Evangelism In Perspective:

The Study of Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote, Lacey C. Warner, 2008-02-13 Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission. Many of the resulting books in the marketplace, however, have a hands-on orientation often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection. Bucking that trend, The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice. Helpfully organized into six categories, these broad, diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism. Evangelism in Perspective Robert Emerson Coleman, 1978

Perspectives on Evangelism Gene Gurganus, 2001-02-01 This book deals with the four perspectives of effective evangelism. The Historical Perspective traces evangelism from the OT through the Dark Ages. The Biblical Perspective proves the primacy of evangelism in light of the plight of man. The Practical Perspective discusses evangelism and proposes a workable program for the local church. The Prophetic Perspective gives a prognosis of evangelism in the new century.

Models of Evangelism Priscilla Pope-Levison, 2020-10-27 Many sincere Christians dismiss evangelism due to enduring evangelistic caricatures. This book helps readers move beyond those caricatures to consider thoughtfully and practically how they can engage in evangelism, whether it's through one-on-one conversations, social media, social justice, or the liturgy of worship services. At once biblical, theological, historical, and practical, this book by a seasoned scholar offers an engaging, well-researched, and well-organized presentation and analysis of eight models of evangelism. Covering a breadth of approaches from personal evangelism to media evangelism and everything in between, Priscilla Pope-Levison encourages readers to take a deeper look at evangelism and discover a model that captures their attention. Each chapter introduces and assesses a model biblically, theologically, historically, and practically, allowing for easy comparison across the board. The book also includes end-of-chapter study questions to further help readers interact with each model.

Understanding Evangelism J. D. Payne, 2025-09-30 When seeking to understand evangelism, it can be difficult to know where to begin due to the wealth of written material available on the topic. This one-stop textbook offers a comprehensive introduction to evangelism from an evangelical perspective. It draws from the diverse and vast literature on the topic to help readers share the gospel at home and throughout the world. Understanding Evangelism emerges from the author's experiences as a pastor, missionary, evangelist, and professor of evangelism, and from his expertise as a scholar in the field. The book provides the necessary biblical knowledge, cultural awareness, and practical insights for every Christ follower to participate in the privilege of partnering with the Spirit in the world. The first part of the book covers contemporary definitions of evangelism, the global status of world evangelization, and personal motives and ethics for evangelism. The second part addresses its biblical and theological foundations, while the third part offers a historical overview. The fourth part focuses on cultural contexts and effective communication of the gospel. The book concludes with contemporary issues that offer practical guidance in the ministry of evangelism Pedagogical tools including case studies sidebars figures and reflection questions help students retain information Perspectives on the World Christian Movement (4th Edition) Ralph D. Winter, Steven C. Hawthorne, 2009-06-01 Perspectives on the World Christian Movement presents a multi faceted collection of readings exploring the biblical historical cultural and strategic dimensions of world evangelization Writings from more than 150 mission scholars and practitioners over 60 of them new to this edition portray the history and anticipate the potential of the global Christian movement Every one of the 170 articles and side bars offers practical wisdom enabling Christians to labor together in bold biblical hope to finish the task of seeing that Christ is named and followed among all the peoples of the earth The Fourth Edition contains over 60 articles and sidebars that are new to this edition Many articles have been updated and revised 5 Wayne Whitaker, 2015-10-14 Evangelism is a word that strikes fear in the hearts of even the most faithful Christians Though believers realize their responsibility to connect others to Christ many feel intimidated by the task A plethora of programs and processes have been developed to aid believers in evangelism however these can often feel impersonal inauthentic or awkward In frustration many believers have given up hope of ever feeling adequate to share their faith with others What if evangelism was not meant to be a process What if it was never intended to be boiled down to step by step programs or processes What if introducing others to Jesus is actually as easy as sharing life with others and having a few intentional conversations Through this book readers will learn an approach to evangelism that leverages relationality while minimizing much of the anxiety that accompanies sharing ones faith Rather than a new approach this simple straight forward perspective is a return to the evangelism modeled by the first believers There are no flowcharts presentations or acronyms All that is required is a reliance on the Holy Spirit Gods Word and a desire to cultivate and build intentional relationships for the sake of the gospel The ultimate goal is to see every believer equipped encouraged and empowered to do his part to fulfill the Great Commission of Christ Perspectives on the World Christian Movement Ralph D. Winter, Steven C. Hawthorne, 1981-12 An Introduction to Ministry Ian S. Markham, Oran E. Warder, 2015-10-28 An Introduction to Ministry is a comprehensive and ecumenical introduction to the craft of ministry for ministers pastors and priests that make up the mainline denominations in the United States Ecumenically focused It offers a grounded account of ministry covering areas such as vocation congregational leadership and cultivation of skills for an effective ministry Covers the key components of the M Div curriculum offering a map and guide to the central skills and issues in training Explores the areas of vocation skills for ministry and issues around congregational leadership Each topic ends with an annotated bibliography providing an indispensable gateway to further study Helps students understand both the distinctive approach of their denomination and the relationship of that approach to other mainline denominations Advocates and defends a generous understanding of the Christian tradition in its openness and commitment to broad conversation Exploring Christian Mission Beyond Christendom: United Methodist Perspectives Michael G. Cartwright, 2010 Full Service Siang-Yang Tan, 2006-03-01

Although servanthood is often discussed as an important part of leadership it is also the basic calling of every follower of Jesus Christ Siang Yang Tan takes a fresh approach to servanthood exploring it as loving obedience to God in and of itself regardless of personal greatness fulfillment or success He lays out the biblical case and practical guidance to help all Christians live out their foundational call of being a servant of God in all areas of life Tan's focus on servanthood alone in contrast to the many books on servant leadership will appeal to pastors church leaders and all Christians interested in a biblical perspective on servanthood

Pentecostal Theology for the Twenty-First Century Ms May Ling

Tan-Chow, 2013-05-28 In our post 9/11 world where there is a growing religious fundamentalism and when both exclusion and easy tolerance are inadequate options this book offers a creative alternative arguing that Pentecostalism has the potential to be a peaceful harbinger of plurality The potential lies in its spirituality a lively pneumatology and eschatology The eschatological Spirit is seen as orientated towards the other crossing boundaries in redemptive embrace transcending exclusion and easy tolerance This book's non-Western perspective and the empirical contextual study of Singapore's multicultural and multi-faith context are unique contributions to religion and society This is a book for students pastors teachers and theologians concerned for an approach to mission that is sensitive to their context who want to learn from a creative theological voice from what has been perhaps the largest religious movement in history and who see the immense potential in lively theology by Christians of the Chinese diaspora who can speak to the many millions of ethnic Chinese Christians This book will also appeal to those outside Christianity who are interested in its attempts to engage with a complex multi-ethnic and multi-religious situation such as that in Singapore

Chilcote,2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts From their own perspectives they address questions like What are the challenges you face What biblical images shape your missional practice What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness Indeed each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike Likewise they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia Latin and North America Europe and Oceania Each voice is distinct but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another To be the ambassadors of the gospel we need each other and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own This volume takes a large step in that vital direction Majority World

Perspectives on Christian Mission Nico A. Botha,Eugene Baron,2022-05-12 It affords us real pleasure to present this editorial on behalf of the Majority World Christian Leaders Conversation MWCLC The MWCLC started slowly but surely since 2016 following a groundbreaking conversation among eleven mission practitioners from the Majority World who met in the United Kingdom somewhere between London and Oxford At the meeting several themes emerged under the banner of missionary questions and impulses of the Majority World from the perspective of the reign of God These themes and more find reflection in the book However before proceeding to the content of the anthology a note on the concept Majority World seems necessary The time where terms like Third World gained strong currency is long since gone The term Majority World is a new kid on the block and requires some clarification The use of the term is a strategy of avoiding concepts like Developing or Third World or even Global South which are pejorative in a real sense To speak of the Majority World is geographically accurate in that Africa Asia and Latin America are included

Evangelism and Politics John C. Barrett, 2020-02-20 In a fallen world politics will be a brutal at times violent sport Grandstanding demonizing misleading and lying are the native language of political debate Violence is historically how political conflicts are ultimately resolved This fact raises important questions about our faith Should Christians participate in politics and government If so how should we participate Evangelism Politics argues that Christians should participate in politics and government but their ultimate goal in doing so is evangelism not political change The way Christians participate in politics is therefore generally more important than the specific policies they advocate for In short Christian participation in politics should be marked by the fruit of the spirit At the same time Christians should not be naive in thinking godly engagement in politics guarantees political success Ungodly tactics are effective and Christians will be at a political disadvantage when they refuse to use such methods Nevertheless Christians should refuse to use them because they see God not the government as their ultimate protector and provider and godly engagement in politics as a way of providing an evangelistic witness to society that fulfills the Great Commission
