or on circumstances When we attempt to place responsibility for our choices on others we are responding in a leaderless manner More importantly do not allow those under you to fall into the habit of blaming encourage them to seek root causes never blame or point fingers Criticizing Positive or constructive criticism is feedback given with the purpose of helping another person to grow and to develop This is both helpful and needful and is generally accepted and appreciated Negative criticism is intended to hurt and often to defame and destroy This caustic communication is cruel and it tends to crush the character of all of those whom it is directed Anger This is perhaps the most common form of destructive communication Anger causes anguish to everyone who experiences the feeling as well as to those who are the recipients of this emotional explosion Anger shows a lack of self control and an inability to relate in a professional way to others It is a senseless substitute for self control It is sometimes used as a selfish strategy to gain control of a relationship Dr Edward Shelton is the author of They Love You They Hate You Discovering Leadership He is a respected international conference speaker on preferred leadership knowledge transfer and motivation Dr Sheltons work reflects a lifelong fascination of leadership as he has gained unique perspectives with his experiences that span industry academia and military Essential Lessons on Leadership (Collection) Jon Huntsman, James F.
