

Without the If

Scribbling in notebooks, reporters gather round Jesus
as the Savior speaks of truly following Him:
"If you hold to my teaching . . ."

Seeing a soundbite,
eager editors
quickly snip the if.
If, they say, won't sell.
Just run with what He promised.

Soon, Hebrew headlines and Aramaic airwaves crackle only with
"You will know the truth,
and the truth will set you free."

Misquoted, taken out of context,
Jesus sighs:
I wanted you to see all that you could be if you would truly follow me.

From the Devotions Carl Phillips, 1997-12-31 With From the Devotions Carl Phillips takes us even further into that dangerous space he has already made his own where body and soul ever restless come explosively together Speaking to a balance between decorum and pain he offers here a devotional poetry that argues for faith even without the comforting gods or the organized structures of revealed truth Neither sage nor saint nor prophet the poet is the listener the mourner the one who has some access to the maddening quarters of human consciousness the wry Sibyl From the Devotions is deeply felt highly intelligent and unsentimental and cements Phillips's reputation as a poet of enormous talent and depth In his extraordinary new book of poems From the Devotions by far his best Carl Phillips has done what few of his contemporaries have dared or managed with as much elegant authority He has plotted here the romantic landscape of desire Myths are unsheathed and glisten History is held and pondered Violence shimmers desires are silhouetted against the light of love and death His tone is at once erotic and mystical hushed and compelling This book is a blessing a ravishing a haunting I urge you to read it to succumb to it J D McClatchy Carl Phillips is the author of In the Blood which won the Morse Poetry Prize and Cort George a Finalist for both the National Book Critics Circle Award and a Lambda Literary Award The recipient of fellowships and prizes from the Guggenheim Foundation the Massachusetts Artists Foundation and the Academy of American Poets Phillips is associate professor of English and of African and Afro American Studies at Washington University St Louis where he also directs the creative writing program

makes this unique is that rather than a written summary explaining the scripture beforehand it speaks to the reader through scripture that ties in with the accompanying poem The inspiration for the first poem and ultimately this book's title came during one of Jean's morning devotions as she glanced across the table to an empty chair she invited God to sit and have a cup of coffee with her It was in that moment the Coffee with God poem was written which then spurred the creation of this collection Poems, 1913-1956 Bertolt Brecht, 1979 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Poetry in Devotion Elliot Sexton Fuller, 2017-03-10 This book of poems and meditations is the product of my life's trials triumphs and contemplations The vast majority was written in the last two years I have been what most would consider a devout follower of Christ since about the age of five or six The journey has been long and arduous at times and there have been many times when I have asked God Where are you Poems for the Heart of God Darrell Hausmann, 2019-08-26 It seems I am best at expressing my love for the Lord through music and poetry and so out of that longing came the desire to pen Poems for the Heart of God I wanted to share something that gave me great joy and encouragement with others I wanted to write something that would implant a seed and inspire communication with our Master especially as we begin our day Oh how important is a moment with Him before we step out into the fast paced world we live in today Poems for the Heart of God is a 366 day including leap year devotional with a scripture reading from His word accompanied by a six line poem for each day of the year It is written in a way to receive from Him through scripture and a way to give back to Him in a personal heartfelt way Each poem was written from my heart to His heart acknowledging His love and care as a Good Father every day of life Many like to look up their birthdays their anniversaries and other special days to see what God may have to say to them on that day It is a daily seed planter of encouragement for my family and me to help us get off to a good start for the day I pray it will be the same for you
