of religion and literature, materiality and contemporary reception of Du Fu poetry and visual art and tradition and modernity. Many of the poems discussed in this book were written in the backwater town of Kuizhou, far from Du Fu's earlier residence in the capital city Chang'an, at a time when the Tang dynasty was going through devastating social and political disturbances. The authors contend that Du Fu's isolation from the elite literary establishments allowed him to become a pioneer who introduced a new order to the Chinese poetic discourse. However, his attention to details in everyday reality, his preoccupation with domestic life and the larger issues embroiled in it, his humor and his ability to surprise tend to be obscured by the clichéd image of the poet-sage and poet-historian. This collection of essays successfully complicates the scholarship that went into this collection of essays, which is extremely solid and fills an important gap in the study of China's greatest poet, Du Fu. The convincing and compelling collection of articles from distinguished scholars rereads Du Fu from fresh and different perspectives and informs the reader about the amazing power of intertextuality. Kang I Sun, Chang Yale University. This rich and multilayered collection of essays about Du Fu, all written by major scholars, presents research of the highest quality and originality that succeeds most impressively in enriching and deepening our knowledge and appreciation of this great poet This volume has the potential to engender a new stage of Du Fu studies Antje Richter University of Colorado Boulder Readings in Chinese Literary Thought Stephen Owen, 2020-10-26 This dual language compilation of seven complete major works and many shorter pieces from the Confucian period through the Ching dynasty will be indispensable to students of Chinese literature Stephen Owen's masterful translations and commentaries have opened up Chinese literary thought to theorists and scholars of other languages Chinese Poetic Modernisms Paul Manfredi, Christopher Lupke, 2019-05-15 This volume of fourteen essays explores Chinese poetic modernism in all its facets from its origins in the 1920s through 21st century manifestations Modernisms in the plural reflects the complexity of the ideas and forms which can be associated with this literary historical term The volume's contributors take a variety of focus points from literary groups such as 9 Leaves or Bamboo Hat to individuals such as modernist sonneteer Feng Zhi or Taiwan experimentalist Xia Yu Hsia Y and Hong Kong modernist Leung Ping kwan to non biographically oriented chapters concerning modernist language poetry and visual art among other issues Collectively the volume endeavors to present as complete a picture of modernist practice in Chinese poetry as possible The Shape of Feng John Wain, 1972 science fiction Wu Ming yi s environmental fiction and Zhang Chengzhi s historical narratives This book provides valuable insights for scholars and students looking to understand how Chinese literature conceptualizes the relationship between humanity and nature as well as our role and position within the natural realm A Master of His Own Uta Lauer,2002 The Chinese Chan jap Zen abbot Zhongfeng Mingben of the Yuan Dynasty forged a synthesis of buddhist sutra writing and draft cursive zhang cao script in his calligraphy This highly idiosyncratic new style of calligraphy prompted innovative trends in Ming Dynasty China and transmitted current Chinese artistic developments to Japan where it had a major impact on Zen and tea circles The Literature and Cultural Ecology of Imperial Examinations in the Ming Dynasty Wenxin

Chen,2023-10-03 The book examines the relationship between imperial examinations and literature from the perspective of restoring the cultural ecology of imperial examinations in Ming China breaking through the paradigm of pure literature research This book presents an important practice in adjusting the pattern of literary research The contents of this book include five mutually independent but supportive parts 1 the living conditions and careers of the literary attendants 2 the educational background and school s consciousness of the Ming literati 3 top candidates and Ming literature 4 genres of imperial examination and the Ming society 5 exam cheating cases from the perspective of politics and literature This book will appeal to readers interested in Chinese literature and culture and the imperial examination system in ancient China

Voices in Revolution John A. Crespi,2009-07-29 China s century of revolutionary change has been heard as much as seen and nowhere is this more evident than in an auditory history of the modern Chinese poem From Lu Xun s seminal writings on literature to a recitation renaissance in urban centers today poetics meets politics in the sounding voice of poetry Supported throughout by vivid narration and accessible analysis Voices in Revolution offers a literary history of modern China that makes the case for the importance of the auditory dimension of poetry in national revolutionary and postsocialist culture Crespi brings the past to life by first examining the ideological changes to poetic voice during China s early twentieth century transition from empire to nation He then traces the emergence of the spoken poem from the May Fourth period to the present including its mobilization during the Anti Japanese War its incorporation into the student protest repertoire during China s civil war its role as a conflicted voice of Mao era revolutionary passion and finally its current adaptation to the cultural life of China s party guided market economy Voices in Revolution alters the way we read by moving poems off the page and into the real time and space of literary activity To all readers it offers an accessible yet conceptually fresh and often dramatic narration of China s modern literary experience Specialists will appreciate the book s inclusion of noncanonical texts as well as its innovative interdisciplinary approach Illusory Abiding Natasha Heller,2020-05-11 A groundbreaking monograph on Yuan dynasty Buddhism Illusory Abiding offers a cultural history of Buddhism through a case study of the eminent Chan master Zhongfeng Mingben Natasha Heller demonstrates that Mingben and other monks of his stature developed a range of cultural competencies through which they navigated social and intellectual relationships They mastered repertoires internal to their tradition for example guidelines for monastic life as well as those that allowed them to interact with broader elite audiences such as the ability to compose verses on plum blossoms These cultural exchanges took place within local religious and social networks and at the same time they comprised some of the very forces that formed these networks in the first place This monograph contributes to a more robust account of Chinese Buddhism in late imperial China and demonstrates the importance of situating monks as actors within broader sociocultural fields of practice and exchange

Wang Kuo-wei's Jen-chien Tz'u-hua A.A. Rickett, 1977-09-01 In the first decade of the twentieth century while other intellectuals were concerned with translating works of political and scientific import into Chinese Wang Kuo wei 1877 1927 looked to Western philosophy to find answers to the fundamental questions of human life He was the first Chinese to translate Schopenhauer and Nietzsche into Chinese and to apply their views of aesthetics to Chinese literature The influence of their concepts of genius and the sublime can easily be seen in his Jen chien tz u hua Wang was also indebted to Chinese critics for the development of his theories regarding the sphere of individuality that each poem represents ching chieh a theory that places him among the ranks of China's greatest literary critics Innovative as he was in his concepts of poetry however Wang chose to convey those concepts in the traditional form of poetic criticism the tz u hua or talks on poetry Thus this translation of the complete edition of his Jen chien tz u hua not only adds to the Westerner's knowledge of Chinese literary criticism but also provides insight into the way in which Chinese communicated with each other about their literature

The Lyrical in Epic Time David Der-wei Wang, 2015-01-20 In this book David Der wei Wang uses the lyrical to rethink the dynamics of Chinese modernity Although the form may seem unusual for representing China's social and political crises in the mid twentieth century Wang contends that national cataclysm and mass movements intensified Chinese lyricism in extraordinary ways Wang calls attention to the form's vigor and variety at an unlikely juncture in Chinese history and the precarious consequences it brought about betrayal self abjuration suicide and silence Despite their divergent backgrounds and commitments the writers artists and intellectuals discussed in this book all took lyricism as a way to explore selfhood in relation to solidarity the role of the artist in history and the potential for poetry to illuminate crisis They experimented with poetry fiction film intellectual treatise political manifesto painting calligraphy and music Western critics Wang shows also used lyricism to critique their perilous epic time He reads Martin Heidegger Theodor Adorno Cleanth Brooks and Paul de Man among others to complete his portrait The Chinese case only further intensifies the permeable nature of lyrical discourse forcing us to reengage with the dominant role of revolution and enlightenment in shaping Chinese and global modernity Wang's remarkable survey reestablishes Chinese lyricism's deep roots in its own native traditions along with Western influences and realizes the relevance of such a lyrical calling of the past century to our time
