From Timberline to Tidepool Rich Ives, 1986 A Song for Nettie Johnson Gloria Sawai, 2014-09-16 The Day I Sat On the Sun Deck is a funny philosophical sexy sad and searching story that explores faith the nature of belief with the lightness of a meringue Nocturnal America John Keeble, 2006-11-01 Winner of the Prairie Schooner Book Prize in Fiction this collection of loosely connected tales returns readers to the American Northwest so finely observed and powerfully evoked in John Keeble's previous celebrated works Nocturnal America occupies a terrain at once familiar and strange where homecoming and dislocation can coincide and families can break apart or hone themselves on the hard edges of daily life In these stories Keeble populates what journalist Joel Garreau once called the Empty Quarter of North America with complex humanity Life ranges vibrantly through these airy spaces at times finding itself thrown up against the shifty terrors of political change and the antic scrim of culture Keeble's stories hinge on love its difficulty its loss and pangs but also its discovery of good fortune and even illumination in steadiness through travail As his characters come and go unexpectedly converging vanishing or reappearing their stories reach beyond the ordinariness of life and the particularities of place to create something akin to community Mary Barnard Mary Barnard, 2025-06-01 The most comprehensive collection of writing by award winning US poet renowned translator of Sappho and trailblazing archivist Mary Barnard Born in the Pacific Northwest Mary Barnard 1909 2001 struck up correspondence with Ezra Pound in 1933 won Poetry magazine's prestigious Levinson Award in 1935 and moved to New York City the following year There she met Marianne Moore and William Carlos Williams who proclaimed her writing emblematic of what we have been about all these years This fully annotated volume makes available Barnard's complete poems for the first time along with a robust selection of her translations and prose Most well known for her bestselling Sappho and her influential role as the inaugural poetry curator at the University at Buffalo Barnard was a second wave modernist and late Imagist whose regionally grounded writing also anticipated later eco poetry The volume's editor Barnard scholar and biographer Sarah Barnsley situates Barnard's work within these broader literary and cultural currents Previously unpublished poems appear alongside Barnard's essays on her creative practice and friendships illuminating the career oeuvre and ethos of this pivotal yet still underappreciated twentieth century figure With a foreword by Mary de Rachewiltz author of Ezra Pound Father and Teacher and afterword by Barnard's literary executor Elizabeth J Bell Mary Barnard is essential reading for poets scholars and translators The Day I Sat With Jesus Gloria Sawai, 2009-09-01 The Day I Sat On the Sun Deck is a funny philosophical sexy sad and searching story that explores faith the nature of belief with the lightness of a meringue When Jesus visits the hero of Sawai's most successful short story on a Monday morning in September 1972 they drink a glass of wine spill some tea talk about breasts Then his time is up That's what happened to me in Moose Jaw in 1972 she writes It was the main thing that happened to me that year Context North America Camille La Bossière, 1994-01-01 Context North America is a comparative study of Canadian and American literary relations that emphasizes the cultural and institutional contexts in which Canadian literature is taught and read This volume exemplifies the question of how the literatures of Canada might aptly be studied and contextualized in the days of heightened discontinuity and increasingly ambiguous borderlines both between and within the many narratives that make up North America
