Feet To The Fire:

Feet to the Fire Kathy Gardarian, 2018-03-09 The year was 1983 and a fateful trip to the hardware store changed the course of author Kathy Gardarian's life not to mention the shape of her soul Because of a faulty nozzle a woman who barely owned a hammer became CEO of a prosperous worldwide distribution and supply company whose main client Home Depot became a successful mecca of the tool belt crowd In Feet to the Fire Gardarian narrates her story This memoir tells a transformational tale about a woman who learned to find her soul while climbing the ladder of success Gardarian shares her lifelong business challenge to be a capable woman who proved her personal drive could create a highly successful company using openhearted love as her motivational tool She sought to defy the traditional male business influences who informed her she couldn't succeed without a man Feet to the Fire tells how she learned to be brave how to hold her feet to the fire and how to invite deep change while tolerating acute discomfort She had to keep her dreams and ambition alive in a world where strong women were often viewed with suspicion She had to practice patience Most of all she had to maintain faith and trust in the process until she reached a place not only of professional success but of spiritual abundance Using the tools of humility humor and wisdom Gardarian offers an alternate path to prosperity using feminine principals Feet to the Fire Lorraine A. as an Associated Press reporter in Vietnam was CNN's star war correspondent during the first Gulf War and became a lightning rod while reporting on the second Gulf War. As an oral account of the current era of crisis as a deeper and far more insightful view of this nation's most accomplished messengers and the landscape in which they operate. Feet to the Fire is nothing short of a tour de force. Interview subjects include Ted Koppel, Helen Thomas, Tom Curley, President, CEO, Associated Press, Peter Arnett, Paul Krugman, New York Times, Barton Gellman, and Walter Pincus, Washington Post, Deborah Amos, NPR war correspondent, Jon Alpert, independent producer, cameraman, John MacArthur, Tom Yelling, executive producer for Peter Jennings, Chris Hedges, and James Bamford, National Security reporter. Feet to the Fire Ken Conboy, James Morrison, 2018-09-15. Today the vast archipelago of Southeast Asia islands known as Indonesia is in the headlines because of political instability, religious tension, and violence in the streets. Forty years ago, similar conditions led the Central Intelligence Agency to mount a top secret covert action campaign designed to hold that nation's left-leaning President Sukarno's feet to the fire and prevent a strategic crossroad from falling into the communist camp. The Agency supported rebels with weapons, planes, and a memorable cast of bigger-than-life American agents. In a fast-paced engrossing narrative evoking the novels of John LeCarré and Graham Greene, the authors provide the first unclassified detailed case study of an operation that has escaped public scrutiny for decades. Their work adds significantly to our understanding of the CIA and American involvement in Asia. Drawing on declassified documents and an extraordinary number of interviews with CIA and Indonesian participants, Kenneth Conboy and James Morrison reconstruct the delicate dangerous game played by American intelligence agents across the Indonesian archipelago. This is a story of ideologues and soldiers of fortune, historic CIA legends like Allen Dulles and Franklin Wisner, and notorious special operators like Tony Poe Poshepny, whose reputation reached mythic proportions later in Laos, and Allen Pope, an indefatigable B-26 pilot who was captured and sentenced to die. But it also includes the transfixing exploits of Montana smokejumpers, Polish aircrews, Muslim anti-communist guerrillas, U.S. Navy submarine crews, and Filipino mercenary pilots flying P-51 Mustangs. With the problems in today's Indonesia far from solved and the complex U.S.-Indonesian relationship coming under close scrutiny, this fascinating account of an American covert operation gone bad will play a significant role in shedding new light on the CIA's efforts in Southeast Asia. Proceedings of the Fourth National Conference on Fire and Forest Meteorology, St. Louis, Missouri, November 16-18, 1976, 1977. Proceedings of the annual meeting of the Fire Underwriters' Association of the Pacific, Fire Underwriters' Association of the Pacific, 1927.
