Victim of the Muses Todd Compton, 2006 This book probes the narratives of poets who are exiled tried or executed for their satire It views the scapegoat as a group's dominant warrior sent out to confront predators or besieging forces Both poets and warriors specialize in madness and aggression and are necessary yet dangerous to society

Searching & Researching on the Internet & the World Wide Web Karen Hartman, Ernest C. Ackermann, 2005 Hartman and Ackermann both Mary Washington College offer a work on how to search for information on the Internet They thoroughly overview Internet searching and discuss search tools and strategies directories search engines and specialized tools searching for news and multimedia and citing and evaluating Internet information The strength of this book is the hands on chapters that contain examples meant to appeal to students from a variety of disciplines Each chapter contains practice exercises designed to allow readers to master fundamental search skills Additionally the chapters are compartmentalized allowing readers to skip materials they feel are unnecessary or with which they are already familiar The target audience for this book is readers with little knowledge of Internet searching and those who desire a primer on this topic However this book is also a helpful resource for any level of Web searcher because it contains in depth information on current search engines and their features as well as other relevant Internet search tools AAR/SBL Annual Meeting Program American Academy of Religion.
