VIOLET LIGHTNING John Eric Vining,2020-11-13 An epic achievement over one hundred years in the making In December 1941 Japan had perhaps the greatest combination of land sea and air forces the world had ever seen and she used these to conquer a huge empire in the

Western Pacific and East Asia Yet by August 1945 Japan had been beaten to her knees by the combined power of China Great Britain and the United States Was this destruction inevitable Did Japan have no chance to defeat America and her allies Why would she think she could successfully battle the two greatest industrial powers the world had ever known Great Britain and the United States at the same time Violet Lightning A Blueprint for Japanese Victory in the Pacific 1941 1942 is a sweeping narrative over a century in the making From the first confrontation in 1895 between the United States and Japan over Hawaii to the massive Japanese defeats at Midway and Guadalcanal in 1942 to author John Eric Vining s first interest in the Japanese American conflict in the fall of 1967 by reading Carrier War in the Pacific to the fall of 1995 when Vining first put pen to paper on this project and finally to 2020 s finished product by Page Publishing Vining reviews a history of the acrimony between Japan and the United States in the first half of the Twentieth Century He then builds what one reviewer calls a chillingly believable scenario for a Japanese victory in the greatest of all wars Violet Lightning poses and answers the question Could Japan really have pulled it off You just might find yourself coming around to a point of view you didn t believe was possible
