History Of Hathersage:

Hathersage in the Peak Barbara A. Buxton, 2005 Hathersage is hidden in the Dark Peak which once formed a frontier for pre Roman tribes and Saxon kingdoms Bronze Age families settled on the Hathersage hillsides medieval lords cherished the forests of the Derwent valley and monastic houses made their granges on the moors which would later be crossed by dry stone walls This well researched and entertainingly written book examines Hathersage s romanticised link with Robin Hood s Little John and tells of the legendary and lawless Eyres of Padley Men from Hathersage fought at Agincourt and against the Spanish Armada In the 19th century Hathersage developed as a mill village owing to demand for its wire products in lead working and later became world famous for its wire hacklepins for dressing wool and flax and domestic needles Hathersage has been a sanctuary for Dunkirk survivors and victims of the Blitz Today people come for the village s beautiful landscape its church and the legends of its past Barbara Buxton s wide ranging and informative account enhanced by a collection of superb illustrations will have broad appeal well beyond the Peak District History, Gazetteer and Directory of the County of Derby, with the Town of Burton-upon-Trent, Staffordshire, Comprising a General Survey of the County White, Francis, & Co, 1857 History, Topography, and Directory of Derbyshire T.
