From Queer To Eternity:

Trans People in Love Tracie O'Keefe, Katrina Fox, 2010-07-01 Trans People in Love is a illuminating resource for members of the trans community and their partners and families gay lesbian bisexual queer and intersex people sexologists sex therapists counselors psychologists psychotherapists social workers psychiatrists medical doctors educators students and couples and family therapists Trans People in Love provides a forum for the experience of being in love and in relationships with significant others for members of the trans community This honest and respectful volume tells clinicians scholars and trans people themselves of the beauty and complexity that trans identity brings to a romantic relationship what skills and mindsets are needed to forge positive relationships and demonstrates the reality that trans people in all stages of transition can create stable and loving relationships that are both physically and emotionally fulfilling A Special Illumination Rollan McCleary, 2017-07-28 Gay spirituality represents a hidden strand in Western thought that was only publically declared from the Gay Liberation of the 1970s Since coming out expressions of gay spirituality have proliferated in both number and diversity Beginning with gay theology within Christianity the phenomenon has now reached as far as Buddhism and neo paganism But so far critical analysis of the movement has been very limited largely because gay spirituality has been treated as a political and social movement arguing for rights and acceptance within religious circles A Special Illumination offers an indepth analysis and argues that gay spirituality should be placed at the heart of religion Coming In Urs Mattmann, 2006-12-03 The author explores a mystic Christian spirituality and describes numerous practical steps that gay men and women can take in order to connect with and express their innate spiritual nature An unorthodox history Gavin Schaffer, 2025-02-18 A bold new history of British Jewish life since the Second World War Historian Gavin Schaffer wrestles Jewish history away from the question of what others have thought about Jews focusing instead on the experiences of Jewish people themselves Exploring the complexities of inclusion and exclusion he shines a light on groups that have been marginalised within Jewish history and culture such as gueer Jews Jews married to non Jews Israel critical Jews and even Messianic Jews while offering a fresh look at Jewish activism Jewish religiosity and Zionism Weaving these stories together Schaffer argues that there are good reasons to consider Jewish Britons as a unitary whole even as debates rage about who is entitled to call themselves a Jew Challenging the idea that British Jewish life is in terminal decline An unorthodox history demonstrates that Jewish Britain is thriving and that Jewishness is deeply embedded in the country's history and culture

Charlotte Perkins Gilman's The Yellow Wall-Paper Catherine J. Golden, 2013-10-18 In 1892 Charlotte Perkins Gilman published her landmark work The Yellow Wall Paper generating spirited debates in literary and political circles on both sides of the Atlantic Today this story of a young wife and mother succumbing to madness is hailed both as a feminist classic and a key text in the American literary canon This sourcebook combines extracts from contemporary documents and critical reviews with incisive commentary providing an introduction to the political biographical and medical contexts in which

Gilman was writing a publishing and critical history of the work with extracts from the earliest reviews through to recent criticism a chronology of key biographical and contextual events an annotated guide to further reading original illustrations and photographs of the author and figures related to the story Filled with extensive commentary as well as contextual and critical materials this reprint of the complete original text as published in the New England Magazine in 1892 constitutes an important critical edition Un/Popular Culture Kathleen Martindale, 1997-03-13 Theorizing lesbian Kathleen Martindale writes is like embarking on terra incognita In this book Martindale offers her lucidly written analysis as a guide through the complex and provocative terrain of lesbian literary and cultural theory Using the publication of Adrienne Rich's Compulsory Heterosexuality and Lesbian Existence and the outbreak of the American sex wars as a starting point Martindale traces the emergence of lesbian postmodernism and how lesbian feminism changed from a popular to an un popular culture and from a political vanguard into a cultural neo avant garde Martindale analyzes the theoretical implications of creative texts such as the graphic art and cultural commentary of Alison Bechdel and Diane DiMassa She experiments in autobiography by Joan Nestle and deconstructed lesbian genre fiction by Sarah Schulman to determine how these texts elaborate contemporary theoretical issues These texts she argues are widely available and could be considered as postmodernist rewritings and revisions of the most characteristic and preferred lesbian feminist modes of cultural expression Her analysis raises poignant questions about how lesbians read what they read and what counts as lesbian theory She concludes with a discussion of the status of queer pedagogy in academic institutions and what measures need to be taken to promote and safeguard its existence in what are often homophobic educational settings Discourses of Sexuality Domna C. Stanton, 1992 An important and timely book on a subject of enduring interest Depicting the Afterlife in Contemporary Film and Media Angelique Nairn, 2025-08-19 What lies beyond death This book brings together a diverse collection of scholarly voices to explore how popular culture imagines and reimagines the afterlife Drawing from film television video games literature advertising and digital technologies this book examines how narratives about Heaven and Hell ghosts and gods memory and immortality shape contemporary understandings of morality death and what may come after From Pixar's Coco to The Good Place Ghostbusters Upload and Westworld these chapters interrogate the enduring power of afterlife narratives to provide existential comfort moral guidance and cultural critique Whether through the lens of theology philosophy or secular imagination contributors consider how popular media blurs the sacred and the profane challenging dogma reframing ethics and offering new possibilities for how we remember the dead and live among the living Spanning topics such as queer love in the afterlife Indigenous cosmologies digital resurrection and the theological implications of robots Depicting the Afterlife in Contemporary Film and Media Morality Religion and Death is a timely exploration of how the afterlife continues to haunt and inspire modern culture Essential reading for scholars of media studies religious studies cultural theory and anyone fascinated by humanity s oldest and most enduring guestion what happens when we die Outlaw Representation Richard

Meyer, 2002 Outlaw Representation is a Beacon Press publication The Routledge Companion to Twenty-First Century Literary Fiction Daniel O'Gorman, Robert Eaglestone, 2019-01-15 The study of contemporary fiction is a fascinating yet challenging one Contemporary fiction has immediate relevance to popular culture the news scholarly organizations and education where it is found on the syllabus in schools and universities but it also offers challenges What is contemporary How do we track cultural shifts and changes The Routledge Companion to Twenty First Century Literary Fiction takes on this challenge mapping key literary trends from the year 2000 onwards as the landscape of our century continues to take shape around us A significant and central intervention into contemporary literature this Companion offers essential coverage of writers who have risen to prominence since then such as Hari Kunzru Jennifer Egan David Mitchell Jonathan Lethem Ali Smith A L Kennedy Hilary Mantel Marilynne Robinson and Colson Whitehead Thirty eight essays by leading and emerging international scholars cover topics such as Identity including race sexuality class and religion in the twenty first century The impact of technology terrorism activism and the global economy on the modern world and modern literature The form and format of twenty first century literary fiction including analysis of established genres such as the pastoral graphic novels and comedic writing and how these have been adapted in recent years Accessible to experts students and general readers The Routledge Companion to Twenty First Century Literary Fiction provides a map of the critical issues central to the discipline as well as uncovering new perspectives and new directions for the development of the field It is essential reading for anyone interested in the past present and future of contemporary literature Queering the Canon Christoph Lorey, John L. Plews, 1998 This collection of essays exposes points of gueerness marginality and alterity present in the German canon and introduces further deviation from traditional German literature and culture in the form of openly lesbian and gay works It provides new gueer analyses of texts by canonical authors such as Goethe Schiller Thomas and Klaus Mann Ingeborg Bachmann Christa Reinig and Elfriede Jelinek yet discusses works that have seldom received scholarly attention It also breaks the traditional limitation of Germanistik to the study of literature by including essays on aspects of German culture such as music film fine art and art history and politics and law Visible Jennifer Clare Burke, 2009 Visible A Femmethology the only two volume anthology devoted to femme identity calls the LGBTQI community on its prejudices and celebrates the diversity of individual femmes Award winning authors spoken word artists and new voices come together to challenge conventional ideas of how disability class nationality race aesthetics sexual orientation gender identity and body type intersect with each contributor s concrete notion of femmedom Queering Migrations Towards, From, and Beyond Asia Hugo Córdova Quero, Michael Sepidoza Campos, 2014-10-02 The book explores migration and queerness as they relate to ethnic racial identity constructions immigration processes and legal status the formation of trans national and trans cultural partnerships and friendships It explores the roles that religious identities values worldviews play in the fortification critique of gueer migrant identities Reader's Guide to Lesbian and Gay Studies Timothy Murphy, 2013-10-18 The Reader s

Guide to Lesbian and Gay Studies surveys the field in some 470 entries on individuals Adrienne Rich arts and cultural studies Dance ethics religion and philosophical issues Monastic Traditions historical figures periods and ideas Germany between the World Wars language literature and communication British Drama law and politics Child Custody medicine and biological sciences Health and Illness and psychology social sciences and education Kinsey Report Coming Out, Coming Home Kenneth Burr, 2012-07-26 Coming Out Coming Home has the potential for increasing spiritual growth and development in our society Although many books have been written about gay rights and pro gay theologies few have provided people with an opportunity to enlarge belief systems advocating Scriptural principles while embracing the possibility of gay spirituality In our present culture many people feel the need to split the personal from their professional lives in order to maintain proper boundaries and the private from the public in order to gain the acceptance of others This book provides the opportunity for readers to find a deeper connection with themselves and others as you savor the stories of sexual minorities who have sought meaningful connections between their spirituality and sexuality Expect to experience something profound when you find formerly rigid boundaries between God and gays begin to relax Your God might be much larger than you ever imagined

Geographies of Learning Iill Dolan, 2001-05-31 Maps the divisions that stall the production of knowledge in theatre and performance studies queer studies and women s studies Each of Jill Dolan s three academic locations theatre and performance studies lesbian gay queer studies LGQ studies and women s studies is both interdisciplinary and fraught with divisions between theory and practice As teacher administrator author and performer Dolan places her professional labor in relation to issues of community pedagogy public culture administration university missions and citizenship She works from the assumption that the production and dissemination of knowledge can be forms of activism extending conversations on radical politics in the academy by other writers such as Cary Nelson Michael Berube Gerald Graff and Richard Ohmann The five interconnected essays in Geographies of Learning map the divisions and dissensions that stall the production of progressive knowledge in theatre and performance studies LGQ studies and women s studies while at the same time Living Out Sexuality and exploring some of the theoretical and pedagogical tools these fields have to offer one another Faith Joseph N. Goh, 2017-12-15 Sexuality religion and faith often have complex and conflicting interactions on both personal and societal levels Numerous studies have been conducted on queer subjects but they have predominantly focused on Western expressions of faith and queer identities This book contributes to the wider scholarship on queer subjects by drawing on actual lived experiences of self identifying gay and bisexual men in Malaysia It discusses what we can learn from the realities of their lives that intersect with their religious spiritual theological or humanistic values in an Asian context Analysed within the critical frameworks of queer theory and queer sexual theology this study divulges the meanings ascribed to sexual identities and practices as well as conceptualisations of masculinity sexual desire love and intimate physical connections It also lays bare the complex negotiations between gender desire and spirit and how they can affect one another

Tying fascinating case studies and underexplored Asian theologies with wider conversations around sexuality and faith this book will be of significant interest to scholars working in religious studies theology queer studies sexuality studies and Asian Libidinal Currents Joseph Allen Boone, 1998-02-28 From Kate Chopin and Virginia Woolf to William Faulkner and studies Doris Lessing modern fiction surges with libidinal currents The most powerful of these fictions are not merely about sex rather they attempt to incorporate the workings of eros into their narrative forms In doing so Joseph Allen Boone argues these modern fictions of sexuality create a politics and poetics of the perverse with the power to transform how we think about and read modernism Challenging overarching theories of the novel by carefully mapping the historical contexts that have influenced modern experimental narratives Boone constructs a model for interpreting sexuality that reaches from Freud s theory of the libidinal instincts to Foucault's theory of sexual discourse The most ambitious study yet written on the links between literary modernity and the psychology of sex Boone's Libidinal Currents will be a landmark book in the study of modernist fiction gay studies gueer theory feminist criticism and studies in sexuality and gender Not My Mother's Sister Astrid Henry, 2004-09-07 No matter how wise a mother's advice is we listen to our peers At least that s writer Naomi Wolf's take on the differences between her generation of feminists the third wave and the feminists who came before her and developed in the late 60s and 70s the second wave In Not My Mother's Sister Astrid Henry agrees with Wolf that this has been the case with American feminism but says there are problems inherent in drawing generational lines Henry begins by examining texts written by women in the second wave and illustrates how that generation identified with yet also disassociated itself from its feminist foremothers Younger feminists now claim the movement as their own by distancing themselves from the past By focusing on feminism's debates about sexuality they are able to reject the so called victim feminism of Catherine MacKinnon and Andrea Dworkin Rejecting the orthodoxies of the second wave younger feminists celebrate a woman's right to pleasure Henry asserts however that by ignoring diverse older voices the new generation has oversimplified generational conflict and has underestimated the contributions of earlier feminists to women s rights They have focused on issues relating to personal identity at the expense of collective political action Just as writers like Wolf Katie Roiphe and Rene Denfeld celebrate a new feminist hetero sexuality posited in generational terms queer and lesbian feminists of the third wave similarly distance themselves from those who came before Henry shows how 1970s lesbian feminism is represented in ways that are remarkably similar to the puritanical portrait of feminism offered by straight third wavers She concludes by examining the central role played by feminists of color in the development of third wave feminism Indeed the term third wave itself was coined by Rebecca Walker daughter of Alice Walker Not My Mother's Sister is an important contribution to the exchange of ideas among feminists of all ages and persuasions Desolation's March Stephen Paul Foster, 2004 A critique of American decadence and moral squalor Foster argues that three basic cultural phenomena have intertwined in the national psyche the impact of personalism and the leveraged individual the growth of the therapeutic state
