American Madonna John Gatta, 1997 Author John Gatta delineates a countercultural pattern of mythic assertion that has yet to be acknowledged in standard surveys of American cultural or literary history Gatta argues that flirtation with the Marian cultus offered Protestant writers symbolic compensation for what might be culturally diagnosed as a deficiency of psychic femininity or anima in America

Margaret Fuller's Concept of Gender in the Context of Her Time Oliver Steinert-Lieschied, 2010-02-12 Thesis M A from the year 2007 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 2 00 University of G ttingen language English abstract Let them be sea captains if you will Margaret Fuller stated in her main work Woman in the Nineteenth Century Woman 346 Although even nowadays there may be only few female sea captains the quoted statement would hardly provoke anyone at least not someone in our contemporary western culture However when regarded in its historical context two questions arise Firstly what underlying gender concept encouraged Fuller to make such a statement in a time of excessive gender polarization Bomarito vol2 1 a time in which the ideal of domesticity and Republican Motherhood Freedman 25 determined the role of woman And secondly how did antebellum American society react to such statements The first question will be the main issue of part III the main part of my work I will begin with Fuller's general gender concept that involves ideas of androgyny and the degendering Davis 182 of language Next the major influences on her concept namely those of transcendentalism with special consideration of Emerson Goethe Fourier and Swedenborg will be dealt with Lastly I will consider how Fuller applied her concept to the specific fields outlined in chapter II that is marriage education and economy I will concentrate on her main work Woman in the Nineteenth Century because Fuller describes her gender concept there in most detail whereas her other works such as Summer on the Lakes do not contribute much additional information that is of special significance for the understanding of her gender concept This is especially true in the case of her Memoirs which was heavily edited and censored by Emerson and others It rather distorted religious and educational reformers political activists social advocates abolitionists feminists community organizers pacifists internationalists and historians These women noticed many injustices done to their kind by men and society over the centuries and took brave actions at great personal costs to provide remedies Their respective backgrounds and interests were different but all of them desired more protection and the welfare of vulnerable populations nationally and internationally This book will be of interest to scholars and students in many fields and can also be adopted as a textbook in colleges and universities

Traveling Traditions Erik Redling, 2016-03-21 This study seeks to fill a major gap in the fields of Nineteenth Century American and British Studies by examining how nineteenth century intellectuals shaped and re shaped aesthetic traditions across the Atlantic Ocean Special attention is paid to a group of salient cultural concepts such as artist as hero imagination the picturesque reform simultaneity and seriality Although embedded in a particular aesthetic tradition these concepts travel from one culture to another and are transformed along their transatlantic journeys The purpose of this book is to explore the roles of these traveling concepts within the realm of transatlantic cultures and to trace their at times surprising paths within ever widening transnational intellectual networks

Female Performers in British and American Fiction Barbara Straumann, 2018-05-22 The female performer with a public voice constitutes a remarkably vibrant theme in British and American narratives of the long nineteenth century The tension between fictional female performers and other textual voices can be seen to refigure the cultural debate over the voice of women in aesthetically complex ways By focusing on singers actresses preachers and speakers this book traces and explores an important tradition of feminine articulation Drawing on critical approaches in literary studies gender studies and philosophy the book conceptualizes voice for the discussion of narrative texts Examining voice both as a thematic concern and as an aesthetic effect the individual chapters analyse how the actual articulation by female performers correlates with their cultural visibility and agency What this study foregrounds is how women characters succeed in making themselves heard even if their voices are silenced in the end

Cotton Mather invokes the typos of Esther in Ornaments of the Daughters of Zion a Puritan conduct book he offers a female type of divine wisdom authority and force In the biblical Book of Esther Esther acts as a female type of wisdom and redemption but her story also engages the larger history of Hebrew salvation In nineteenth century America Margaret Fuller seeks to extend the spiritual claims once made by Mather and establish the role of the divine female in the salvation of American culture and society Fuller supplants the type of male sacrifice with a type of female transfiguration in works such as Woman in the Nineteenth Century Nathaniel Hawthorne then transforms these iconoclastic ideals into literary life by engaging the multi faceted figure of Esther as a typos of female redemption and salvation in Legends of the Province House The Scarlet Letter The Blithedale Romance and The Marble Faun Through his female characters Esther Dudley Hester Prynne Zenobia and Miriam he seeks to fulfill the divine destiny of the American woman Hawthorne discovers however that female redemption is followed by revenge as Esther turns from saving her people to ensuring an end to their oppression When Henry Adams later revives Esther Dudley in his novel Esther he rejects male redemption for the American woman In Democracy Esther Mont Saint Michel and The Education of Henry Adams Adams envisions an independent eternal woman who can rival the political scientific artistic and theological power of men The movement from male to female salvation is achieved when the terms of female redemption are transformed and the American woman is established as her own source of divine wisdom power retribution and force The typology of female transfiguration in America is fulfilled by Fuller Hawthorne and Adams through the promise extended by the type of Esther
