Castile for new readers including Isabel the Catholic and Juana the Mad and in sixteenth century Portugal for new patronesses Juana's daughter Catalina of Habsburg and Catalina's daughter Maria Manuela first wife of Philip II. Chariots of Ladies casts light on a neglected dimension of encounter and exchange in Iberia from the late fourteenth to the mid sixteenth centuries. Espana En La Busqueda de Su Destino Howard Headworth, 2014-08-15 It is two years after the entry in Granada by the Christians in 1492. In this brilliant sequel to his first historical novel Al Andalus His last years Howard Headworth elaborates a rich mix of personal drama and historical detail and presents a magnificent sense of the place. Including the military campaigns of the great captain in Italy against the French the wedding of the Infanta Jeanne in Flanders with Philip the Beautiful the scandals of the Borgias in Rome and The Adventures of Christopher Columbus in the Indies in search of gold the Catholic Monarchs seek to forge the future grandeur and destiny of Spain. Howard Headworth lives in Almeria Spain for twenty years. He was born in Wales and studied geology at the university there and at the Imperial College in London. He uses his great experience as a scientific director as well as his passion for the history of his adopted country in this historical novel. Carajicomedia Frank Domínguez, 2015 A study and edition of one of the most ignored works of early Spanish literature because of its strong sexual content this work examines the social ideology that conditioned the reactions of people to the events it describes as well as Fernando de Rojas's masterpiece Celestina. A Companion to Early Modern Hispanic Theater Hilaire Kallendorf, 2014-02-20 A panoramic state of the art handbook destined to chart a course for future work in the field of early modern Hispanic theater studies. It begins in the closet with an essay on Celestina as closet drama and moves out into the court to explore intersections with courtly love. An essay on the comedia and the classics demonstrates this genre's firm grounding in the classical tradition despite Lope de Vega's famous protestations to the contrary. Distinct but related genres such as the autos sacramentales and the entremeses also make an appearance. The traditional themes of honor and wife murder share the stage with less familiar topics like the incorporation of animals into performance. This volume covers the urban space of the city in Spain and Portugal as well as uncharted territories in the New World and Japan. Essays on emblems and the picaresque round out this anthology along with studies of theatrical representations of early modern innovations in science and technology. The book concludes with two different psychoanalytical approaches focused on melancholy and Lacanian tragedy respectively. This collection incorporates the work of younger scholars along with established names in the field to synthesize the most exciting recent work on the comedia and related forms of early modern Hispanic theatrical production. Contributors include Ignacio Arellano Frederick de Armas Henry Sullivan Edward Friedman A Robert Lauer Manuel Delgado Adrienne Mart n Enrique Garc a Santo Tom s Matthew Stroud Teresa Scott Soufas Enrique Fernandez Mar a Mercedes Carri n Robert Bayliss Ted Bergman Cory Reed Maryrica Lottman Christina Lee and Enrique Duarte.
