

Dear friend,

I know all of my religious posts may bother you sometimes, but one day you will realize that I did it because I cared. You see, God loves you so much and wants to have a personal relationship with you. Why you might ask? Because He created you my friend. I prefer you hated me for these posts than keeping it to myself just to obtain your favor.

A friend loved me enough to share the truth of God's love with me, even though I didn't want to hear it at the time, but Jesus touched and changed my heart and my life has never been the same again.

Jesus loves you, He loves you so much that He DIED for you on the cross so that you could be set free, be forgiven and enjoy eternal life. Thank you for reading this letter.

Love, Your Christian Friend

Letters from the East Malcolm Barber, Keith Bate, 2016-05-06 No written source is entirely without literary artifice but the letters sent from Asia Minor Syria and Palestine in the high middle ages come closest to recording the real feelings of those who lived in and visited the crusader states They are not of course reflective pieces but they do convey the immediacy of circumstances which were frequently dramatic and often life threatening Those settled in the East faced crises all the time while crusaders and pilgrims knew they were experiencing defining moments in their lives There are accounts of all the great events from the triumph of the capture of Jerusalem in 1099 to the disasters of Hattin in 1187 and the loss of Acre in 1291 These had an impact on the lives of all Latin Christians but at the same time individuals felt impelled to describe both their own personal achievements and disappointments and the wonders and horrors of what they had seen Moreover the representatives of the military and monastic orders used letters as a means of maintaining contact with the western houses providing information about the working of religious orders not found elsewhere Some of the letters translated here are famous others hardly known but all offer unique insight into the minds of those who took part in the crusading movement

The Day I Was Crucified Gene Edwards, 2011-07-28 Quite simply one of the most powerful moving pieces of Christian literature of modern times Other books have recorded the crucifixion and resurrection but never before has the reader been ushered into unseen realms to witness the power of the cross as seen from the view of God the Father You will discover a whole world of new meaning of Christ s death as you witness the destruction of the world systems the annihilation of the law the end of Adam s fallen race and the death of Death Here is an unequalled drama of power and depth which Christian literature has rarely if ever achieved Edward s The Day I Was Crucified As Told By Jesus the Christ now takes its place among the greatest of Christian literature We will still be reading this book 200 years from now and still weeping and praising as we read This is one of those rare life transforming books
