Evas Man:

Eva's Man Gayl Jones, 2020-10-20 The Best American Novelist Whose Name You May Not Know Calvin Baker The Atlantic A literary giant and one of my absolute favourite writers TAYARI JONES author of AN AMERICAN MARRIAGE An American writer with a powerful sense of vital inheritance of history in the blood John Updike The New Yorker Eva s Man is a gripping psychological portrait of a woman unable to love for fear of pain Imprisoned for the bizarre murder of her lover Eva Median Canada weaves together memory and fantasy to reveal a life tormented by the brutality of sexual abuse and emotional silence Brilliantly experimenting with language Jones infuses her graphic and powerful narrative of the triple yoke of race class and gender with a rich musical and oral idiom Eva Fitzgerald, Or, Scenes in Erin and the Sister Isle Eva Fitzgerald, 1861 Eva's Journey The Bumpy Road to Heaven R.M. Vermett, 2019-04-02 Eva and her immigrant family live between the railroad tracks and Fort Wayne the military base along the Detroit River in the fifties Eva lives on a multicultural street and grows up with many wonderful types of people Her neighborhood in the first book covers the lives of neighbors and friends and her brother s tragic little friend Danny Eva and Leo grow up together sharing a sadly dysfunctional family life but there are good moments and some heart ending times The summertime was the highlight of their world at Detroit s Boblo Boat rides the beautiful jewel of the city Belle Isle where families picnicked and swam at the beaches and rode across the Belle Isle ferry boat The second part is Eva s life and how the road leads to growing up and becoming strong in the face of sorrow and tragedy Genders 23 Thomas C. Foster, Carol Siegel, Ellen E. Berry, 1996-04 What do narratives by British suffragettes of being forcibly fed have in common with the representation of indigenous women in Canadian police archives How are literary representations of domestic violence related to the use of silence as a strategy of resistance in African American women s writing How are modernist fictions of gay male desire connected with ambiguous sexual performances in rock music or with images of Vietnam veterans in American horror movies What does a narrative of women s participation in Bengali national resistance movements share with an ethnographic study of prostitution in Papua New Guinea These are the some of the specific questions raised by the essays in this volume which examines a wide variety of historical and cultural locations where differently sexed gendered and racialized bodies have been constructed More generally this volume addresses theoretical debates over whether embodiment is best understood through representations or performances Are bodies written or enacted The different answers to these questions have important consequences for how we understand the inscription of bodies with systems of power and the possibilities that exist for resisting those systems go to the Genders website Roman's Journey Roman Halter, 2012-03 A Holocaust survivor s account of his six year journey through the enclaves of Nazi Europe describes how Hitler s armies forced him to become the local SS chief s slave the deaths of his family and schoolmates and his escape Boaz's Wager (historical western romance) Ruth Ann Nordin, 2014-03-10 What Boaz Grady wants more than anything else is to have his children living with him But in order to get them back he needs to marry a woman who'll be their mother Eva Connealy left Omaha Nebraska to be a school teacher While in Montana her stagecoach is attacked and the men decide to sell her While the men in Lewistown post bids for her Boaz makes a wager of his own and wins the right to marry her Despite the shaky beginning Boaz is sure she'll adjust to her new life as his children's mother But she wants to be more than a mother She also wants to be a wife and vows to figure out how to take their marriage of convenience into something much much more

The Light Always Breaks

Angela Jackson-Brown,2022-07-05 As 1947 opens Eva Cardon is the twenty four year old owner of Washington D C's most famous Black owned restaurant When her path crosses with Courtland a handsome white senator from Georgia both find themselves drawn to one another but the danger of a relationship between a Black woman and a white man from the South could destroy them and everything they've worked for Few women own upscale restaurants in civil rights era Washington D C Fewer still are twenty four Black and wildly successful But Eva Cardon is unwilling to serve only the wealthiest movers and shakers and she plans to open a diner that offers Southern comfort to the working class A war hero and one of Georgia's native sons Courtland Hardiman Kingsley IV is a junior senator with great ambitions for his time in D C But while his father is determined to see Courtland on a path to the White House the young senator wants to use his office to make a difference in people's lives regardless of political consequences When equal rights activism throws Eva and Courtland into each other's paths they can't fight the attraction they feel no matter how much it complicates their dreams For Eva falling in love with a white Southerner is all but unforgivable and undesirable Her mother and grandmother fell in love with white men and their families paid the price Courtland is already under pressure for his liberal ideals and his family has a line of smiling debutantes waiting for him on every visit If his father found out about Eva he's not sure he'd be welcome home again Surrounded by the disapproval of their families and the scorn of the public Eva and Courtland must decide if the values they hold most dear including love are worth the loss of their dreams and everything else The author of When Stars Rain Down returns with a historical love story about all that has and has not changed in the United States Historical romance set in civil rights era Washington D C Stand alone novel Book length approximately 120 000 words Includes discussion questions for book clubs

Gayl Jones Casey Clabough,2008-08-29 Gayl Jones is dedicated to the art of verbal authenticity stemming from her identification with her African American heritage Amid widespread critical praise as well as pointed attacks for her controversial first two novels Jones has shown a constantly evolving cultural consciousness This first single author study of Gayl Jones recovers the work of an under examined yet immensely skillful contemporary writer It offers a thorough examination of her technical innovations as well as her willingness to explore controversial subject matter The book addresses such crucial themes as Afrocentrism diasporas mythopoesis post colonialism and globalization and offers close readings of the aesthetic and political interchanges within Jones's fiction drama poetry and criticism Two interviews with
