The Collaborative Art of Filmmaking Linda Seger, 2019-01-30 The Collaborative Art of Filmmaking From Script to Screen explores what goes into the making of Hollywood's greatest motion pictures Join veteran script consultant Linda Seger as she examines contemporary and classic screenplays on their perilous journey from script to screen This fully revised and updated edition includes interviews with over 80 well known artists in their fields including writers producers directors actors editors composers and production designers Their discussions about the art and craft of filmmaking including how and why they make their decisions provides filmmaking and screenwriting students and professionals with the ultimate guide to creating the best possible blueprint for a film and to also fully understand the artistic and technical decisions being made by all those involved in the process From Script to Screen Linda Seger, Edward Jay Whetmore, 2004 What goes into the making of Hollywood's greatest motion pictures Join the authors as they examine recent screenplays on their perilous journey from script to screen Screenplay Workbook Jeremy Robinson, Tom Mungovan, 2010-06-09 An instructional manual combined with proprietary worksheets charts and fill in lists designed to give screenwriters a better way to focus on the task of writing a screenplay Script Culture and the American Screenplay Kevin Alexander Boon, 2008-01-10 By considering the screenplay as a literary object worthy of critical inquiry this volume breaks new ground in film studies Though the history of the screenplay is as long and rich as the history of film itself critics and scholars have neglected it as a topic of serious research Script Culture and the American Screenplay treats the screenplay as a literary work in its own right presenting analyses of screenplays from a variety of frameworks including feminism Marxism structuralism philosophy and psychology In distancing the text of screenplays from the on screen performance typically associated with them Kevin Alexander Boon expands the scope of film studies into exciting new territory with this volume Script Culture and the American Screenplay is divided into two parts Part 1 provides a general background for screenplay studies tracing the evolution of the screenplay from the early shot lists and continuities of George M. Seldes and Thomas Harper Ince to the more detailed narratives of contemporary works Part 2 offers specific primarily thematic critical examinations of screenplays along with discussions of the original screenplay and the screenplay adaptation In all Boon explains that screenplay criticism distinguishes itself from traditional film studies in three major ways The primary focus of screenplay criticism is on the screenplay rather than the film the focus of screenplay studies is on the screenwriter rather than the director and screenplay criticism like literary criticism is written to illuminate a reader's understanding of the text Boon demonstrates that whether we are concerned with aesthetics and identifying rules for distinguishing the literary from the non literary or whether we align ourselves with more contemporary theories which recognize texts as distinguishable in their inter relationships and marked difference screenplays constitute a rich cache of works worthy of critical examination Film scholars as well as students of film creative writing and literary studies will appreciate this singular volume Crafting Short Screenplays

Authorship in Film Adaptation Jack Boozer,2009-06-03 Authoring a film adaptation of a literary source not only requires a media conversion but also a transformation as a result of the differing dramatic demands of cinema The most critical central step in this transformation of a literary source to the screen is the writing of the screenplay The screenplay usually serves to recruit producers director and actors to attract capital investment and to give focus to the conception and production of the film project Often undergoing multiple revisions prior to production the screenplay represents the crucial decisions of writer and director that will determine how and to what end the film will imitate or depart from its original source Authorship in Film Adaptation is an accessible provocative text that opens up new areas of discussion on the central process of adaptation surrounding the screenplay and screenwriter director collaboration In contrast to narrow binary comparisons of literary source text and film the twelve essays in this collection also give attention to the underappreciated role of the screenplay and film pre production that can signal the primary intention for a film Divided into four parts this collection looks first at the role of Hollywood s activist producers and major auteurs such as Hitchcock and Kubrick as they worked with screenwriters to formulate their audio visual goals The second part offers case studies of Devil in a Blue Dress and The Sweet Hereafter for which the directors wrote their own adapted screenplays Considering the variety of writer director working relationships that are possible Part III focuses on adaptations that alter genre time and place and Part IV investigates adaptations that alter stories of romance sexuality and ethnicity

The art of the observer David MacDougall,2022-11-15 The art of the observer is a personal guide to documentary filmmaking based on the author s years of pioneering work in the fields of ethnographic and documentary cinema It stands in sharp contrast to books of academic film criticism and handbooks on visual research methods being based extensively on concrete examples from the author's own filmmaking experience. The book places particular emphasis on observational filmmaking and the ways in which this approach is distinct from other forms of documentary. It offers both practical insights and reflections on what it means in both emotional and intellectual terms to attempt to represent the lives of others. The book makes clear that documentary cinema is not simply a matter of recording reality but of artfully organising the filmmaker's observations in ways that reveal the complex patterns of social life.

Visible Mind Christopher Hauke, 2013-07-24 Why is the moving image so important in our lives? What is the link between the psychology of Jung, Freud, and films? How do film and psychology address the problems of modernity? Visible Mind is a book about why film is so important to contemporary life, how film affects us psychologically as individuals, and how it affects us culturally as collective social beings. Since its inception, film has been both responsive to historical cultural conditions and reflective of changes in psychological and emotional needs. Arising at the same moment over a century ago, both film and psychoanalysis helped to frame the fragmented experience of modern life in a way that is still with us today. Visible Mind pays attention to the historical context of film for what it can tell us about our inner lives past and present. Christopher Hauke discusses a range of themes from the perspective of film and analytical psychology; these include The Face, The Shadow, Narrative and Story, Reality in Film, Cinema and the American Psyche, the use of Movies in the Psychotherapy Session, and Archetypal themes in popular film. Unique to Visible Mind are six interviews with top film professionals from different departments, both of which unlock the door on the role of the unconscious in their creative process and bring alive the reflexive critical thinking on modernity, postmodernity, and Jungian psychology found throughout Visible Mind. Visible Mind is written for academics, filmmakers, and students who want to understand what Jung and Freud's psychology can offer on the subject of filmmaking and the creative process for therapists of any background who want to know more about the significance of movies in their work and for film lovers in general who are curious about what makes movies work.

True Event Adaptation Davinia Thornley, 2018-09-26 These essays all in various ways address the relationship between adaptation, true events, and cultural memory. They ask and frequently answer the question: how do we script stories about real events that are often still fresh in our memories and may involve living people? True Event Adaptation: Scripting Real Lives contains essays from scholars committed to interrogating historical and current hard-hitting events, traumas, and truths through various media. Each essay goes beyond general discussion of adaptation and media to engage with the specifics of adapting true-life events, addressing pertinent and controversial questions around scriptwriting, representation, ethics, memory, forms of history, and methodological interventions. Written for readers interested in how memory works on culture as well as screenwriting choices, the collection offers new perspectives on historical media and commercial media that is currently being produced as well as on media created by the book's contributors themselves.
