Historical Monuments and Their Protection in Hungary Dezső Dercsényi, 1984-01-01 Historical Monuments in Hungary László Gerő, 1902 Architectural Conservation in Europe and the Americas John H. Stubbs, Emily G. Makaš, 2011-05-04 From such well known and long vexed sites as the Athenian Acropolis to more contemporary locales like the Space Age Modernist capital city of Brasilia the conflicting and not always neatly resolvable forces that bear upon preservation are addressed as clearly and thoughtfully as the general reader could hope for New York Review of Books an astonishing feat of research compilation and synthesis Context The book delivers the first major survey concerning the conservation of cultural heritage in both Europe and the Americas Architectural Conservation in Europe and the Americas serves as a convenient resource for professionals students and anyone interested in the field Following the acclaimed Time Honored this book presents contemporary practice on a country by country and region by region basis facilitating comparative analysis of similarities and differences The book stresses solutions in architectural heritage protection and the contexts in which they were developed Historical Monuments and Their Protection in Hungary Corvina Kiadó, 1984

Historical Monuments in Hungary: Restoration and Preservation Dezső Dercsényi, 1969 The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture The Conservation Movement Miles Glendinning, 2013 Shortlisted for the 2014 SAHGB Alice Davis Hitchcock Medallion Certainly ancient structures have long been treated with care and reverence in many societies including classical Rome and Greece But only in modern Europe and America in the last two centuries has this care been elaborated and energised into a forceful dynamic ideology a Conservation Movement infused with a sense of historical destiny and loss that paradoxically shared many of the characteristics of Enlightenment modernity Miles Glendinning's new book authoritatively presents for the first time the entire history of architectural conservation and traces its dramatic fluctuations in ideas and popularity ending by questioning whether its recent international ascendancy can last indefinitely The Architecture of Historic Hungary Pál Lővei, 1998 The first comprehensive survey in English of Hungarian architecture from prehistoric settlements to contemporary experiments Perhaps most revealing to Western readers are the illustrations and line drawings which document one of the most neglected but fascinating architectural traditions of Europe 305 illustrations 12 in color Hungary, 1988 The Care of Ancient Monuments Gerard Baldwin Brown, 1905 The History of the Turkish Wars in Hungary, ... and Other Provinces of the German Empire, from ... 1432 to ... 1664. To which is Prefixed a Short Discourse of the State and Government of the Said Provinces Turkey, 1664 Heritage,

Ideology, and Identity in Central and Eastern Europe Matthew Rampley, 2012 Essays looking at heritage practices and the construction of the past along with how they can be used to build a national identity The preservation of architectural monuments has played a key role in the formation of national identities from the nineteenth century to the present The task of maintaining the collective memories and ideas of a shared heritage often focused on the historic built environment as the most visible sign of a link with the past The meaning of such monuments and sites has however often been the subject of keen dispute whose heritage is being commemorated by whom and for whom The answers to such questions are not always straightforward particularly in Central and Eastern Europe the recent history of which has been characterized by territorial disputes the large scale movement of peoples and cultural dispossession This volume considers the dilemmas presented by the recent and complex histories of European states such as Germany Greece Poland Hungary Romania and Bulgaria Examining the effect of the destruction of buildings by war the loss of territories or the unwanted built heritage of the Communist and Nazi regimes the contributors examine how architectural and urban sites have been created destroyed or transformed in the attempt to make visible a national heritage Matthew Rampley is Professor of History of Art at the University of Birmingham Contributors Matthew Rampley Juliet Kinchin Paul Stirton Susanne Jaeger Arnold Bartetzky Jacek Friedrich Tania Vladova George Karatzas Riitta Oittinen

Approaches to the Archaeological Heritage Henry Cleere, 1984-08-16 This book undertakes a comparative study of the history and development of legislative and administrative systems in operation today for the protection of archaeological monuments With the exception of Scandinavia and the United Kingdom no country adopted a positive policy towards the protection and conservation of its archaeological and historical heritage until the twentieth century Moreover it was not until the middle of that century under the threat of wholesale devastation from extensive schemes for social and economic development that the accelerating disappearance of the sites and monuments of Antiquity became the object of intensive study and legislation Since then systems of cultural resource management have developed throughout the world A range of countries from Europe America Asia and Africa representing a diversity of political and ideological systems capitalist socialist and ex colonial have been selected as being broadly representative of the variety of these systems The case studies have been written by distinguished archaeologists and provide critical evaluations of the objectives and shortcomings of these systems

Manufacturing Middle Ages, 2013-08-22 Across the nineteenth century European history philology archaeology art and architecture turned from a common classical vocabulary and ideology to images of pasts and origins drawn primarily from the Middle Ages The result was a paradox as scholars and artists schooled in the same pan European vocabularies and methodologies nevertheless sought to discover through them unique and frequently oppositional national identities These essays edited by Patrick J Geary and Gbor Klaniczay focus on this all European phenomenon with a special focus on Scandinavia and East Central Europe bearing witness to the inextricable links between cultural and scientific engagement the search for national identity and political
