Technology and Identity in Young Adult Fiction V. Flanagan, 2014-12-16 Technology and Identity in Young Adult Fiction is not a historical study or a survey of narrative plots but takes a more conceptual approach that engages with the central ideas of posthumanism the fragmented nature of posthuman identity the concept of agency as distributed and collective and the role of embodiment in understandings of selfhood Apocalypse in Australian Fiction and Film Roslyn Weaver, 2014-01-10 Australia has been a frequent choice of location for narratives about the end of the world in science fiction and speculative works ranging from pre colonial apocalyptic maps to key literary works from the last fifty years This critical work explores the role of Australia in both apocalyptic literature and film Works and genres covered include Nevil Shute's popular novel On the Beach Mad Max children's literature Indigenous writing and cyberpunk The text examines ways in which apocalypse is used to undermine complacency foretell environmental disasters critique colonization and to serve as a means of protest for minority groups Australian apocalypse imagines Australia at the ends of the world geographically and psychologically but also proposes spaces of hope for the future The Music of Razors Cameron Rogers, 2007-05-01 Dark disturbing and filled with moments of real charm and magic The Music of Razors is the best first novel I've seen this year Locus In nineteenth century Boston a young doctor on the run from the law falls in with a British confidence artist Together and with dire consequences they bring back to the light something meant to be forgotten A world away in London an absent father haunted by the voice of a banished angel presents his daughter with an impossible friend a clockwork ballerina For two centuries a bullet removal specialist has wielded instruments of angel bone in service to a forgotten power and now he

Bush, City, Cyberspace John

Foster,Ern Finnis,Maureen Nimon,2005-06-01 Aimed at academic professional and general readers Bush city cyberspace provides a snapshot of the state of Australian children s and adolescent literature in the early twenty first century and an insight into its history In doing so it promotes a sense of where Australian literature for young people may be going and captures a literary and critical mood with which readers in Australia and beyond will identify The title of the work is intended to capture the fact that the field has changed dramatically in the century and a half that Australian children s literature has existed from the bush myths and heroism that inform the past and the present through the recognition that the vast majority of authors and readers live in cities to the third wave of cyberliterature that incorporates multimedia hypertext weblinks and e books none of which lessens the enduring enthusiasm of practitioners and readers for books Bush city cyberspace is not meant to be an encyclopedic volume Rather well known recent and or award winning works have been emphasised with the addition of others where these help to illuminate particular points The book is similar in coverage and approach to Australian Children s Literature An Exploration of Genre and Theme written by the same three authors and published by the Centre for Information Studies in 1995 In the intervening period much has changed in the field notable examples including the blurring of the dividing line between quality and popular literature the blending of genres the rise of a truly indigenous literature the demise to a significant extent of Outbackery in fiction the acceptance of multiculturalism as the norm and the advent of the literature of cyberspace with new methods and the sheer speed of communication between writer and reader All these trends and others are reflected in this work Australian Book Review ,2000 The Writers Directory ,2013 The Big Issue, Cape Town ,2000 English in Australia ,2001 Blaisdell Papers ,1961 Make it Modern Brandon Taylor,2022-01-01 A fascinating journey through Western art from the 1910s to the 1960s charting how artists wrestled with the headlong changes of a turbulent and conflict ridden world From the chaos of the First World War to the ravages of the Second from the Great Depression to the rise of consumer culture artists we call modern faced the challenge of responding imaginatively to utterly new circumstances of life Original thought startling artistic techniques and new attitudes to experimentation were required to produce exceptional and timely work Make It Modern guides the reader through the art of the modern world Works of celebrated artists from Pablo Picasso and Wassily Kandinsky to Frida Kahlo Jackson Pollock and Yayoi Kusama alongside a panoply of undervalued or less known figures populate this decade by decade narrative Make It Modern tells an unforgettable story of how art was changed forever Angel's Directory of Personnel Managers ,1956 Ferren and the Domsday Mission Richard Harland,2024-05-27 An angel falls from the sky and crashes to the ground Miriael the Fourteenth Angel of Observance has been shot down in the thousand year war between Heaven and Earth Damaged and helpless she prays for extinction The young tribesman Ferren finds her lying in the grass She ought to be an enemy since his people are on the side of the Earth But seeing her there unable to fly his curiosity outweighs every rule and every warning Ferren knows almost nothing about the terrifying world he s grown up in Now he s going to learn the truth about the war the Humen army camp and what military service really means His unique friendship with Miriael is about to change the course of history Richard Harland author of the Worldshaker books creates a whole new world of angels and apocalypse Phallic Frenzy Joseph Lanza,2007-08-01 Ken Russell has made some of the most daring disturbing and beautifully photographed films of all time Drawing from a wealth of historic and literary references Russell s subjects are astounding deranged Ursuline nuns in a 17th century French province the inner demons of Mary Shelley and Lord Byron the sexual angst of Tchaikovsky the emotionally drained life of Rudolph Valentino the messianism of a pinball wizard the fury of lesbian vampires the introspections of prostitutes Russell s movies offer not just brazen sensationalism but food for thought they horrify yet
