

Piles's Weekly Register is also an excellent repository of facts & documents and has the advantage of coming out weekly, whereas the other is yearly.

This will be handed you by Mr. Dicknor, a young gentleman of Boston, of high education, and great promise. after going thro' his studies here, he goes to Europe to finish them, and to see what is to be seen there. he brought me high recommendations from Mr. Adams and others, and from a stay of some days with me, I was persuaded he merited them, as he will that - your attentions you will be so good as to show him. I pray you to accept the assurance of my great esteem and respect.

Wm Lloyd Garrison

P. S. Feb. 26. On the day of the date of this letter the news of peace reached Washington, and this place two days after. I am glad of it, altho' no provision being made against the imprisonment of our seamen, it is in fact but an Armistice, to be terminated by the first act of imprisonment committed on an American citizen. it may be thought that useless blood was spilt at New Orleans, after the treaty of peace had been actually signed and ratified. I think it had many valuable uses. it proved the fidelity of the Orleansers to the U. S. It proved that New Orleans can be defended both by land & water; that the Western country will fly to its relief (of which ourselves had doubted before) that our militia are heroes when they have heroes to lead them on; and that when unembarrassed by field evolutions, which they do not understand, their skill in the fire-arm, and deadly aim, give them great advantages over regulars. What nonsense for the mammoth prince to talk of their conquest of the country East of the Perdido river! then, as in the revolutionary war, their conquests were never more than of the spot on which their army stood, never extended beyond the range of their cannon shot. if England is now wise or just enough to settle peacefully the question of
