Embodying The Word:

Divine Flesh, Embodied Word Anne-Claire Mulder, 2006 What has Luce Irigaray's statement that women need a God to do with her thoughts on the relation between body and mind or the sensible and the intelligible Using the theological notion incarnation as a hermeneutical key Anne Claire Mulder brings together and illuminates the interrelations between these different themes in Luce Irigaray's work Seesawing between Luce Irigaray's critique of philosophical discourse and her constructive philosophy Mulder elucidates Irigaray's thoughts on the relations between becoming woman and becoming divine She shows that Luce Irigaray's restaging of the relation between the sensible and the intelligible between flesh and Word is key to her reinterpretation of the relation between woman and God In and through her interpretation of Luce Irigaray's thoughts on the flesh she argues that the relation between flesh and Word must be seen as a dialectical one instead of as a dualistic relation This means that incarnation is no longer seen as a one way process of Word becoming flesh but as a continuing process of flesh becoming word and word becoming flesh For all images and thoughts including those of God are produced by the flesh divine in its creativity inexhaustibility in response to the touch of the other And these images thoughts words in turn become embodied by touching and moving the flesh of the subject

Sacraments of Initiation, Second Edition Liam G. Walsh OP, 2022-01-07 The original edition of this book presented a theology of sacraments that emerged out of a Church stirred into new life by the Second Vatican Council It is a theology that can claim to have been continuously received in the Catholic Church since then It is the theology that has been widely practiced and preached in pastoral life has been given catechetical shape in the Catechism of the Catholic Church However during the past 23 years some trends developed in pastoral theology and practice that were taking directions that seemed hard to reconcile with the decisions of the Council This new edition examines the way some theological counter currents have developed over those years both in theory and in practice The sacramental theology contained in this study maintains the broad on going agreement between what it proposes and mainstream Church teaching and practice The book examines the tradition of sacramental practice and teaching Biblical and historical studies continue to uncover new riches of the tradition and recent findings are discussed A careful listening to the tradition of rite and word is truly indispensable for sacramental theology It was out of such listening that Vatican II teaching on sacraments emerged and provision was made for recovering the full richness of the tradition Not all of the recent theological speculations and pastoral strategies given an equally serious acknowledgement to the tradition The liturgies that are studied in this book have been given to the Church in the wake of Vatican II The historical chapters will show the liturgies to be a contemporary expression of fidelity to core values of the Apostolic Tradition The chapters on the rite of each sacrament are mainly descriptive and historical but also include anthropological reflections that unveil the human significances of the various rites The chapters on the word examine the biblical and traditional word spoken in the churches about each sacrament and conclude with what is called a systematic

Writing for the Ear, Preaching from the Heart Donna Giver-Johnston, 2021 In Writing for the Ear Preaching from the Heart Donna Giver Johnston teaches preachers how to communicate effectively how to get away from their notes and make a more personal connection with their listeners Grounded in a theology of the incarnation she offers a step by step method for writing sermons with the fewest most impactful and memorable words and delivered by heart to communicate a message that captures the ears and hearts of listeners Unity, 1914

Preaching that Shows Margaret Cooling, 2022-04-25 For many years the resolution plot has dominated homiletical theory made most famous by the Lowry Loop a staple of preaching theory for today's ministry student Whilst the approach is important some have accused resolution plot of leaving little room for ambiguity and failing to reflect the messy reality of life Offering a ground breaking approach as a counter to well worn preaching strategies this book explores the revelatory plot focused more on the gradual revelation of relevant truths within the biblical text through character and embodied insight and through imaginative and sensory detail rather than through answering the questions how and why It will prove an invaluable resource for students homileticians and preachers alike Confronting Technology Matthew T. Prior, 2020-03-16 We are living through a digital revolution which already touches every area of life and will continue to shape the future in as yet unforeseen ways Digital technologies are an ordinary part of daily life and yet they also present an unprecedented challenge to Christians to articulate a biblical theological framework to navigate times of rapid change The work of the French theologian Jacques Ellul is a theological time bomb primed for times like these Accounts of Ellul's career often divide off his sociology and theology but this book argues that Ellul conceived a single project of bringing technology into confrontation with the Word of God tackling the phenomenon he named technique the pursuit of maximal power and efficiency implicit in the technological enterprise with a profound depth of biblical and ethical insight Centering himself on the apocalypse or revelation of Jesus Christ in history Ellul offers a monumental timely though far from flawless contribution to contemporary ethical debates about the uses and abuses of technologies His work blazes a trail that Christians and all concerned for the future would do well to follow as we avoid both the naivety of technological neutrality and the dread of technological determinism

Word Embodied Halle O'Neal, 2018 Halle O'Neal unpacks jeweled pagoda mandala paintings and their revolutionary entwining of word and image to reveal crucial dynamics underlying Japanese Buddhist art including invisibility performative viewing and the spectacular visualizations of embodiment In Other Words Stephen Mulhall, 2023-02-09 Stephen Mulhall explores how J M Coetzee's Jesus Trilogy engages with themes drawn from Wittgenstein's later philosophy and how Wittgenstein's and Coetzee's thought relates to the critique of modernity elaborated in the work of Nietzsche, Heidegger and Sartre. Proclaiming Holy Scriptures David H. Pereyra, 2020-12-30 This book provides a comprehensive study on the proclamation of Holy Scriptures as an enacted celebration as well as its function as a performance within sacralized theatrical spaces. Scripture is integral to religious life within Judaism, Christianity and Islam and these traditions have venerated the reading of texts from an appointed place as a sacred act. Thus the study of how these readings are conducted illuminates some vitally important aspects of this widespread act of worship. Contributing to an underexplored area of scholarship, the book offers an overview of scripture reading in the three Abrahamic faiths and then focuses on where and how the Word of God is presented within the Christian tradition. It gathers and summarizes research on the origins of a defined place for the proclamation of holy writings, giving a thorough architectural analysis and interpretation of the various uses and symbols related to these spaces over time. Finally, the listener is considered with a phenomenological description of the place for reading and its hermeneutical interpretation. The material in this book uncovers the contemporary impact of a rich history of publicly reading out scriptures. It will therefore be of great interest to scholars of liturgical theology, religious studies and ritual studies. Language, Discourse, and Translation in the West and Middle East Robert De Beaugrande, Abdulla Shunnaq, Mohamed Helmy Heliel, 1994 The papers collected in this volume are a selection of papers presented at a conference on Language and Translation, Irbid, Jordan, 1992. In their revised form, they offer comparisons between Western and Arabic language usage and transfer. The articles bring together linguistic and cultural aspects in translation in a functional discourse framework set out in Part One: Theory, Culture, Ideology. Part Two addresses aspects for comparisons among translations and their cultural contexts: equivalence, stylistics and paragraphing. Part Three features Arabic-English language contact, specifically in technical writing, the media and academia. Part Four deals with problems in lexicography and grammar terminology: verb-particle combinations and semantic diversity of radical doubling forms and includes a proposal for a new approach to English-Arabic dictionaries. Part Five turns to issues of interest to language teachers with practical proposals and demonstrations. Part Six deals with geopolitical factors linking the West and Middle East, focusing on equality in communication and exchange of information. Chance Discovery Yukio Ohsawa, Peter McBurney, 2013-03-09 Chance discovery means discovering chances, the breaking points in systems, the marketing windows in business etc. It involves determining the significance of some piece of information about an event and then using this new knowledge in decision making. The techniques developed combine data mining methods for finding rare but important events with knowledge management groupware and social psychology. The reader will find many applications such as finding information on the Internet, recognizing changes in customer behavior, detecting the first signs of an imminent earthquake etc. This first book dedicated to chance discovery covers the state of the art in the theory and methods and examines typical scenarios and it thus appeals to researchers working on new techniques and algorithms and also to professionals dealing with real world applications Heidegger and the Issue of Space Alejandro A. Vallega, 2010-11 As the only full length treatment in English of spatiality in Martin Heidegger's work this book makes an important contribution to Heidegger studies as well as to research on the history of philosophy More generally it advances our understanding of philosophy in terms of its exilic character a sense of alterity that becomes apparent when one fully engages the temporality or finitude essential to conceptual determinations By focusing on Heidegger's treatment of the classical difficulty of giving conceptual articulation to spatiality the author discusses how Heidegger's thought is caught up in and enacts the temporality it uncovers in Being and Time and in his later writings Ultimately when understood in this manner thought is an exilic experience a determination of being that in each case comes to pass in a loss of first principles and origins and simultaneously as an opening to conceptual figurations yet to come The discussion engages such main historical figures as Plato Aristotle Descartes Kant and indirectly Husserl as well as contemporary European and American Continental thought

Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1921 The Censored Pulpit Donyelle C. McCray, 2019-10-16 Few have consoled the church as ably as the fourteenth century mystic Julian of Norwich However her prophetic gifts have received little scholarly attention Drawing on contemporary homiletical theory and the history of Christian spirituality Donyelle C. McCray presents Julian as a preacher examining the apostolic dimensions of Julian's vocation as an anchoress and highlighting the steps she took to align herself with renowned preachers like Saint Cecelia Mary Magdalene and the apostle Paul Like Paul Julian saw Jesus' body as her primary text placed human weakness at the center of her theology and used her own confined body as a rhetorical tool Yet she navigated a web of censorship that threatened to silence her To voice her convictions Julian developed a novel approach to authority and exploited the fluidity of the medieval English sermon genre McCray charts this process revealing Julian as a central personality in the history of preaching whose best contemporary parallels operate outside the pulpit in august figures like retreat leader Evelyn Underhill gospel singer Mother Willie Mae Ford Smith and street preacher Reverend Billy Loving God, Loving Neighbor Peggy Kendall; Claire Smith; Tim Ke, 2008-04-01 In almost every congregation there is a searching youth who is somehow different from the rest one who thinks more deeply asks more questions and wants to make a difference in the world This young person may be seen as a loner an upstart or someone who does not fit Youth workers may not know what to do with these inquisitive youth and a youth program that meets the congregation's expectations probably won't connect with the needs and interests of searching youth Eventually searching youth turn into searching adults who continue to stir things up and enrich the life of our congregations with their questions insights witness and service These young people have the capacity and ability to provide significant leadership in our congregations now and in the future Because of their unique gifts we are offering this book as a resource for pastors teachers and youth leaders who work with them In this book faculty members students and recent graduates of Saint Paul School of Theology look through the eyes of their academic disciplines and
