Rakow, 2015-10-23 Originally published in 1992 This book captures the dynamic confluence of feminist and communication scholarship by setting out some of the provocative questions that mark this intersection Several of the essays in the book are theoretical in nature and consider the changing complexion of the field in view of this cross fertilization other contributors tackle those individual forms of communication that pose certain challenges for women such as verbal harassment and pornography The final section of the book more ethnographic in nature presents a number of case studies written primarily by women of colour which recount the various ways that communication forms such as television journalism and spoken discourse construct and perpetuate racist and sexist stereotypes Wisconsin Magazine of History Milo Milton Quaife, Joseph Schafer, Edward Porter Alexander, 1925 To Princess from Krug C. Declan Murphy isn't the sort of guy you want to cross. In the midst of his court-ordered community service at the local cemetery, he's trying to escape the demons of his past. When Declan reads a haunting letter left beside a grave, he can't resist writing back. Soon, he's opening up to a perfect stranger, and their connection is immediate. But neither Declan nor Juliet knows that they're not actually strangers. When life at school interferes with their secret life of letters, sparks will fly as Juliet and Declan discover truths that might tear them apart.
