and the mood of pain shadow and despondency that characterises his later verse draws its strength from his experience of the long lonely years of her senility One surprising element in the volume however is the joie de vivre shown in the large number of witty and engaging drawings of himself and Eva as Young Creature and Old Creature with which he enlivens his letters throughout the three decades of her widowhood This important edition meticulously edited by Larkin's biographer James Booth is a key piece of scholarship that completes the portrait of this most cherished of English poets Allen Peck's WWI Letters Home 1917-1919 Charles E Peck, 2005 Allen Peck's WW I Letters Home tell of his patriotic volunteer service for the brand new U S Army Air Service to fight for his country Allen's American group was sent to France to be trained by and to fly with a French escadrille The airplanes were small flimsy and slow with open cockpits and no heat No oxygen masks For young pilots these were exciting challenging and for some fatal months Allen survived plane crashes enemy planes shooting bullets through his cockpit and enemy ground fire A Croix de Guerre was earned for downing a German But the trauma was great After Armistice he wrote of the tragic toll on his original gang Twelve of us reached the front seven gone three wounded one unheard from and I was untouched After November 11 his letters tell of experiences at a French university of adventures at the American Embassy in London and of helping with Inter Allied Games He fell in love with and married a young French girl When his two year enlistment was up Allen chose at first to stay in Paris But after five months he headed back home to America with his new wife Marguerite 65 names of individuals with whom he flew or interacted are indexed Letters Home from Spain, Algeria and Brazil, During Past Entomological Rambles Clark, 1867
