Usilton,2015-06-29 Excerpt from History of Kent County Maryland 1630 1916 The superintendent of the schools of Kent County Prof J L Smyth in his long experience as a teacher and in his present position feeling the great need of some historical data concerning our home county of Kent and its county town Chestertown requested the writer to compile this book which is here presented to the public It is hoped that it may at least be the foundation or incentive for someone to produce a book with other data discovered and other facts recovered from the dim ages of the past In the completion of this volume The History of Kent County Maryland we realized the enormity of the task when we began Impressed however with the great need of some record in book form of even a few of Kent's historical facts we have undertaken this work. It is based on a careful study of the means at hand and of persistent effort in exhuming facts contained in books, newspapers, and articles by various writers. Among the latter to whom we are indebted are Percy G. Skirven who contributed the chapter on the old Court House, Caulk's Field, and some P. E. Church history; Hanson's family history; Hon. James Alfred Pearce's files of the Kent News; Mrs. Harriett Hill Swepson Earle who furnished us six pictures of old homes and others whom we regard as authority on the subjects discussed.
