

The background of the book cover is an abstract artwork. It features a yellowish-tan background with a black grid pattern. Overlaid on this grid are various lines: thick, wavy red lines and thinner, more linear blue lines. There are also some black scribbles and what appears to be some faint, illegible text or markings in the upper right and middle sections.

Elsewhere And Back New And Selected Poems:

Twentieth Century Poetry Peter Robinson, 2005 Peter Robinson's third book of literary criticism presents a sequence of chapters exploring ways that selves and situations interact and become imaginatively identified with each other in poems. Readings of works by Ezra Pound, Basil Bunting, Louis MacNeice, W. S. Graham, Elizabeth Bishop, Allen Curnow, Charles Tomlinson, Mairi MacInnes, Tom Raworth, and Roy Fisher share an interest in how poems can be both attached to and detached from the culture, society, and conditions in which they were written. These studies draw out and underline both the ubiquity and elusiveness of the self in the situation of the text. The poems studied here are also discussed as focal points for relations between readerly and writerly selves and their situations in and over time. Elsewhere & Back Mairi MacInnes, 1993 Reviewing Mairi MacInnes's Elsewhere Back Helen Dunmore praised her restless ranging poems, noting how her poems hint at rather than state in order to create a powerful sense of the identity of place. Place always seems more important than the characters who are temporarily rooted in it. Observer International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004 Provides up-to-date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets. Consorting with Angels Deryn Rees-Jones, 2005 In this pioneering study Deryn Rees-Jones argues that the poetic traditions of the 20th century must be radically rethought in light of the formal and thematic experimentation of three generations of women poets. Scottish Literary Journal, 1991 Like a Dark Rabbi Norman Finkelstein, 2019-09-15 Wallace Stevens' dark rabbi from his poem Le Monocle de Mon Oncle provides a title for this collection of essays on the lordly study of modern Jewish poetry in English. Including chapters on such poets as Charles Reznikoff, Allen Grossman, Chana Bloch, and Michael Heller, this volume explores the tensions between religious and secular worldviews in recent Jewish poetry, the often conflicted linguistic and cultural matrix from which this poetry arises, and the complicated ways in which Jewish tradition shapes the sensibilities of not only Jewish but also non-Jewish poets. Finkelstein described as one of American poetry's indispensable makers, Lawrence Joseph, whose previous critical work has been called the exemplary study of the religious aspect of the works of contemporary American poets. Peter O'Leary considers large literary and cultural trends while never losing sight of the particular formal powers of individual poems. In Like a Dark Rabbi he offers a passionate argument for the importance of Jewish American poetry to modern Jewish culture and to American poetry as it engages with the contradictions of contemporary life. Charlie Kaufman Doreen Alexander Child, 2010-07-01 This revealing study looks at the influences and creative impulses that shape one of today's most progressive, thoughtful filmmakers. Charlie Kaufman got his start in television, but it was his first film, the eccentric Being John Malkovich, that won notice for his unique storytelling style. With the aid of a plethora of contributions from those with whom the writer has worked, Charlie Kaufman: Confessions of an Original Mind presents the intriguing story of that movie and others, as it examines one of the most innovative voices in modern film. This exhaustive study of Kaufman's life and work is organized chronologically to cover his early influences as well as his most recent ventures Highlights include explorations of Kaufman s collaboration with Being John Malkovich director Spike Jonze who stood him up for their first meeting and the writer s conflict with George Clooney about whom Kaufman says I can tell you that George Clooney is my least favorite person There are analyses of Human Nature Adaptation and the hauntingly beautiful Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind which led to an Academy Award The book also studies Kaufman s sound plays for Theatre of the New Ear and his directorial debut Synecdoche New York The Ghostwriter Mairi MacInnes,1999 In The Ghostwriter Mairi MacInnes s characters have become more rooted but are still restless and edgy Her focus now is more on the people set against her North Country landscapes on her fragility in the face of life on tensions and anxieties

Modern Women Poets Deryn Rees-Jones,2005 An anthology that draws together the work of women poets from Britain Ireland and America as one version of a history of women s poetic writing while not isolating women s writing from its intersection with the work of male contemporaries It allows the reader to trace women s negotiations with one another s work Poetry Review Stephen Phillips,Galloway Kyle,1998 Selected Poems Rudyard Kipling,2006-06-29 Rudyard Kipling 1865 1936 is often regarded as the unofficial Laureate of the British Empire Yet his writing reveals a ferociously independent figure at times violently opposed to the dominant political and literary tendencies of his age Arranged in chronological order this diverse selection of his poetry shows the development of Kipling s talent his deepening maturity and the growing sombreness of his poetic vision Ranging from early exhilarating celebrations of British expansion overseas including Mandalay and Gunga Din to the dignified and inspirational If and the later deeply moving Epitaphs of the War inspired by the death of Kipling s only son it clearly illustrates the scope and originality of his work It also offers a compelling insight into the Empire both at its peak and during its decline in the early years of the twentieth century Clearances Mairi MacInnes,2002 MacInnes novelist and poet tells the story of her life moving backward and forward in time connecting childhood with age in line with the natural world and the literature she has always loved Encyclopedia of African American Women Writers Yolanda Williams Page,2007-01-30 African American women writers published extensively during the Harlem Renaissance and have been extraordinarily prolific since the 1970s This book surveys the world of African American women writers Included are alphabetically arranged entries on more than 150 novelists poets playwrights short fiction writers autobiographers essayists and influential scholars The Encyclopedia covers established contemporary authors such as Toni Morrison and Gloria Naylor along with a range of neglected and emerging figures Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a brief biography a discussion of major works a survey of the author s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Literature students will value this book for its exploration of African American literature while social studies students will appreciate its examination of social issues through literature African American women writers have made an enormous contribution to our culture Many of these authors wrote during the Harlem Renaissance a particularly vital time in African American arts and letters while others have been especially active since the 1970s an era in which works by African American women are adapted into films and are widely read in book clubs Literature by African American women is important for its aesthetic qualities and it also illuminates the social issues which these authors have confronted This book conveniently surveys the lives and works of African American women writers Included are alphabetically arranged entries on more than 150 African American women novelists poets playwrights short fiction writers autobiographers essayists and influential scholars Some of these figures such as Toni Morrison and Gloria Naylor are among the most popular authors writing today while others have been largely neglected or are recently emerging Each entry provides a biography a discussion of major works a survey of the writer s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies The Encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography Students and general readers will welcome this guide to the rich achievement of African American women Literature students will value its exploration of the works of these writers while social studies students will appreciate its examination of the social issues these women confront in their works
