Murray, 1910 Proceedings of the ... Annual Meeting of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin State Historical Society of Wisconsin. Meeting, 1916 The History of Israel's Traditions Steven L. McKenzie, M. Patrick Graham, 1994-11-01 In 1943 the famous Old Testament scholar Martin Noth published his monograph berlieferungsgeschichtliche Studien in which he established the hypothesis of a Deuteronomistic History and gave his treatment of the Chronicler's History. It quickly became one of the classics in the field and is probably Noth's most enduring legacy. This book brings together essays from an international symposium of scholars celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of Noth's important volume and reviewing his other contributions to Old Testament study. Part I discusses Noth's life and work. Christopher Begg his view of the Deuteronomistic History. Antony Campbell and the Chronicler's History. Roddy Braun his contributions to the history of Israel. Thomas Thompson tradition criticism. Rolf Rendtorff and Old Testament theology. Timo Veijola as well as reflections on Noth's impact on current and future study. David Noel Freedman. Walter Dietrich. Part II analyses the scholarship over the past fifty years on each book in the Deuteronomistic History. Deuteronomy. Thomas Romer. Joshua. Brian Peckham. Judges. Mark O'Brien. 1 & 2 Samuel. P. The problem of how to understand dangerousness often centres on the role of the mental health and criminal justice systems and it is from the intersection of these two institutions that the categorisation

of dangerous persons has emerged This 2001 book traces the history of the category of antisocial personality disorder and shows how it is linked to particular kinds of governing It examines key legal and institutional developments in Australia the UK and the US and also parallel developments within psychiatry and psychological medicine Applying a social theoretical analysis to this material McCallum challenges our assumptions about the formation and control concepts of dangerousness and personality Insanity, identity and empire Catharine Coleborne, 2015-10-01 This book examines the formation of colonial social identities inside the institutions for the insane in Australia and New Zealand Taking a large sample of patient records it pays particular attention to gender ethnicity and class as categories of analysis reminding us of the varied journeys of immigrants to the colonies and of how and where they stopped for different reasons inside the social institutions of the period It is about their stories of mobility how these were told and produced inside institutions for the insane and how in the telling colonial identities were asserted and formed Having engaged with the structural imperatives of empire and with the varied imperial meanings of gender sexuality and medicine historians have considered the movements of travellers migrants military bodies and medical personnel and transnational lives This book examines an empire wide discourse of madness as part of this inquiry

Writing Time Sean Franzel, 2023-11-15 Cowinner of the Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Studies in Germanic Languages and Literatures Writing Time shows how serial literature based in journals and anthologies shaped the awareness of time at a transformative moment in the European literary and political landscapes Sean Franzel explores how German speaking authors and editors write time both by writing about time and by mapping time itself through specific literary formats Through case studies of such writers as F J Bertuch K A B ttinger J W Goethe Ludwig B rne and Heinrich

Heine Franzel analyzes how serial writing predicated on open ended continuation becomes a privileged mode of social commentary and literary entertainment and provides readers with an ongoing history of the present or Zeitgeschichte Drawing from media theory and periodical studies as well as from Reinhart Koselleck s work on processes of temporalization and untimely models of historical time Writing Time presents smaller literary forms the urban tableau cultural reportage and caricature as new ways of imagining temporal unfolding recentring periodicals and other serial forms at the heart of nineteenth century print culture

'Every Mother's Son is Guilty' Chris Owen, 2016 This is a marvellous contribution by Chris Owen to the understanding of the role the Western Australian police force played in the colonial expansion into the Kimberley district of Western Australia Senator Patrick Dodson Yawuru Elder Chris Owen provides a compelling account of policing in the Kimberley district from 1882 when police were established in the district until 1905 when Dr Walter Roth s controversial Royal Commission into the treatment of Aboriginal people was released Owen s achievement is to take elements of all the pre existing historiography and test them against a rigorous archival investigation In doing so a fuller understanding of the complex social economic and political changes occurring in Western Australia during the period are exposed The policing of Aboriginal people changed from one of protection under law to one of punishment and control The subsequent violence of colonial settlement and the associated policing and criminal justice system that developed often of questionable legality was what Royal Commissioner Roth termed a brutal and outrageous state of affairs Every Mother s Son is Guilty is a significant contribution to Australian and colonial criminal justice history Subject History Aboriginal Studies Criminal Justice policing
