Eternal Curse On The Reader Of These Pages:

Eternal Curse on the Reader of These Pages Manuel Puig, 1993 The Popular & the Canonical David Johnson, 2005 This volume ranges from the Second World War to the postmodern considering issues of the popular and the competing criteria by which literature has been judged in the later twentieth century. As well as tracing the transition from modernism to postmodernism the authors guide students through debates around the pleasures of the popular and the guestion of inter relations between mass and high cultures Drawing further upon issues of value and function raised in Aestheticism and Modernism Debating Twentieth Century Literature 1900 1960 they examine contemporary literary prizes and the activity of judgement involved in English Studies This text can be used alongside the other books in the series for a complete course on twentieth century literature or on its own as essential reading for students of mid to late twentieth century writing Texts examined in detail include du Maurier s Rebecca poetry by Ginsburg and O Hara Dick s Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep Puig s Kiss of the Spiderwoman Beckett s Waiting for Godot Heaney s New Selected Poems 1966 1987 Gurnah s Paradise Barker's The Ghost Road The Cinematic Novel and Postmodern Pop Fiction Décio Torres Cruz, 2019-12-05 D cio Torres Cruz approaches connections between literature and cinema partly through issues of gender and identity and partly through issues of reality and representation In doing so he looks at the various ways in which people have thought of the so called cinematic novel tracing the development of that genre concept not only in the French cin roman and film scenarios but also in novels from the United States England France and Latin America The main tendency he identifies is the blending of the cinematic novel with pop literature through allusions to Pop Art and other postmodern cultural trends His prime exhibits are a number of novels by the Argentinian writer Manuel Puig Betrayed by Rita Hayworth Heartbreak Tango The Buenos Aires Affair Kiss of the Spider Woman and Pubis angelical Bringing in suggestive sociocultural and psychoanalytical considerations Cruz shows how in Puig s hands the cinematic novel resulted in a pop collage of different texts films discourses and narrative devices which fused reality and imagination into dream and desire Fiction and Truth in Transition Oscar Hemer, 2012 What can fiction tell us about the world that journalism and science cannot This simple yet vast question is the starting point for an interrogation of the relationship between literary fiction and society s dramatic transformation in South Africa and Argentina over the past several decades The resulting discursive text borders on both journalism and literature incorporating reportage essay and memoir Series Freiburg Studies in Social Anthropology Vol 34 A Dialogue of Voices Karen Ann Hohne, Helen Wussow, 1994 A Dialogue of Voices was first published in 1994 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions The work of the Russian theorist Mikhail Bakhtin particularly his notions of dialogics and genre has had a substantial impact on contemporary critical practices Until now however little attention has been paid to the possibilities and challenges Bakhtin presents to feminist theory the task taken up in A Dialogue of Voices The original essays in this book combine feminism and Bakhtin in unique ways and by interpreting texts through these two lenses arrive at new theoretical approaches Together these essays point to a new direction for feminist theory that originates in Bakhtin one that would lead to a feminine tre rather than a feminine criture Focusing on feminist theorists such as H l ne Cixous Teresa de Lauretis Julia Kristeva and Monique Wittig in conjunction with Bakhtin's concepts of dialogism heteroglossia and chronotope the authors offer close readings of texts from a wide range of multicultural genres including nature writing sermon composition nineteenth century British women's fiction the contemporary romance novel Irish and French lyric poetry and Latin American film The result is a unique dialogue in which authors of both sexes from several countries and different eras speak against for and with one another in ways that reveal their works anew as well as the critical matrices surrounding them Karen Hohne is an independent scholar and artist living in Moorhead Minnesota Helen Wussow is an assistant Subjects of Analysis Thomas Ogden, 2018-04-17 This book offers a way professor of English at Memphis State University of understanding and making use of a critical dimension of the analytic experience that is rarely spoken about by psychotherapists and analysts the ordinary moment to moment experience of the analyst in the analytic setting Concise Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature Verity Smith, 2014-01-14 The Concise Encyclopedia includes all entries on topics and countries cited by many reviewers as being among the best entries in the book entries on the 50 leading writers in Latin America from colonial times to the present and detailed articles on some 50 important works in this literature those who read and studied in the English speaking world Theoretical Fables Alicia Borinsky, 2015-09-11 Alicia Borinsky argues that the contemporary Latin American novel does not just ingeniously dismantle the referential claims of the more traditional novel it offers a postmodern version of the lessons taught by fiction Latin American fiction perhaps the most inventive literature of recent decades seems marked by its self reflexivity by its playful relationship to history and the everyday and by its concerns with the ways in which language works But is it Borinsky asks really a literature whose primary goal is to raise metafictional questions about writing and reading While the effects of this literature include dismantling the illusions of realism naturalism and historicism the haunting and disturbing energy of its major works lies in their capacity of invoke a region beyond literature through literature Theoretical Fables progresses by way of close readings of the works of eight canonical and not quite canonical Latin American Authors Borinsky argues that the Latin American theoretical fable has its origins in the work of the early twentieth century Argentinean writer Macedonio Fern ndez In this light she studies the works of Jorge Luis Borges Gabriel Garcia M rquez Julio Cort zar Jos Donoso Adolfo Bioy Cesares Manuel Puig and Maria Luisa Bombal How Scripts are Made Inga Karetnikova, 1990-08-29 Inga Karetnikova s method is that of the art teacher she asks students to study great works in detail to analyze them and then to create their own She stresses that her examination is interested only in how the scripts are written and what makes them work not in a cultural or scholarly examination of them Karetnikova analyzes eight screenplays TheGodfather Rashomon La Strada Bicycle Thief Nosferatu The Servant Viridiana Notorious anda

Psychoanalysis and Narrative Jorgelina Corbatta, 2024-08-14 Psychoanalysis and Narrative analyzes narrative in literary fiction film and autobiography through different psychoanalytic lenses including gender and socio cultural perspectives This book aims to demonstrate how fictionists and film makers have intuitively developed through their own creativity many of the psychoanalytic discoveries about the human mind Subverting the usual direction of applied psychoanalysis the book goes from creativity to psychoanalysis and focuses on four internationally known Argentine writers Jorge Luis Borges Julio Cort zar Manuel Puig and Luisa Valenzuela two Argentine women filmmakers Lucrecia Martel and Luc a Puenzo and French essayist and writer Serge Doubrovsky This volume will be of interest to students and academics interested in autobiography and autofiction Global Wallace Lucas Thompson, 2018-06-28 David Foster Wallace is invariably seen as an emphatically American figure Lucas Thompson challenges this consensus arguing that Wallace s investments in various international literary traditions are central to both his artistic practice and his critique of US culture Thompson shows how time and again Wallace's fiction draws on a diverse range of global texts appropriating various forms of world literature in the attempt to craft fiction that critiques US culture from oblique and unexpected vantage points Using a wide range of comparative case studies and drawing on extensive archival research Global Wallace reveals David Foster Wallace's substantial debts to such unexpected figures as Jamaica Kincaid Julio Cort zar Jean Rhys Octavio Paz Leo Tolstoy Zbigniew Herbert and Albert Camus among many others It also offers a more comprehensive account of the key influences that Wallace scholars have already perceived such as Fyodor Dostoevsky Franz Kafka and Manuel Puig By reassessing Wallace's body of work in relation to five broadly construed geographic territories Latin America Russia Eastern Europe France and Africa the book reveals the mechanisms with which Wallace played particular literary traditions off one another showing how he appropriated vastly different global texts within his own fiction By expanding the geographic coordinates of Wallace's work in this way Global Wallace reconceptualizes contemporary American fiction as being embedded within a global exchange of texts and ideas Acoustic Properties Tom McEnaney, 2017-06-15 Acoustic Properties Radio Narrative and the New Neighborhood of the Americas discovers the prehistory of wireless culture It examines both the coevolution of radio and the novel in Argentina Cuba and the United States from the early 1930s to the late 1960s and the various populist political climates in which the emerging medium of radio became the chosen means to produce the voice of the people Based on original archival research in Buenos Aires Havana Paris and the United States the book develops a literary media theory that understands sound as a transmedial phenomenon and radio as a transnational medium Analyzing the construction of new social and political relations in the wake of the United States 1930s Good Neighbor Policy Acoustic Properties challenges standard narratives of hemispheric influence through new readings of Richard Wright's cinematic work in Argentina Severo Sarduy s radio plays in France and novels by John Dos Passos Manuel Puig Raymond Chandler and Carson McCullers Alongside these writers the book also explores Che Guevara and Fidel Castro's Radio Rebelde FDR's fireside chats F lix Caignet's invention of the radionovela in Cuba Evita Per n's populist melodramas in Argentina Orson Welles's experimental New Deal radio Cuban and U S radio wars and the 1960s African American activist Robert F Williams s proto black power Radio Free Dixie From the doldrums of the Great Depression to the tumult of the Cuban Revolution Acoustic Properties Kellman, 2000-01-01 It is difficult to write well even in one language Yet a rich body of translingual literature by authors who write in more than one language or in a language other than their primary one exists The Translingual Imagination is a pioneering study of the phenomenon which is as ancient as the use of Arabic Latin Mandarin Persian and Sanskrit as linguae francae Colonialism war mobility and the aesthetics of alienation have combined to create a modern translingual canon Opening with an overview of this vast subject Steven G Kellman then looks at the differences between ambilinguals those who write authoritatively in more than one language and monolingual translinguals those who write in only one language but not their native one Kellman offers compelling analyses of the translingual situations of African and Jewish authors and of achievements by authors as varied as Mary Antin Samuel Beckett Louis Begley J M Coetzee Joseph Conrad Eva Hoffman Vladimir Nabokov and John Sayles While separate studies of individual translingual authors have long been available this is the first in depth study of the general phenomenon of translingual literature Teaching the Latin American Boom Lucille Kerr, Alejandro Herrero-Olaizola, 2015-09-01 In the decade from the early 1960s to the early 1970s Latin American authors found themselves writing for a new audience in both Latin America and Spain and in an ideologically charged climate as the Cold War found another focus in the Cuban Revolution The writers who emerged in this energized cultural moment among others Julio Cort zar Argentina Guillermo Cabrera Infante Cuba Jos Donoso Chile Carlos Fuentes Mexico Gabriel Garc a M rquez Colombia Manuel Puig Argentina and Mario Varas Llosa Peru experimented with narrative forms that sometimes bore a vexed relation to the changing political situations of Latin America This volume provides a wide range of options for teaching the complexities of the Boom explores the influence of Boom works and authors presents different frameworks for thinking about the Boom proposes ways to approach it in the classroom and provides resources for selecting materials for courses
