The British and French Mandates in Comparative Perspectives/Les mandats français et anglais dans une perspective comparative Nadine Méouchy, Peter Sluglett, 2004-01-01 This collection represents the first large scale attempt to discuss the Middle Eastern mandates as a totality It compares the application and effects of this very specific form of late colonialism from a variety of different disciplinary perspectives including anthropology architecture archival conservation economics history law and sociology It contains analyses at both micro and macro levels including specific instances of revolt or collaboration studies of particular individuals of professional groups and their contributions to nation building comparisons between the various political and cultural policies of the mandatory powers and the formation and practice of le savoir colonial by contemporary ethnographers officials physicians and teachers The volume will be of interest to historians of imperialism and of the twentieth century Middle East

Arab Filmmakers of the Middle East Roy Armes, 2010-08-23 In this landmark dictionary Roy Armes details the scope and diversity of filmmaking across the Arab Middle East Listing more than 550 feature films by more than 250 filmmakers and short and documentary films by another 900 filmmakers this volume covers the film production in Iraq Jordan Lebanon Palestine Syria and the Gulf States An introduction by Armes locates film and filmmaking traditions in the region from early efforts in the silent era to state funded productions by isolated filmmakers and politically engaged documentarians Part 1 lists biographical information about the filmmakers and their feature films Part 2 details key feature films from the countries represented Part 3 indexes feature film titles in English and French with details about the director date and country of origin

Lords of the Lebanese Marches Michael Gilsenan, 1996-01-01 Michael Gilsenan looks at the relations between different forms of power violence and hierarchy in Akkar the northernmost province of Lebanon during the 1970s Often regarded as backward and feudal in reality this area was controlled primarily by groups with important roles in government and business in Beirut The most feudal landowners had often done most to introduce capitalist methods to their estates and backwardness was a condition produced by this form of political and social control Gilsenan uses material from his stay in Akkar and a variety of historical sources to analyze the practices that guaranteed the rule of the large landowners He traces shifts in power and he examines the importance of narratives and rhetoric in constituting social honor collective biography and shared memory forgetting His lively account shows how changes in hierarchy were expressed in ironic commentary regarding idealized masculinity and violence how subversive laughter and humor counterpointed the heroic ethic of challenge and revenge and how peasant narratives both countered and reproduced the values of hierarchy

The Shi'is of Jabal 'Amil and the New Lebanon T. Chalabi, 2006-02-06 Tamara Chalabi highlights the development of a politics of demand and the increased political activism of this community in a time of great change It also explores how Arab nationalism was transformed from an ideology of opposition and empowerment of marginal communities into a tool for the assertion of political domination
