Letters To James Walsh:

Letters to James Walsh Frederick William Rolfe, 1972 Some Unpublished Letters of Lord Chesterfield Lord Chesterfield, 2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1937 Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Assembly, 1891 Accounts and Papers of the House of Commons Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1843 Writing the Icon of the Heart Maggie Ross, 2013-02-13 The subtitle of Maggie Ross's new book captures its essence for it is about silence and our need to behold God Beholding is a notion that we are in danger of losing It is often lost in translation even by the NRSV and the Jerusalem Bible Beholding needs to be recovered both in theology and practice Ross is very aware of poor talkative Christianity There is a twofold plea to enter into silence for lack of silence erodes our humanity and to behold the radiance of God This is a book full of deep questioning and the testing of our assumptions Throughout there is a great love for the world and for our humanity accompanied by sadness that we are so easily distracted We are invited into a silence that is not necessarily an absence of noise but is a limitless interior space Ancient texts are used in new and exciting ways and many of our worship practices are challenged She is in no doubt that the glory of the human being is the beholding of God adapted from a review in The Church Times London by Canon David Adam

Letter from the Secretary of War United States. War Department, 1889 Edinburgh Companion to Nineteenth-Century American Letters and Letter-Writing Celeste-Marie Bernier, 2016-02-15 Provides a wide ranging entry point and intervention into scholarship on nineteenth century American letter writing This comprehensive study by leading scholars in an important new field the history of letters and letter writing is essential reading for anyone interested in nineteenth century American politics history or literature Because of its mass literacy population mobility and extensive postal system nineteenth century America is a crucial site for the exploration of letters and their meanings whether they be written by presidents and statesmen scientists and philosophers novelists and poets feminists and reformers immigrants Native Americans or African Americans This book breaks new ground by mapping the voluminous correspondence of these figures and other important American writers and thinkers Rather than treating the letter as a spontaneous private document the contributors understand it as a self conscious artefact circulating between friends and strangers and across multiple genres in ways that both make and break social ties Key Features Draws together different emphases on the intellectual literary and social uses of letter writing Provides students and researchers with a means to situate letters in their wider theoretical and historical contexts Methodologically expansive intellectually interrogative chapters based on original research by leading academics Offers new insights into the lives and careers of Louisa May Alcott Charles Brockden Brown Emily Dickinson
