THE LETTERS OF
RICHARD STEELE

SELECTED, WITH AN INTRODUCTION, BY
R. BRIMLEY JOHNSON

'Dear Dick Steele' was one of the great lovers of literature. His 'ill-spelt, unconsidered' letters to Prue, 'the lovely charmer,' are among the most intimate and charming love-letters in English. In an age when women were little respected, Steele was ever the chivalrous boy, revealing a loyal and unselfish devotion to his lady and, through her, to 'the beautiful sex.' His letters stand side by side with the immortal 'Journal to Stella' in the supreme merits of simplicity and sincerity. The letters in this volume have been now for the first time collated with the original MSS. in the British Museum.
